PROMOTION. The promptness of the Governor to recognize real merit in Democratic citizens is commendable. Active service is what he desires, but his "staff" is growing and the morals of the community retrograding. It might be well to revise Gen. Brown's tactics.

GOV. WATKINS. Advertisers to sell some convict labor. It is highly probable that Jackson & Co., the Company is supposed to have a bill will take in the little matter of convict labor and make it profitable in that boot and shoe business.

WE TAKE IT BACK.

The statement that Gen. Brown booted the Penitentiary reports is not correct as he was not State Printer when the last reports were printed. We make this statement in justice to Gen. Brown, he having a sufficient load of just charges to carry.

TO BE CALLED FOR.

A subject of Queen Victoria will ask our next legislature to appropriate some public money for supporting the name and dignity of "Expert." It is a tremendous burden for any one to carry, but tax-payers do not relish paying for such luxuries.

NOTE WITH CARE.

In order to save what is left of State Lands, it is necessary to place the State and several county governments in the hands of the great party of progress. Republicans are the only defenders of free institutions, and promoters of good government. Vote a straight Republican ticket.

McCORMACK is a Watkinds and John F. Miller Democrat, and rather than see a New-Union delegation from his county will vote a Republican ticket. We will take Capt. McCormack on probation and trust he may prove faithful to the end. "While the lamp holds out to burn the smallest stone may return."

GOV. WATKINS made a fatal mistake in not going east of the mountains to look after Baker and Union counties. McCormack and Jim Henderson have been literally "cleared out," in the interest of Gen. Nesmith, and if a Democrat must be elected U.S. Senator, Gov. Watkinds is not likely to be the man.

THE STATE MILITIA.

The Oregon State Militia is a formidable institution, but mostly made up of "tail" Gov. Watkinds' misters. His Gen. Brown, Col. Cann, Maj. Jackson, Maj. Dearborn, Capt. Mac and a whole company of other "tail" officers, which it collected would outnumber the rank and file of the militia and literally frighten all enemies of the State out of their boots. Gen. Brown's tactics are being studied and acted upon by the whole regiment of staff and drill

THAT DEFENSE.

Judge Chenoweth, of Corvallis, rushes to the defense of the Democratic College, of his town, in a letter which appeared in our columns yesterday. His conclusions indeed are most lame and impotent. He says we would have no shelter for our agricultural business if it had not been for the special favors of the M. E. Church South. The fact seems to be that the building now used is worth two thousand dollars and belongs to that Democratic church after the State has paid for it about fifteen times. The statement that two lawyers have been made in an Agricultural College, does not give the tax-payer much encouragement and shows a reckless expenditure, as two lawyers could have been purchased at a much less cost than thirty thousand dollars. It is evident that Judge Chenoweth is principally interested in the location of the Agricultural College. If so why not take the proper funds and erect buildings suitable for a good institution, at Corvallis, outside of any and all churches? Then the State will have something to show for the money expended and our children, and children's children will have a school over which no sect exercises arbitrary control. The Judge must know that the school of which we have been talking and writing is controlled by a conference of Clergymen of the M. E. Church South and that the Board of Regents is simply an ornament, with which to capture the State funds. The next session of the Legislature should take some positive steps to save what there is left of the Agricultural College lands, by putting a part in the erection of substantial buildings at Corvallis and placing the balance where it will produce a fund sufficient for running expenses. It is such step is taken now we have a fund sufficient to sustain a college for all time, but if that Democratic church continues in possession for a few years more, direct taxation will become necessary. When the Judge states that each State Senator has had two students educated free of cost, he certainly makes a gross blunder, as no such number of students have ever been in that school. Our Corvallis correspondent seems to be correct in all his statements regarding what is called our Agricultural College, and if Judge Chenoweth cannot make a better defense the people will take judgment against him and his Democratic college at the next election, after which the Legislature will "hedge" the balance of unspent funds by investing them where they will be beyond the reach of church and political corporations.

It is rumored in private Democratic circles that John F. Miller is the choice of the Penitentiary ring for U. S. Senator, as that selection would not interfere with the present arrangement of State affairs. Should the old lady placed in front by Gov. Watkinds, be elected Senator, Secretary Chadwick and Mr. Jackson would assume Executive duties, and the result would be the displacing of Watkinds with Bristow and Col. Gilroy would be superseded by Mr. Stone. A terrible shaking up in the Democratic camp is pending.

COL. GILROY.

