THE OREGONIAN

Has made some desperate attacks on President Grant. Of course it grows out of the failure of Mr. Corbett to be elected United States Senator. The people of all parties fully understand the matter and place a proper estimate on it.

JUDGE GROVER Is accounted a very plastic atom of material in the hands of Gov. Watkinds and Maj. Dearbon, who are expected to furnish brains. The third party business which the Judge is determined to push upon the people of Marion county, will not finally, when the matter is fully understood.

LITERALLY CAPTURED.

It is reported that Judge Daly of Polk county has been captured by the friends of Gov. Watkinds and is now canvassing for the election of Judge Hayden, hoping thereby to aid the Governor to a U. S. Senatorship. The condition is not made public, but one shrewd Democrat suggests that it means another Notary Public in Polk county, and quotes, "to what base uses have we come at last."

THE STATESMAN

Is the only Republican daily in Oregon, and will be both enlarged and improved in a short time. Republicans as well as Democrats are invited to extend a liberal patronage to the paper, in order to sustain an open enemy of corruption and an unflinching friend of the right.

MOS A. W. LUCAS

Of Polk county, a staid and substantial Republican, now candidate for State Senator called yesterday. He is making no special effort to insure his election, but depending upon his neighbors who desire to be honestly and ably represented. We hope to see the people of Polk county come forward and elect Mr. Lucas as he is not only a good Republican but a reliable gentleman in every way.

JUDGE HAYDEN

Was in the city a day or two since ornamented with a new suit, which makes him look like Henry Clay Dean. He is confident of election to the State Senate, and denies having "crassly obtained" any school funds from the State. He expects to pay back the sum which he borrowed when he can get it out of the public crib, by some slight turn of the wrist. His manner of "obtaining" the Mrs. Dove property, he will explain on the stump. That Dove and school fund business need explanation.

A. B. COOPER, Esq.

Inform us that he has always been a Republican and proposes to continue to "fight it out on that line." The report that he is engaged in any independent move is without foundation in fact. But, being a straight Republican he holds it to be a privilege to reject any candidate on the ticket, which he obtained a nomination, through any kind of fraud. Mr. C. will doubtless vote a clear Republican ticket and it is certain that he will not follow off any third party movement.

SINCE JUDGE GROVER

Has announced his "Independent ticket" it is certainly in order for Dr. S. W. McDowell to come to the front and announce himself, as usual, a candidate for Congress. A number of candidates enable the voters to select, and good men should be the result.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

The Governor's organ has a ticket which is headed, "Independents of Marion county." There seems to be no convention reported, but a simple order from Gov. Watkinds and Judge Grover. The ticket shows on its face an effort to defeat a part of the Republican ticket, but the dodge is so "thin" that the most obtuse mind in the community can see through it.

THE OREGONIAN

Endorses the Multnomah ticket. What special reason it may have for trying to defeat that ticket, will likely be developed during the canvass. In meantime Republicans all over the State should stand by their colors, and hold a majority in the next Legislature in spite of all enemies to the government and free institutions.

EXPLANATION.

Little items of history come up frequently which are of great interest to the people. A certain Stephen Saats, who is now a Ben Hayden candidate for the Legislature in Polk county, once wrote a very interesting letter to the STATESMAN which we reproduce at this time, for the benefit of voters in his county. A. Gesner, Esq., of Marion county, has furnished us a copy of the letter from an old file.

"COMMITTEE."

Gov. Watkinds and Judge Grover issued a call not long since, which appeared in the Governor's organ, calling Independents to meet in convention and nominate a county ticket. The call was signed, "Committee." A number of fellows inquired, "who is that Mr. Committee?" and were answered "Judge Grover." That let the scheme out, but it has been revived to die a similar death.

SHERIFF CURTIS.

Of Union county, called on us yesterday. He is agent for the school funds in his county; and seems to be a reliable man. It is hinted that he visits Gov. Watkinds to dictate his conduct during the present campaign and brings a new guest to Dr. Hawthorne as an incident. We find the Sheriff a very pleasant gentleman, but clinging to his Democracy with much tenacity. He goes out of the office of Sheriff in a short time.

THE "Semi-weekly Telegram," talks learnedly of the destiny of the races, and says of the pig-tailed Asiatic, "He is of a race so distinct from our own as to make amalgamation impossible." On this hypothesis he deduces the conclusion that the race is not needed and cannot be utilized by the Democratic party. Whether the editor has demonstrated the matter asserted, personally, or has found his opinion from careful observation of results of Democratic electioneering, we are not advised.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE statements made by Judge Peebles being unanswerable, the Mercury now resorts to the defense of a blackguard, stands off and calls names.

No better ticket has ever been placed in the field in Marion county, than the present Republican ticket, and we predict its success by a rousing majority.

The so called Independent documents to be distributed in the state, or county will cost considerable money. Who pays for it? Does it come from the State Treasury?

WE are happy to be able to say that, no one of the nominees on the Republican ticket received at, or is in any way responsible for that miserable farce Col. Cooper's Grover-Watkinds ticket.

SOME correspondent of the Albany Democrat offers two bits for the name of a certain Corvallis correspondent of the STATESMAN. He will know the name in a short time without any such reckless outlay of current expenses.

IT several benevolent institutions of the state are to be made subservient to the wishes of Gov. Watkinds, it is high time the inmates were boarded at first class hotels, at a much less expense than it now costs to take care of them.

AT the proper time we propose to examine the "make up" of the Col. Cooper's Grover-Watkinds ticket, and show that the men of brains and ability on the Democratic ticket have been entirely ignored, and only those selected who are supposed to be pliant and subservient to his "Excellencies" wishes.

