

WEEKLY OREGON STATESMAN.

FRIDAY, MARCH 3, 1876.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

From Wednesday Morning's Daily. Ash Wednesday. Today being the first day of Lent, divine services will be held in St. Paul's Church at 10 o'clock, a. m. and 4 o'clock, p. m.

Dead. In Salem, February 29, 1876, Betts, eldest child of G. P. Terrell, aged five years and five months. Funeral services at the Congregational Church to-morrow, (Thursday) at half past 10 o'clock, a. m. Friends of the family invited.

Drugs and Medicines. We call attention to the advertisement in another column of J. W. Weatherford & Co., dealers in drugs, pains, oils, chemicals, etc. When you are in need of anything in their line peruse their advertisement and go to their store and get it. They sell cheaper than the cheapest.

Painful Accident. The infant child of Mr. R. A. Pratt, about six months old, was yesterday playing around the floor, and by some means got hold of a pot of boiling water, turning the same over and scalding itself in such a manner as to render its recovery doubtful.

Promoted. We learn with pleasure, of the promotion of Samuel Church, now at school in California. This time it is to a Second Lieutenant and acting adjutant in the California Military school. Sam's advancement has been rapid, and his friends are pleased to learn what an Oregon boy can do abroad.

St. Paul's Church. During the coming season of Lent services will be held in St. Paul's Church as follows: At 8 o'clock, p. m., on every week day except Friday, when the service, with a lecture, will be at half past 7 o'clock, p. m. A cordial invitation to attend these services is extended to all persons.

Under the direction of G. W. C. T., W. B. Dunbar, J. B. Bignon, Esq., organized a Lodge of I. O. G. T. at Madras, on the 19th instant, with twenty-one members, and B. R. Allen organized another Lodge at Peoria, in Illinois county, with forty-one members. Six new Lodges have been organized this month in the valley, and an unusual degree of activity has been displayed in adding to the list of members in the older Lodges in all parts of the State.

That Orphan. I would call the attention of our good, philanthropic ladies to the fact that a woman in the Insane Hospital, in East Portland, has a bright infant of five months old. The poor creature, bereft of reason, cannot be a mother to that girl baby. It is not a State charge, nor yet a county charge. Dr. Hawthorne is willing to keep the child for one year. Will the ladies of the Orphan's Home in Salem take this matter into their hearts? I could not find out who or what the woman was, or where from, and who the father is, is known to himself and his God. The case is sorrowful.

DAVID NEWSON.

Deaths Items. Captain Daniel H. Murphy, of the Salem "Capital Guards" having resigned, and Second Lieutenant McAdams having removed from the State, Brigadier General Brown has ordered a special election to fill the vacancies in that company, to be held at their armory next Monday evening, March 6th. A new company has just been organized at Lafayette, named the "Yamhill County Guard," and lettered B in the First Regiment, Second Brigade, with the following commissioned officers: A. H. Butler, Captain; G. O. Holman, First Lieutenant; J. J. Hemlock, Second Lieutenant, so says the Albany Democrat.

Personal. Dr. J. C. Hawthorne, of Portland, is registered at the Chemeketa.

H. Y. Thompson, of Portland, is now in the city attending Supreme Court.

United States District Attorney Mallory came from Portland last night.

A. A. McCully and family came home on the evening train on Tuesday. All well after a pleasant voyage from San Francisco.

We notice in our city the familiar face of W. D. Fenton and Geo. H. Burnett, of Yamhill county, who are to spend a few days in the city.

Mr. S. Pelton, the great threshing machine manufacturer, has arrived at Salem with his family where he will permanently locate and at once take steps to erect buildings, in which to manufacture machines to supply the State. This is an enterprise that should be encouraged by all Oregonians.