Col. Gilroy is charged with having used up one thousand and three dollars and twenty cents of the children's school money at one time, but it may be a mistake in the printed reports. We will take great pleasure in publishing a communication from the Colonel, if he will condescend to deny and explain to the tax-payers of the State. If he does not deny, the people will take judgment against him. Take a few steps to the front, Colonel, you look well on dress parade, and the Governor is proud of you.

INFORMATION WANTED.

When Republicans elected Record-Hyde, to his present position, did he promise to be forever after a Republican? It is in order for him to say yes, or no. If he answers yes, he is unwise, if he answers no, his memory or veracity will be brought in question. Let us hear from you Mr. Hyde.

OUR STATE DEMOCRATIC TREASURER is charged with furnishing funds to run the penitentiary shoe business. It cannot be possible that he uses State funds for such purposes, because it would not be lawful, and certainly our State Treasurer would not be a law breaker. If he has been guilty of such conduct, he should not only abandon the business but "speak right out in meetin'" and confess his fault.

COL. FRANK MOVIE.

Did not "march with Sherman to the sea" nor is he a member of Governor Watkinds' staff but is accounted an eminent "jokist," and expert book-keeper. He will probably be called upon by the next legislature to settle up the business of the present Board of State Land Commissioners. The Col. will probably be able to explain that "crooked" piece of business.

HOW MANY?

Only two Murphys are now on the Democratic ticket in Marion county. If any other member of the family can be found who is willing to accept, he should be given a place on the ticket.

LETTER FROM CORVALLIS.

CORVALLIS, May 15, 1876. ED. STATESMAN:—In your number of May 12th is a letter ostensibly from Corvallis, in relation to the State Agricultural College. My charity for the author leads me to believe the writer of that letter don't live in Corvallis nor any nearer than Salem to Corvallis.

A person living at Corvallis must know that many of the statements in that letter are untrue. The letter, however, don't abound with facts clearly stated but the mind of the writer appears to be full of poison, and the whole letter is but the abolition, spleen and hatred toward the teachers and the church.

It however may be gathered from the whole letter that the writer intended to say that $35,000 have been taken from the school fund and paid to the M. E. Church South.

The proposition is as absurd as it is untrue, and I think a man would be laughed at that would undertake to refute a charge so manifestly false, if there is a word of truth in it all that is necessary is to bring an action upon the official bonds of the State Treasurer.

There is another matter not clearly charged but intimated, and partly assumed to be a fact and that is that this school (Agricultural College) is run by the M. E. Church South. Now this is not the case. The teachers are employed by a board of Regents. Some of whom are members of the church (M. E. Church South) and some belong to other churches, and still a larger portion belong to no church. These Regents employ and discharge teachers at their pleasure, and without regard to the church to which they belong, or whether they belong to any at all. I am not aware that President Arnold or Hawthorn belong to any church, I am almost sure they do not. Emory is a member of the M. E. C. S. Prof. McElroy is a member of the Christian (Campbellite) church, and in politics a Republican. Captain Boswell is not a member of any church, and is a Republican.

The church has nothing whatever to do with the school except their own homes in which the school is taught, and give all the aid they can to help the school along. The college was placed here because they had a building to give it shelter, and for the help the college would receive from them. The church derives no pecuniary benefit from the college or the appropriation made to the college by the Legislature. The $5,000 appropriated by the Legislature is all spent by the Board of Regents in paying Professors and in procuring apparatus for the college. The church has never handled a dollar of it. I have never heard that a word of politics has ever been introduced in the college, and I am sure that any Professor that would attempt it would be instantly discharged.

I will make no attempt to answer the slurs and flings of the writer, at our President, or the other teachers of the Agricultural College. Neither of them would think me or any one else to defend them. They have built up a monument, each of them that can testify to their skill and ability as teachers. If our President "was taken from a private school," as he says, and "was never heard of until he was made President of this college," he must have been heard of much to his advantage since then or the State University would not be trying to get him away from us.

This institution is now prosperous, and is giving general satisfaction, as much so as any institution in the State. It may not give universal satisfaction. Human institutions don't accomplish this, and history is not at fault heaven itself failed to accomplish this most desirable object.

Now Mr. Editor allow me very respectfully to refer to your own editorial on this subject, and regret that you may have been deceived and have written under a mistaken idea of a real situation. "Will the State Land Commissioners of Oregon come into court and deny that over thirty thousand dollars have been literally thrown away on that sectarian Democratic school in Corvallis? If the statement is true, as the record shows, then why not put an end to it and save what there is left of our Agricultural College fund? The people should take the matter in hand and clean out the land ring which is rapidly impoverishing the State."