Gen. Jo Lane delivered a political speech at Roseburg recently while suffering with a severe headache. The Plunderer says "his bonhomie was quite pleasing to the ladies." We have sent a special reporter to the French Prairie to ascertain just how. Why not write in English? Foreign language is so difficult to understand.

"This is what I call capital punishment," as the boy said when his mother shut him up in the closet among the preserves.

THAT DEFENSE.

MR. EDITOR:—Your editorial of the 19th, perhaps demands a little notice. And first I would say I did not run to the defense of the Democratic College, but I supposed you were sincerely desirous of the truth, and I only desired to correct some errors of facts under which you seemed to be laboring. I never thought of a "defense." Our college is not indicted nor on trial for any crime or wrongdoing. You say my conclusions are "lame and impotent." I am sorry for it. It is a matter of surprise that you did not trust to the intelligence of your readers to see its lameness and impotency. It involves a great loss to employ such immense talent to show up that which every one could see. It is a matter of some surprise that you could not show up such imbecility without a resort to misrepresentation. The statement of two lawyers have been made in an agricultural College etc.—"now the fact that I referred to two or three young men, Republicans, to show that no politics or sectarianism had been taught, ought not to be tortured into a statement that two lawyers cost the tax payers $30,000.

You say two lawyers could have been purchased at a much less cost than that. I can not say, as I never had experience in that kind of produce, but as you seem to be at home in that kind of market, I will not question the correctness of your figures. Again "when the Judge states that each Senator has had two students educated free of cost, he certainly makes a gross blunder, as no such number of students have ever been in that school."

No such statement was made by me. But there is no denying the fact for such is the law that each State Senator has the right to send two students to be educated free of cost, under the 1874 Code, free of cost and during the last winter there have been fifty of such students here in attendance. Now it can be seen to what extent and in what way these Senators have exercised their right. It is the duty of the Senators to appoint, and it is not the fault of the College if they neglect to appoint or the students appointed neglect to attend. The Senators don't appear to have neglected the appointments though the full number have never been here at one time.

Again you say the "Board of Regents is simply an ornament with which to capture the State funds." I have heard this statement before and it must not be made under a mistaken view of the facts or made willfully. The 21st page 784 of the Code holds the following language:

"There shall be and hereby is appropriated out of the general fund in the treasury, not otherwise appropriated, annually the sum of $5,000 to be devoted to the Agricultural college of the State of Oregon, under the directions of the Regent thereof."

The church has no more control over this money than they have over the volumes of the STATESMAN. Only about a third of this board are members of the M. E. Church South and over half of them are Republicans and persons neither members or in sympathy with the M. E. Church South.

Now, Mr. Editor, it seems to me in all kindness, you have been mistaken. A man that has the honor to conduct so influential and able a paper as the STATESMAN, and a Republican at that, would not intentionally misstate the facts.

I would be pleased to have you visit Corvallis and visit our school. We have considerable reason to be proud of our school, and no reason whatever to be ashamed of it. And I desire here to say to my Republican friends, send your children here to this college. It is a healthy locality, pleasantly situated, and I will guarantee that not a word of politics will be taught, or that any distinction will be made between your sons and the sons of Democrats. We have churches here of six or seven denominations, students go where they choose to church, or if they choose need not go at all, no interference from the teachers in this regard is had at this college. Very respectfully yours, F. A. CHENOWETH, Corvallis, May 19, 1876.

the high and dignified position of Vice President.

His name has already been suggested for that office by prominent leading eastern journals, as a representative man. The people of the Pacific Coast and the Great West, desire a representative in the next Administration, and believe they are justly entitled to it. To that end we should make all proper sacrifices and concessions. We want and must have the co-operation of our brethren, the Independents. It is suggested by several men of both parties that the conventions of the several States and Territories west of the Missouri river, communicate as well by telegraph as otherwise, with one another. Let votes be taken to determine whether an Independent or Republican is their choice, and who is the man, and let concession be made accordingly. The parties must be united. The Pacific States are entitled to a Vice President.

UNION FOR THE SAKE OF THE UNION.

EDITOR STATESMAN:—Every day's experience and observation convinces us that the only hope for our Union as it is, is in the election this year of Union men from highest to the lowest officers throughout the land. The principles of the Republican party are sound, reliable, and every way suited to the wants and welfare of our nation. The abuses of the trusts reposed in some of Grant's appointees, are not to be fairly placed to the discredit of the Republican party. As well might we reject the scriptures on account of the base conduct of some professors of religion, as to impugn the principles of our party because of bad conduct in some of our leading men. We know that on the heels of any great war, frauds, speculations and corruptions steal in. The government is doing everything possible to ferret out and punish delinquents under it. If Grant's appointees had been taken solely from the common ranks of life, more honesty would have been found amongst them.

There seems to be a total disregard of the requirements and binding force of the late Constitutional Amendments, by the ex-Confederate members of Congress. The old slang and doctrine of State sovereignty, secession and rebellion are flaunted again in defiant tones. The rebels do not intend to abide by the "situation." What reforms have they inaugurated in Congress this session?

Their inquisition, with closed doors has been busy at work, in order to blacken the character of those who might be in their way. Do they wish a return to specie payments? They are divided amongst themselves on that question. Their aim is to destroy, but not to mind the government. Taking the antecedents of the Catholic Democratic party, and we have no assurance of anything good from them. They aim at power and revenge, and let them but gain the ascendancy in our nation and our doom is sealed.

The masses of the people east, west, north and south aim to act right and be at peace. They do not want another civil war to please demagogues. The aim of the rebels is to have the rebel war debt paid in full, and the debts of their States all paid. They aim at bankrupting our government and adopting repudiation of our national debt as a new standard. For the sake of the Union, then, let all its lovers and supporters unite this year, and elect sound, reliable Republicans to all responsible, political offices. LENOX, May 17.