Surprise Party. The many friends of Miss Dora Hernandez, who, for several years past has made her home in this city, hearing she was about to leave for California, decided upon giving her a rare well-surprise. The idea was one heartily and quietly issued to a favored few, and in no case eagerly accepted. The affair was announced to take place in the Chemeketa Hotel (parlor) which were kindly given up for the purpose of the obliging and generous proprietor, Thomas Smith, Esq. All arrangements were admirably planned, and to Miss Dora, who was ignorant of the whole thing, until she found herself the center of attention of about fifty friends, was a genuine and pleasing surprise. Music, dancing, etc., were indulged in to a reasonable extent, and the hours passed most agreeably to all parties interested. Miss Hernandez is one of our most accomplished belles, having occupied a prominent position in society during her sojourn in the city, first and foremost in giving aid as a musician to all charitable entertainments, and in many ways winning the esteem of all with whom she has been associated. In union with her legion of friends she wishes her and her abundant prosperity by their future dwelling place where it may.

A letter was found on the street addressed to Miss Helen M. Jones, which the owner can have delivered at this office.

IN MARION.

Wm. Lewis was seriously injured by his horse falling under him and lighting on the rider, near Silverton on Sunday last. The young people at Silverton held a torch-burn on Saturday night, and had a large turnout, and a pleasant time.

Evening parties and gatherings seem to attract much attention at Silverton.

They have a club of turners at Silverton, with a nucleus of fixtures for the practice of the regular exercise of muscular gymnastics.

The talk of building a new town hall is common on the streets, beside some residences and varied improvement anticipated for the coming season.

Among the improvements there in use are two large stores of general merchandise, store and tinshop, billiard saloon and drug store. Doing a fine business for these times, besides there are two inns, flouring mill, sack and doct factory, two shoeshops, large blacksmithshop, wagonshop, a good I. O. O. F. hall, F. and A. M. hall, hall of I. O. G. T., two-story school house, Postoffice and stationery store, and a fine water power for additional machinery etc.

Added to the aforesaid we may congratulate our fellow-citizens of Silverton that they have a daily hack and mail line, under the efficient control of Mr. Ramsby, the contractor.

The roads in this vicinity are improving slowly by evaporation, but they would be much better in many places were they rounded up and graveled, which would be a great convenience for winter travel. A lively man or two with a subscription paper, along the line, and at Salem and Silverton, might meet with sufficient encouragement to so far improve the bad places that a trip to Salem would be practicable at any time in winter, a haul "ad libitum."

It is claimed to be the best location for a first class wagon factory. There are plenty of ash and oak in the vicinity, and plenty of wood-working machinery with water power for use.

They claim a larger number of emigrants in that section of the county than any other.

In the Silverton precinct we have a candidate for Sheriff of Marion county, subject to the votes of the people.

The soil in the vicinity of Silverton has been tried for hops by Mr. Wolford and found to be fine. Mr. W. produced one thousand pounds per acre on seven acres, the first year of planting, which is a big average, as hops usually produce but a half crop the first year.

Notice. ED. STRATMAN: You will please state in your morning paper that I am now in the city and will be on hand to-morrow morning, with an able assistance, to commence the assessment for the year 1876, which may be called the "centennial assessment," and the taxpayers of the city may hold themselves in readiness to be called on at any moment.

E. L. HORNARD, County Assessor.

February 29, 1876.

(From Thursday Morning's Daily.)

Married. At the residence of the bride's father, Feb. 27, 1876, by Rev. J. B. Jones, Mr. S. W. Jones and Miss Sarah E. Darland, all of Marion county.

The Nameless Base Ball Club, of South Salem was re-organized yesterday evening and the following officers were elected: E. W. Otis, President; Clarence Godfrey, Vice President; O. Jory, Secretary; M. Darr, Treasurer; R. Westcott, Captain; L. Rennie and C. Jory, Directors.

She Dropped. While a young lady was skating at the rink yesterday afternoon her skate slipped, she fell heavily to the floor, and immediately lashed off for repairs. Of course, we were unable to tell what the difficulty was, but a friend of our abode informed us that the whole trouble lay in the "pin-back."

Adjourned. The Supreme Court finished all the docket yesterday, with the exception of one case from Grant county, which was continued. After concluding the docket the court adjourned until Monday next, when they will meet for the purpose of rendering decisions, which will require a few days, and adjourn sine die.

Public Lands Deeded. The Board of Commissioners for school lands executed deeds on the 29th of February to the following persons: Captain Hiram Brown, one hundred and eight and ten one hundredths acres of school land in Clatsop county. George Scott Harris, two hundred and twenty-three acres in Curry county.