This contumacious is altogether too much for me, and I only insert it here for the purpose of asking an explanation. 1st. What record shows our College to be a "sectarian Democratic school?" 2nd. What record shows that "near thirty thousand dollars have been thrown away?" 3rd. What connection has our school with the "land ring?" Are you not aware that each Senator of the State of Oregon has had the right ever since this College was established to send here and have educated free of cost two students. These Senators have exercised their right and have sent Republicans of course where the Senator was Republican. Let any of these Republican young men say if ever a word of party politics or sectarianism was taught them while here. Lawyer Eglin of Roseburg and Thos. Alexander of Corvallis, Irvine and others, Republicans when they come and Republicans yet. Is it money thrown away to educate these young men?

But this school is in its infancy, and it is a matter of surprise that it has accomplished as much as it has, with the very little State aid afforded it. It we look over the liberal aid that other States have made to their State Agricultural Colleges, it really seems that nothing is absolutely nothing, has been done for ours. It becomes necessary to place this college under the care, and to some extent under the patronage of the church until we get a fund to erect buildings of our own. I would prefer to have it entirely clear of the church. In other words I wish we had money sufficient to erect buildings, and fund the operation of it should be. Suppose we were to occupy this building just because it is owned by the church, while in the field to erect other buildings, shall we refuse to do so, simply because the State aid is small? I would like to see Mr. Editor for the length of an article, and do me the favor to publish it in your excellent paper and reach all. Yours respectfully, F. A. CHENOWETH

FROM W. R. DUNBAR.

EDITOR STATESMAN:—This place is on the summit of the mountain and is the "half way house" on the S. O. W. R. between Ashland and Linkville in the Klamath Basin.

John and Francis M. Dick, who were drowned with W. J. Small by upsetting a sail boat on the Link river spread, on the 3d inst., leave behind them four children from two to eight years of age. I am now assisting in taking the helpless little ones to the home of an aunt, Mrs. Mat Shannon, residing in Jacksonville. There is another aunt residing in or near Salem, by the name of Flood. The good people of Linkville have shown every kindness possible to the little ones. The bodies of Mr. Small and Mrs. Dick were recovered from the water on the 6th inst., and buried on the 8th. The body of Mr. Dick has not yet been found.

I was at Fort Klamath on the 10th inst., and found the Lodge of I. O. O. G. T. there in good condition. Officers and enlisted men all doing what they can to add to the prosperity of the cause. The Lodge at Linkville by the drowning of Bro. Small (Lodge Deputy) has lost one of its best members. On our way out to day, we met on the road, Gen. J. F. Miller on his way to the Basin. He seemed to be enjoying his lone mule back ride very well. He is getting along nicely. A great many cattle and sheep have died in the Basin this winter from starvation. Capt. Barnes, alone, I hear lost some four hundred head of cattle, and from the flocks of sheep owned by J. D. Carr and kept near Clear Lake, they perished over four thousand head.

Have at time to write more now. Yours etc. W. R. DUNBAR. Duncan May 12th.

IN MARION.

Farmers are getting nearly through seeding in the vicinity of Jefferson. The fall sown grain looks well. Saw a field of volunteer barley headed out.

Several new buildings are to be put up this season and perhaps a new warehouse. The Jefferson brass band is progressing finely under Prof. Everts. They have received and accepted an invitation to play during Centennial celebration, Portland, which is expected to be a lofty affair.

The Granger's picnic, with invitation extended to the public is set for Saturday, the 27th instant at Jefferson park, a fine grove near the river, just below Jefferson. Everybody is invited to participate and have a gay leap year people's and grangers picnic. It is announced that the Jefferson brass band will attend. The hose factory is in operation, also the mill and chair factory and Erwin's factory for fanning mills and grain separators, working on orders. E. N. Thomas & Co., general merchants, are expected to rebuild a large warehouse at the R. R. depot. Things look progressive there.

A Visit to the Penitentiary.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows visited the Oregon State Penitentiary yesterday by special invitation from Superintendent Watkinds. Several omnibuses and hack were crowded, and a cordial reception was given them by Mr. Watkinds and his assistants. Following the leader like a flock of sheep, they were shown through the various departments, evincing great interest in all they saw and heard. The shoe factory being in operation they were afforded an opportunity of inspecting an institution young in years but the results around which will bring one of the most important branches of State industries. An hour or more was pleasantly spent in viewing the institution, and at four o'clock they returned to the hall and resumed labor, greatly relieved to all appearances that they were again in open air and out of the clutches of the powers that were.

