VOL. 27, SALEM, OREGON, FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 27, 1877. NO. 18.

LATEST DISPATCHES.

Very Latest News Reports.

EASTERN NEWS.

Parquet of the White House.
WASHINGTON, April 19.—There will be 28 guests at the banquet tonight at the Executive Mansion in honor of Grand Duke Alexis and Constantine. The number will include the Russian legation, diplomatic corps, members of the President's cabinet, Admiral Porter and Justices of the Supreme Court.

Bad News for Texas.
BOSTON, April 19.—The Herald says a man who knows Hayes tells us he will veto Texas Pacific subsidy should Congress pass it.

Don't Contradict Tweed.
NEW YORK, April 19.—The World's correspondent interviewed John Kelly. The latter when asked if the confession by Tweed was correct, replied to the best of my knowledge and information it is. A further question was then asked him, "Have you seen the confession?" To this Kelly replied more cautiously, "For certain reasons I have some reluctance in answering this question, but I believe that in a matter of such paramount importance no obstacle should be thrown in the way of a thorough and absolute knowledge of the exact details of the confession which Tweed has undoubtedly made." Kelly further said the names of between 250 and 300 persons to whom he says he had paid money for corrupt purposes are given in the confession. They embrace the names of prominent persons of both political parties in this city and in the State. Many of them have not heretofore been suspected of any complicity in the fraud.

The Confession in Trouble.
The Times says the author of the Tweed confession is in trouble, a suit for libel by Judge Folger being in prospect.

The Galled Jade Wins.
The Herald says it is rumored that ex-Senator Winslow, implicated by Tweed's confession, has fled to Canada.

Tornado.
NASHVILLE, April 19.—A terrible tornado passed through Rutherford county last night, blowing down 15 houses, filling three persons and wounding eight others.

The Ex-President.
HARRISBURG, Pa., April 19.—Ex-President Grant will remain until next Monday, and it is claimed positively that Ex-Senator Cameron will not accompany him on his European trip.

The Lick Estate.
NEW YORK, April 19.—The Reading, Pa., Times says John H. Lick is to receive $235,000 from the trustees in settlement of his claim on the estate of his father. The estate is valued at $3,300,000.

Reduction of Printers' Wages.
NEW YORK, April 19.—The Typographical Union of this city has adopted a new and reduced scale of prices for daily morning papers—40 cents per 1,000 ems; for daily evening and weekly papers, 35 cents.

A Generous Benefit.
ST. LOUIS, April 19.—The benefit at DeBar's Opera House last night for the destitute servant girls of the Southern Hotel, was a very generous one, the house being filled and everything volunteered. The proceeds probably reach $2,500.

Fraudulent Appeals from Dismissed Treasury Employees.
The Treasury Department is besieged by persons dismissed from the engraving and printing bureau yesterday, who make pitiful appeals for reinstatement. In less than two weeks two-thirds or as many more employees will be forced to seek other employment. One lady was presented to Governor McCormick from President Hayes, saying he knew the applicant, and was perfectly cognizant it was a very sad case, but at the same time saying he was not suggesting any deviation whatever from the rules adopted for the good of the public service, but only hoped that the applicant might be considered in future if consistent with the government's interest. Another lady approached the Assistant Secretary, saying: "Here is a letter signed by two gentlemen that I think ought to be effective in having me reinstated. If anything could." The endorsements upon it were Senators Thurman and Sherman. Governor McCormick said he did not see how it was possible to make it effective on this occasion.

The Speakership.
NEW YORK, April 19.—The Tribune's Washington special says: Senator Dornay, who has just returned from a trip through a considerable portion of the South, says he does not believe any Southern Democratic Congressman will vote for a Republican for Speaker. Some Conservatives, such as Ganey and Slemons of Arkansas, and Casey and Young of Tennessee, who are very liberal in their ideas, have published cards to constituents, in which they say they do not intend to vote for a Republican Speaker. Dornay consequently is of the opinion he has the best chance of organizing the House, in the absence of the administration.

Recently settled.
NEW YORK, April 20.—The Graphic's Washington special says: Official advices received at the Executive Mansion from the Louisiana commission announce the settlement of the Louisiana controversy. The commission are expected to return immediately. The President and Secretaries Evans and Sherman says they consider the contest virtually settled. Two more members of Packard's legislature went over to Nichols' side—McMillan from the House and Young from the Senate.

Sending Steamships Overland.
NEW YORK, April 20.—The Tribune says the totally novel enterprise of transporting large steamers across the continent has been successfully carried out within a few weeks. In October, 1874, George H. Bradbury, President of the Occidental and Oriental S. S. Co., made a contract with Fletcher, Harrison & Co. of this city, for the construction of two side-wheel steamboats, each of the following dimensions: Length, 210 feet; beam, 32 feet; depth of hold, 10 1/2 feet. Each was to have two boilers, one vertical beam-condensing engine, with a boiler 50 inches in diameter and 11 feet length of stroke. The contract provided that the hulls, machinery and joiner work should be built and fitted together here, and then when completed, the boats should be taken to pieces and shipped by rail to San Francisco, and there put together again. In accordance with their agreement, Fletcher, Harrison & Co., as early as March, forwarded the hull and machinery of the first vessel, and they have since dispatched the hull and machinery of the second with the joiner work for both. The boilers for the second boat were delivered in Jersey City a week ago, and are now on the way to San Francisco. The entire weight of the vessels and machinery as shipped was about 800 tons. The four boilers were completed before shipped and taken on the locomotive tracks, whence they were transferred without change to their destination. The hulls are built by Lawrence & Folks, and the joiner work was done by H. B. Eels. Each shipment was done by rail about 20 days after it left New York. The steamers are intended to run on San Francisco bay, one from San Francisco to Seattle, the other from San Francisco to San Rafael. No pains have been spared to make them in every respect as comfortable and elegant as possible. It is believed in point of speed they will be unequalled by any boats on the Pacific coast.