Personal. Messrs. Thompson, Meadland Miller, the gentlemen who have entertained our citizens at the skating rink for the past few evenings, took their departure for their homes at Portland, Wednesday morning.

Miss Molly Nichols, of Dallas, is now in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. J. G. Nichols.

Divided. Thomas Reynolds, Secretary of the Board of Fire Delegates, Tuesday, drew warrants in favor of our Fire Companies, as follows: Capital Engine Company, $165; Tiger Engine Company, $165, and the Hooks and Ladders $119, this being the amount due each company from the proceeds of the sociable for the benefit and the amount presented by the County Commissioners.

An Acceptable Present. Rev. P. S. Knight, Wednesday, received a box containing specimens of 64 different varieties of Oregon beetles, scientifically mounted and accurately labelled. They were presented by Mr. O. B. Johnson, of Forest Grove, a student in all branches of Natural History, and whose extensive studies in the entomology of Oregon have caused his friends to nickname him "the bug hunter." The Reverend gentleman is much pleased with this addition to his collection.

Tenure Here Stare. We call attention to the new advertisement of Mr. A. Myers, dealer in furniture, etc., in Starkey's block, Commercial street. Mr. Myers orders all his goods from the East, which enables him to sell cheaper than any house in the State. He is also agent for the celebrated raw hide bottom chairs, manufactured at Jefferson, the best make and most durable chair in the world. Parties fitting up their homes are especially invited to call, as anything is one line from him that runs set to a fine article of wall paper, is complete on hand.

Painful Accident.

Mrs. Wm. Green, who broke her leg some two months since, while attempting to walk Tuesday, fell and injured that limb in such a manner as to seriously retard her recovery. It was at first thought that her leg was broken, but fortunately such is not the case.

Serenade. We modestly return thanks for a serenade on Wednesday night, by the "Salem String Band." Several instruments were represented and ten singers in attendance. Meals, Thompson and Backensto were the leading performers. Call on us frequently, gentlemen, our lute string if always out for such visitors.

Pioneers Banner. The Pioneer Association are having manufactured a banner, which is to be used for the first time at their next reunion, on June 18th. It is of extra heavy silk manufactured especially for banners, and its dimensions are to be 6x8 feet. It will be blue on one side and white on the other. The design for the ornamentation is now in preparation and it is intended that this banner shall be second to none on the coast in any respect.

Lady in the Season. The daughters of Mr. S. A. Clarke took a trip to the farm of their father, on Wednesday, about one and a half miles from the city, and picked quite a bouquet of wild flowers; the principal ones being what is termed "peppermint flowers." Considering that they were gathered on the first day of spring, we can safely call Oregon the Paradise of the United States. We are under obligations to the fair donors for a liberal donation of the flowers gathered by them.

Dead. At his residence, on the North Santiam, Feb. 26th, of affection of the liver, J. C. Siles, in the forty-ninth year of his age. Deceased was an old and highly respected citizen of Marion county. He was born in Perry county, Ohio. He leaves a widow and son to mourn their loss.

WILLIAM CAPES, STATIONER, Feb. 29th, 1876. Oregon and Ohio papers please copy.

Looming Up. We took a stroll to South Salem, Wednesday, and noticed a number of improvements in that part of town. The principal places of business are those of Mr. George Rowland and Wm. Armstrong. Mr. R. has lately moved his establishment to the opposite side of the street, and proposes putting down a cross walk and making divers other improvements. Mr. Hugh Rankin is erecting a small building in which he proposes to use as a butcher shop. Mrs. Lockwood has purchased a building, which has remained about half finished for a number of years and proposes completing the same. After taking a survey of the situation we concluded that South Salem was undoubtedly looming up and gliding along.

