LAWS OF NEWSPAPERS.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills, and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former direction they are held responsible.

The Courts have decided that "refusing to take periodicals from the office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud."

Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held in law to be a subscriber.

If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice to the publisher, at the end of their time, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it on and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrearages to the publisher.

NEW RATES OF POSTAGE.

Hardly a day passes but we are asked for information relative to the present postage law on newspapers and letters. Below we give the rates as they now stand, which every business man should cut out and paste up for future reference.

Postal cards, one cent each, go without further charge to all parts of the United States and Canada, with an additional one cent stamp they go to all parts of Europe.

All letters to all parts of the United States and Canada, three cents per half ounce.

Local, or "drop" letters, that is, for the city or town where deposited, two cents if delivered by carriers, and one cent where there is no carrier system.

Newspapers, daily, semi-weekly, tri-weekly and weekly, regularly issued and sent to regular subscribers, two cents per pound, payable at the office of publication; newspapers and magazines less frequently than once a week, three cents per pound.

All other printed matter, including transient newspapers, magazines, pamphlets, handbills, and books, one cent for each two ounces, or fraction thereof.

On unsealed circulars, and all mailable matter of the third class, other than that designated in the foregoing section, postage as heretofore, one cent for each ounce, or fraction thereof.

The following are the postal rates with Europe. The rates for letters are for the half ounce, or fraction thereof, and those for newspapers for four ounces, or fraction thereof.

To Great Britain and Ireland, letters five cents, newspapers two cents; France, letters five cents, newspapers two cents; Spain, letters five cents, newspapers two cents; to all parts of Germany, including Austria, letters five cents, newspapers two cents; Denmark, letters five cents, newspapers two cents; Switzerland, letters five cents, newspapers two cents; Italy, letters five cents, newspapers two cents; Russia, letters five cents, newspapers two cents; Norway, letters five cents, newspapers two cents; Sweden, letters five cents, newspapers two cents; Turkey, European and Asiatic, letters five cents, newspapers two cents; Egypt, letters five cents, newspapers two cents.

Packages containing liquids, poisons, glass, explosive chemicals, live animals, sharp-pointed instruments, sugar, flour, or any other matter liable to deface or destroy the contents of the mail, are unmailable; are not placed in or allowed to pass through the mails, under any circumstances.

By a late act of Congress, also, all letters or circulars relating to lotteries, gift concerts, or schemes of chance of any description, are declared to be unmailable, and entirely excluded.

ADDITIONAL POSTAL LAWS.

The following sections of a law have been passed by Congress and approved by the President:

SECTION 15. That transient newspapers and magazines, regular publications designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation at nominal rates, and all printed matter of the third class except unsealed circulars, shall be admitted in the mails at the rate of one cent for every two ounces or fractional part thereof, and one cent for each two additional ounces or fractional part thereof; and the sender of any article of the third class of mail matter may write his or her name or address therein, or on the outside thereof, with the word "from" above or preceding the same, or may write briefly or print on any package the number and names of the articles inclosed. Publishers of newspapers and periodicals may print on the wrappers of newspapers or magazines sent from the office of publishers to regular subscribers the time to which subscription thereof has been paid, and addresses upon postal cards and unsealed circulars may be either written, printed, or affixed thereto, at the option of the sender.

SEC. 16. That all acts or parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

On unsealed circulars and all mailable matter of the third class other than that designated in aforegoing section postage will be charged as heretofare, one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof.

There are many who have never known the blessing of strong nerves, having been born with weak ones. Those who have, and through disease or some other cause have suffered a loss of nerve power, can, by contrast, more fully appreciate the magnitude of that loss. The true way to repair it is to invigorate the system through the medium of improved digestion, secretion, and the establishment of a regular habit of body, three results invariably accomplished by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which insures the thorough conversion of the food into pure, nourishing blood, from which the nerves, in common with every other part of the bodily economy, gather vigor, the grand prerequisite of health. The great objection to sedatives and narcotics is that they not only exert no tonic influence, but are always followed by a hurtful re-action. Such is far from being the case with the Bitters, the primary action of which is most salutary, and whose after effects are beneficial in the extreme.

He came home one night with a torn coat, which she kindly undertook to mend; and when she turned it inside out, so that a letter and a "Domestic Eagle," of a new overshirt, which she had given him to mail to her mother some two weeks before, tumbled out of one of the pockets, it was so lucky there for the next ten minutes that his footsteps in the corridor was in the direction of a wig store, to the proprietor of which he gratefully expressed that close application to the study of the Foreign Policy of the Khedive of Egypt had done it.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

Jan. 1, 1877, THE LIVING AGE enters upon its 132d volume, with the continued commendation of the best men and journals of the country, and with constantly increasing success.

In 1877, it will furnish to its readers the productions of the foremost authors ABOVE NAMED AND MANY OTHERS; embracing the choicest Serial and Short Stories by the LEADING FOREIGN NOVELISTS, and an amount

Unapproached by any other Periodical in the world, of the most valuable literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the LEADING ESSAYISTS, SCIENTISTS, CRITICS, DISCOVERERS, and Editors, representing every department of Knowledge and Progress.

THE LIVING AGE, in which its only competitor, "EVERY SATURDAY," has been merged, is a weekly magazine of sixty four pages, giving more than double column octavo pages of reading matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a SATISFACTORY COMPLETENESS attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

It is therefore invaluable to every American reader as the only fresh and thorough compilation of an indispensable current literature, - indispensable because it embraces the productions of

in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics,

Opinions.

THE SUN.

1877. NEW YORK. 1877.

The different editions of THE SUN during the next year will be the same as during the year that has just passed. The daily edition will on week days be a sheet of four pages, and on Sundays a sheet of eight pages, or 56 broad columns; while the weekly edition will be a sheet of eight pages of the same dimensions and character that are familiar to our friends.

THE SUN will continue to be the strenuous advocate of reform and retrenchment, and of the substitution of statesmanship, wisdom and integrity for hollow pretence, imbecility, and fraud in the administration of public affairs. It will contend for the government of the people by the people and for the people, as opposed to government by frauds in the ballot box and in the counting of votes, enforced by military violence. It will endeavor to supply its readers—a body now not far from a million of souls—with the most careful, complete, and trustworthy accounts of current events, and will employ for this purpose a numerous and carefully selected staff of reporters and correspondents. Its reports from Washington, especially, will be full, accurate and fearless; and it will double as continue to deserve and enjoy the hatred of those who thrive by plundering the Treasury or usurping what the laws does not give them, while it will endeavor to merit the confidence of the public by defending the rights of the people against the encroachments of unjustified power.

The price of the daily SUN will be 35 cents a month or $3.50 a year, post paid, or with the Sunday edition $7.70 a year.

The SUNDAY edition alone, eight pages, $1.20 a year, post paid.

The WEEKLY SUN, eight pages of 56 broad columns, will be furnished during 1877 at the rate of $1 a year, post paid.

The benefit of this large reduction from the previous rate for THE WEEKLY can be enjoyed by individual subscribers without the necessity of making up clubs. At the same time any of our friends choose to aid in extending our circulation, we shall be grateful to them, and every such person who sends us ten or more papers from one place will be entitled to one copy of the paper for himself without charge. At one dollar a year, postage paid, the expenses of paper and printing are barely repaid; and considering the size of the sheet and the quality of its contents, we are confident the people will consider THE WEEKLY SUN the cheapest newspaper published in the world, and we trust also one of the very best. Address, THE SUN, New York City, N. Y.