What the Commission has Done.
WASHINGTON, April 20.—It is asserted on good authority that the work of the Louisiana commission was more successful than anticipated in official quarters, therefore it cannot be said that the President withdraws the troops because of a failure of the commission's work, but on the contrary, the determination to-day to issue the order for that purpose was owing to the satisfactory result of their labors. Last night they telegraphed the President that after a careful examination of the condition of political affairs they came to the conclusion that the time had arrived when the troops could safely be withdrawn.

Nichols Triumphant and Troops Ordered from New Orleans.
WASHINGTON, April 20.—The President this afternoon addressed a letter to Secretary McCrary:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, April 20.
Sir: Prior to my entering upon the duties of the Presidency, these had been established, by order of my predecessor, in the immediate vicinity of the building used as a State House in New Orleans, La. I own as Mechanics Institute, a detachment of U. S. Infantry. Finding them in that place, I have thought proper to delay a decision of the question of their removal until I could determine whether the condition of affairs is now such as to justify or require continued military intervention of the national government in the affairs of the State. In my opinion there does not exist in Louisiana such domestic violence as is contemplated by the constitution as a ground upon which the military power of the national government may be invoked for the defense of the State. The disputes which exist as to the right of certain claimants to the chief executive office of that State are to be settled and determined, not by the executive of the United States, but by such orderly and peaceable methods as may be provided by the constitution and laws of the State. Having ascertained that no resort to violence is contemplated but on the contrary the disputes in question are to be settled by peaceable methods under and in accordance with the laws, I deem it proper to take action in accordance with the principles announced, when I entered upon the duties of the Presidency. You are therefore directed to see that proper orders are issued for the removal of said troops at an early date from their present position, to such regular barracks in the vicinity as may be selected for their occupation.

FOREIGN.

PAUSE, April 19.—Military attaches of the Russian Embassy and all Russians belonging to the Imperial army have received orders to join their respective corps immediately. A majority of Republican deputies have resolved immediately and resolutely to question the constitutionality of the Chamber to question the withdrawal of foreign affairs relative to the dispute between the Emperor and the government an opportunity of declaring formally the firm determination of France to observe most rigorous neutrality on Eastern affairs. Radical states the government is desirous of making such a declaration, and will at the same time assure the Chamber of good relations existing between France and Italy.

ROME, April 19.—Deputies, President of the council and Minister of finance, told the financial committee of the Chamber of Deputies that the military question was the present phase of the Eastern question when the budget was submitted to Parliament. He hoped the war would be localized. It would only in the event of a Russian army marching on Constantinople be that the situation might threaten to assume a grave character and more extensive complications ensue. The government therefore did not propose to modify its financial plans. Despite this recommendation the committee, however, to examine the budget with the greatest care, in order that in all contingencies there might be means of meeting unforeseen expenses or dilution of receipts.

Movements of Troops.
QUERQUA, April 19.—Russian troops are concentrated in Little Washburn, the greater portion being dispatched to Kalafat. Will not fight till the ship is hooked.

PESTH, April 19.—A communication published by official papers declares that Austria-Hungary will only remain neutral as long as its interests in the East are not menaced.

Navigation Closes.
CONSTANTINOPLE, April 19.—The Russian steamboat company have announced a suspension of their service. The last boat at Odessa sails on Friday.

Closed Down.
LONDON, April 19.—A special from Persia announces that the Russian consular office closed Wednesday. Future business will be conducted at the German embassy.

Erstwhile Declaration of War.
A Vienna correspondent telegraphs: I am informed from Bucharest that Prince Charles received a copy of the Russian manifesto, which contains the following declaration:

Whereas every endeavor by the Emperor of Russia to preserve peace has failed owing to the stubbornness of the Porte, while the condition of the Christians in the East is unimproved, their lives and property have been endangered; therefore His Majesty in the name of humanity and with a full consciousness of his sovereign duties as natural protector of the Slavonic nations in the East has been compelled to resolve on obtaining by force of arms such guarantees for his distressed fellow-believers on Turkish soil as appears absolutely necessary for securing their future welfare.

The document proceeds to state this armed intervention is not meant for the purpose of conquest, and will end after securing the above mentioned results. A later dispatch from Constantinople, confirming the above in effect, adds that the manifesto also declares that Russia intends to occupy Bulgaria and hold the province as a material guarantee for the execution of the reforms; that she will invite other European powers to take part in the occupation and, finally that she disclaims any inclination to acquire territory permanently.