Sanctum Sanctorum. Several articles have recently appeared in different papers on this question. That a bridge at some suitable point on the Santiam would be a public benefit no one will question. That the people are willing to donate liberally for that purpose we are well assured. The question of location is the principal obstacle in the way. Many people are so constituted that if they can not get things just to suit their particular desires will oppose every other place that may be suggested by others and this case appears to be no exception. The people are divided apparently about equally between a point near the Scio Ferry and Grum Ferry. The people of Scio and vicinity and Marion and vicinity forming the former, and Jefferson and vicinity and a portion of the Forks people forming the latter place. The cost of a bridge at either of the places named would be from twelve to fifteen thousand dollars. If the former place is selected it leaves Jefferson in the cold. If the latter place it leaves Marion and Turner out. The people of neither location are not in favor of being taxed for the exclusive benefit of the other. Scio is the only town in the Santiam Forks. The Forks comprises more than one fourth the territory and population of Linn county, hence a large business is done there and Marion, in this county is their principal shipping point. They get their mails from there. A daily line of coaches runs from Scio to Marion. The Scio Ferry runs the direct road from Lebanon to Scio and Salem. Now, all these things, and many more that could be named, are weighty arguments in favor of the Scio ferry route. The principal, and in fact the only claim that Jefferson has is the fact that boats can occasionally reach that place; and as it is also on the railroad, parties can take their choice which way they ship their products, at certain times. But when we know that boats cannot reach Jefferson in the fall season, and cannot be relied upon at all times, even in the winter months, this argument is not of as much importance as some interested parties would make believe. And if we are to be taxed besides giving our money to build a bridge, let us have it where it will accommodate the public generally. If we expect Linn and Marion counties to be liberal in this enterprise, we must show by our acts that we are liberal minded ourselves.

Passenger List. The Oregon Steamship Company's steamer Oriflamme sailed from Portland for San Francisco, Wednesday at 4 p. m., with the following list of passengers:

- W. A. Williamson and wife I. G. Kilne; Thomas Strinco; Mrs. Jennie Macintosh; P. Selling; A. M. Cannon; Mrs. W. B. Wells; Mrs. Morgan; Mrs. N. Lock; A. R. Locke; J. C. Church; C. O. Hall, wife and child; L. Kline; M. Jacobs; I. Ackerman; E. Beck; Mrs. N. A. Townsend; Miss P. Bogaska; Miss L. Arger.

Shipping. The steamer Bonanza, of the O. S. S. line, arrived from Corvallis yesterday afternoon loaded with 200 tons of freight, lay over night and departed for Portland at an early hour this morning.

The City of Salem will be down from Harrisburg this morning.

Shooting Affray at Jefferson. The Albany Democrat says: "Just as we were going to press we received a message from Jefferson to the effect that Charles G. Jacobs, known as one of the Jacobs Bros., (showmen) got into a dispute with some spiritualists of that place to-day, which ended by Mr. Jacobs shooting one J. M. Armstrong. The latter was a strong spiritualist, and became very angry at Jacobs for pretending to expose that doctrine. We have not learned how seriously Armstrong was hurt."

Bible in Public Schools. The Oregon Bible Society, Wednesday, adopted the following resolution: "Resolved, That the Oregon Bible Society is opposed to the adoption of any amendment to the Constitution of the United States, or to the enactment of any law which could in any way be interpreted to exclude the word of God—the Bible—from the schools of the land, or from any of our public institutions whatsoever."

St. Paul's Academy. The literary and musical entertainment given at this institution yesterday was a decided success. The recitations were generally well rendered, and no little dramatic talent was manifested in the dialogues. The school paper, edited by Mr. Baker, contained several very cleverly gotten up compositions. Miss Clara Downer won the premium for best penmanship, an elegant gold pen. Professor Sellwood is a decidedly successful teacher, and his school deserves a liberal patronage.

Skating Rink. The skating rink well patronized last evening, the house being well-filled, and the demand for skates exceeding the number on hand. The "potato picking" was the "hit" of the season, the picking being a contest between four boys for a prize given by the proprietors, and was won by Ferg Reed, he capturing the greatest number of potatoes in the shortest space of time. The decision was received with rounds of applause. The rink will be open this evening as usual, and any one desiring to secure skates for the evening would act wisely to call early.

JUDICIAL. Circuit Court—Honourable Judge.

THURSDAY, March 2, 1876.

