

VARIED ITEMS. The trial is not fair where affection is judge. Sacramento is flooded with "queer" two-bit pieces.

February, 1877, is the time chosen, and Albany the place, for the next session of the Oregon State Temperance Alliance.

Red Cloud says there has been a heap of talk about reform lately among the pa'e faces, but he can't see that the whiskey is any better.

A Station Deputing Society has decided that "the planets are not inhibited." All colonial schemes are therefore cancelled.

The trade dollar which is now becoming more plentiful than ever before, is said to be a drug in the San Francisco money market, other silver coins being preferred.

A young man suffering from "hereditary gout," said he didn't mind the pain of it so much, "but," said he, "the thought that some old ancestor had all the fun of acquiring this precious heirloom is what takes hold of me."

A gentleman questioning a little boy, said: "When your father and mother for- take you, Johnny, do you know who will take you up?" "Yes, sir," said he, "and who?" said the friend. "The police," was Johnny's reply.

Bed-time—Little Willie was saying his usual prayer to his mother's knee, and having got as far as "If I should die before I wake," hesitated. "Well, what next?" asked his mother. "Well, mamma, I suppose the next thing would be a funeral."

A snow-slide in the San Juan country carried a Mr. McGovern down 1,000 feet, but as extraordinary good fortune would have it, he was on top of the heap all the time, and was lauded at the foot of the mountain in a comparatively good state of preservation.

The proposed International Medical Meeting in Philadelphia during the Centennial Exhibition, is attracting attention in Europe, and will, no doubt, be an occasion of rare importance. It is probable that the leading nations of Europe will be largely represented.

A. T. STEWART pays about $120,000 in taxes on his real estate in New York City. His whole estate is assessed $1,150,000 and that $32,200; retail store, assessed at $850,000, pay $21,500; and he pays $15,000 tax on his house on Fifth Avenue, which is assessed at $100,000.

A Hartford girl treating a too frequent gentleman caller rather coolly, drew from him the remark: "I fear you are not dealing squarely with me!" "That's because you are 'round so often,'" was the quiet reply.

A romantic Brooklyn girl says of her handsome pastor: "I know he is a good man, because as I sit in church and listen to his words and watch his beautiful smile I can think of nothing but heaven and the angels."

"Will your Honor please charge the jury," asked an Arkansas lawyer at the conclusion of a horse-theft trial. "I will," replied his Honor, "the Court charges each jurymen one dollar for drinks, and six dollars extra for the one who used the Court's hat for a spittoon during the first day of the session."

A lawsuit has been in progress in Carthage, Ill., for some time, having been carried from a Justice's Court to the Supreme Court of the State. The claim is for $1, the balance alleged to be due on the price of a pig. So far the cost are $100, and the lawyers' fees more than $100 on each side. The decisions have been invariably in favor of the plaintiff.

The 4th of March, 1877, falls on Sunday, and therefore Gen. Grant's successor, in accordance with previous usage, will not be inaugurated until Monday, the 5th, so that President Grant will have one day of a third term anyhow. Twice in the history of the nation have the inauguration ceremonies been performed on the 6th of March, viz: President Monroe, in 1821, and President Taylor, in 1849.

A fellow in Kentucky ran away with a farmer's daughter and horse, and was hotly pursued. The farmer got within close range, and furnished a revolver. "Don't shoot, for heaven's sake!" shouted the lover. "I won't," was the reply, "cause I'm afraid I'll hit her boss. Just leave her boss and take her gal." The compromise was accepted by the young folks, who walked on to the preacher's house, the father riding home on his horse.

During the recent excursion of Texan editors an intelligent compositor at Chicago alluded to one of their number, whose paper is called the Marlin Moving Ball as the conductor of the Mooling Bull. The editor went round to the office to ask the intelligent compositor to come out and take a horn, but the intelligent compositor had taken down his coat and sold his string within ten minutes after the paper appeared.

A PRINTER'S TROUBLES. The printer is always blamed for any mistake that may occur in a paper. Who ever heard of an editor making an error during his whole editorial career? No one. The merchant swears at the printer; so does that cheerful biographical prodigy, the associated press agent; and those intolerable frauds, the poetess and poet of the city; the man whose friends desire he should be Mayor; the individual who received a benefit and a stuffed watch for his brilliant talents and in his card of thanks used the glittering commonplace, the antiquated and excessively vain pronoun "I," thus "I," in fact, the printer gets blamed on all sides. The printer, who rummages after un- intelligible pieces of metal, who corrects on an average, about fifteen vil- laneous errors an hour in common words and makes probably one blunder in five thousand words is frequently asked to step down and drink whisky and beer, and talks about the ignorance of the aristocrats, the middle classes and all other classes.