CITY COUNCIL.

Our city fathers met Wednesday evening and adjourned without transacting much business. The committee on accounts and current expenses were instructed to present estimates for the city expenses for the coming year. An ordinance was introduced relating to the establishment of the city grades and several bills presented and referred to appropriate committees. His Honor, J. S. Drummond, Mayor of Victoria, J. D. Robinson, ex Mayor and water commissioner of the same city and Sam Crosby, formerly councillor of Olympia, W. T., were present and occupied seats within the bar. They expressed themselves highly pleased with the manner our councilmen have of doing business. The next meeting of the Council will not take place until Tuesday June 6th, 1876.

IN POLA.

Folk and Marion are again united at Basova Vista by wire being operated by Mr. Malloch. Trade is rather dull at the various stores here. The prospect for a fine crop of fall wheat was never better. The vicinity of Basova Vista. The pottery and pipe factory are being completed with work. The body of a man who was drowned in the Luckinette last winter, was recovered in a decomposed condition a few days since.

BOOK-KEEPING.

Col. Cann will not open a night school for the purpose of teaching book-keeping, until he is able to explain how it is that money taken out of the State Treasury can be reported as paid in. He begins to look upon his own printed reports with very grave suspicions that the manner is decidedly "crooked." An "expert," from Canada, or some other place, should be employed to fix up his books, before our Agricultural lands are all wasted.

DATES OF APPEARING.

W. M. Ramsey and Geo. Burnett, Democratic and Republican candidates for District Attorney in the Third Judicial District, will address the people of Linn County at the following times and places: Soio, Monday, May 15th, at 2 p. m. New Railroad Project.

The Oregon Central R. R. Company have agreed to extend their line from St. Joe the present terminus, to Amity, a distance of ten miles, to be completed in time to meet the fall crops, provided the people will bind themselves to furnish 300,000 bushels of wheat for transportation at 12 1/2 cents per bushel.

Dramatic Entertainment.

Our readers will not of course neglect the entertainment to be given at Reed's Opera House this evening for the benefit of the Colgate Base Ball Club. The drama on the boards have been in rehearsal for some time past, and it promises to be a pleasant affair throughout. The musical and literary interludes are truly fine and the committee in charge of the affair will do all in their power to make it a success. The silver ice pitcher presented by S. Friedman, Esq., will be awarded to the fortunate ticket holder. Reserved seats can be secured at Boon's book store and tickets can be purchased at fifty cents each from the committee, and are for sale at a number of the leading business houses.

A BRAND-NEW CANDIDAT.

For President of our United States, S. Friedman.

I promise, if elected, to give all my relatives and office, and all who vote for me an elegant chronicle; therefore I am sure to be elected and will have no use for my two stores in Salem, so I will close out now my entire stock of goods, regardless of color or previous condition of service, at the following rates, that will astonish the natives, to-wit: Good heavy carpet, 35 cents per yard; satin carpet, at 37 1/2 to 37 1/2 cents per yard; oil cloth carpet, 37 1/2 to 75 cents per yard; fine Victoria lawn, 15 cents per yard; goods detailed as follows: 25 cents per pair and all kinds of furnishing goods in proportion. Boys' clothing from $2 to $10 per suit; men's clothing from $5 to $25 per suit; white shirts at $1, stockings and socks at a bit a pair, and other goods to correspond. Fine embroidered handkerchiefs at a bit apiece; 14 yards of calico for one dollar; five species of Broek's cotton for 22 cents; in fact my immense and well selected stock of general merchandise in the two store rooms in the Excelsior block is now offered as a sacrifice, for cash only, for it costs money to run the Press-dens. The way are crooked, but you will find my goods straight, and I challenge the world to compete with me during the campaign for cash only. Yours most President, S. FRIEDMAN.

Auction! Auction!

The following property will be sold by S. Friedman, Auction, on Thursday, 25th of May at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mr. John Payne: 100 yards of Brussels carpet, 100 yards Ingrain carpet, 100 yards stair carpet, 2 bedroom sets furniture, 1 parlor set furniture, 5 bedsteads, 1 set of chairs, lounge, tables and center tables, pictures, looking glasses and dishes, 5 spring mattresses, 2 sets single buggy horses, 1 set carpenter tools.