J. D. McCurdy vs. W. H. Chappell; jury trial; verdict for defendant for $3 damages.

J. W. McCaslin vs. First Presbyterian Church of Salem et al; demurrer overruled.

L. W. Bussey vs. Van Tartar et al; demurrer to complaint overruled.

R. Riggs, Administrator, vs. A. I. Nicklin; demurrer to answer sustained as to counter claims; overruled as to other objections and cause continued by stipulation till next term of Court.

E. Cartwright vs. A. Savage; motion to strike out part of answer a demurrer to other parts of answer argued and submitted.

Dr. E. Smith vs. P. K. Murphy; evidence taken, and partly argued, will be submitted to the jury this morning.

The trial of Watkins for assault with intent to kill commences this morning at 9 o'clock.

VARIED ITEMS.

Spring scene at a ball near Sublimity, Smith puts a lead on Dregs, Feb. 29th.

Also a domestic infidelity occurred near Astoria. One Rodman puts a lead on his better half. He is taken prisoner and adroitly escapes by night, from the house where the constable put him. No reward offered yet.

The farmers near Turner are packing the residue of their apples for shipment to the S. F. market.

The party mentioned sometime since in the Statesman, who was impeding the location for a flouring mill, at Turner, is expected to secure the site and erect a fine structure for the purpose this season.

We learn that a large number of the Youth's (male) of Jefferson were summoned on the 29th ult. as witnesses in a case before the court at Salem.

Farmers hurrying on to complete plowing and seeding. Some have managed to get in from 20 to 40 acres during the rainiest season. A party who visited the top of Mount Hood in July of 1875, offers to raise the flag on a 40 foot pole at the top of Mount Hood next 1st of July and in the evening send up fireworks for the Centennial celebration, if the means are secured.

(From Friday Morning's Daily.)

Convalescence. The little child of Mr. R. A. Pratt, whom we mentioned a few days since as being badly scalded, is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances, and strong hopes are entertained for its ultimate recovery.

The Journal says: East Portland was thrown into an excitement this morning by a crazy man charging around the streets hunting for a ferry boat. However the city marshal of the place soon had him in charge, and returned him to his old quarters.

Co-partnership. By reference to our advertising column, it will be seen that Professor T. H. Crawford and Col. C. A. Reed have formed a co-partnership and propose carrying on a general real estate and insurance business in our city. Both are well known citizens, and courteous gentlemen and deserve to succeed on general principles.

Persons. J. H. Reed and ... at Station Station, are now in the city.

Hon. W. W. Thayer is registered at the Chemeketa.

W. H. Francis, of San Francisco, is now in the city.

River News. The steamer Bonanza, of the O. S. S. line, arrived from Corvallis yesterday afternoon loaded with 200 tons of freight, lay over night and departed for Portland at an early hour this morning.

A TOAST. Two Important Discoveries: The discovery of Ankers by Columbus, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery; the one opening up to humanity a new continent, the other a fountain of health, which is indispensable to the enjoyment of life and its blessings. In response to the above sentiment come the unsolicited attention of tens of thousands of grateful patients, who have been relieved of chronic ailments by its instrumentalities. These voices are limited to no one locality, but from every city, village and hamlet, in our broad domain, as well as from other climes, and in the strange utterances of foreign tongues like the confused murmur of many waters, come unfeigned and hearty commendations. It is in combination with the Pleasant Purgative Pellets, the great depurative of the age. Under its benign action straggling, disappear, excessive waste is checked, the nerves are strengthened, and health, long banished from the system, resumes her reign and re-establishes her rosary throne upon the cheek. All who have thoroughly tested its virtues in the diseases for which it is recommended note in pronouncing it the great Medical Discovery of the age.

Pat had been engaged to kill a turtle for a neighbor, and proceeded immediately to cut off its head. Pat's attention was called to the fact that the turtle still crawled about, though it had been decapitated, and he explained: "Sure the bastie is entirely dead, only he is not yet conscious of it."

AS APOSTLE OF THE KITCHEN.

A few years ago the worthy Prof. Blot endeavored to create good housewives, but the flour and the man did not come together, for when he strove to turn women's thoughts kitchenward their ears were deaf. His effort was made in the era of financial plethora, when the idea of women was in spending money instead of saving it, and his whole counsels were unheeded. The forerunner of the hygienic and economical
