

To the Boys.

"I will give you one or two instances of what boys have done for themselves, while laboring under disadvantages, that you may see what you might do for yourselves with your present privileges.

"You are all familiar with the history of Horace Greely, and Hon. Thomas Kwing, and a great many others who have labored through privations until they have attained a proud pre-eminence in their country's history.

"The editor of the Unqupa Gazette, Oregon, is just twenty-two years old. He is a native of Jackson County, and his parents were so poor that he had to depend on his own exertions for an education. The writer of this thought him his alphabet in the winter of 1837. He improved his time so well, that he entered a printing office in his fifteenth year, and was so diligent, that in a short time he was a good printer. This was in Iowa. He then went to Oregon, got one hundred dollars per month, as foreman of a press, worked one session in the Oregon Legislature at three dollars per day, and three dollars for reporting for a paper at the same time; studied Law, and was admitted to the bar. He is now publishing the Gazette, and is one of the foremost men in Oregon. I do not think his father paid five dollars for his schooling.

"There is now a young man in the Ohio University, at Athens, who loaded one car last summer at fifteen dollars per month, and saved money enough to go to the University. He states that he works himself at about ninety cents per week, eating bread and butter for breakfast, bread and molasses for dinner, and butter and bread for supper. Wonder how many of our young men would make such sacrifices to secure an education.

"Boys, leave off smoking cigars and drinking bad liquor, and go to work, and if you have nothing to do, take a dime and go to the store and buy yourself an elementary spelling book, and learn to spell your mother-tongue correctly, and then proceed with your studies until you are men, and we will not be likely to hear any more loud, but just complaints about the rudeness of the boys."

GREAT LOSS OF SHIPPING AT MAZATAN.

From the same source we learn that the clipper ship Waterwitch, Plumber, from this port, had arrived at Ipallo, an open roadstead near Mazatlan, to load wood for Europe; and that on the 24 of June, she went ashore in the gale, and will be a total loss. She was a fine new clipper ship, and was owned in Boston.—Cal. Chron.

THE VIOLATION OF THE BLOCKADE IN THE BALTIC BY AN AMERICAN CLIPPER.

By the Atlantic we have received the details of the violation of the blockade in the Baltic by an American clipper:—"When the British war-steamer Driver was sent into the Baltic to serve the vessels lying there with the official notice of the blockade, she found among others the American ship Samuel Appleton of Boston, which she also served with a notice to clear out within six days. A day or two afterward, being out cruising, fell in with the Appleton, and an officer was sent on board to examine her papers. They were found perfectly in order, whereupon the officer demanded to see the bills of lading. The American captain objected to this, and began to make difficulties which excited the suspicion of the British officer, so he insisted on their production, which was at length complied with, when it turned out that the Appleton had just landed at a Baltic port, 50,000 rifles and 10,000 revolvers, besides about 800 bales of cotton as the ostensible cargo. The ship was carefully overhauled, but nothing contraband of war was found on board.

FORT LARAMIE REPORTED IN THE HANDS OF THE INDIANS.

—Buffalo June 10.—The Missouri Republican of the 16th inst. published a letter dated "Whitehead, Kansas, 9th June," stating that an express rider had reached Great Nemaha Mission on the 8th with news that Fort Laramie was in the hands of the Indians. No particulars of the capture are given. The Indians were assembled at the Fort in great numbers.

Messrs. Nave and McCord of Ash Hollow, had been robbed by the Indians of 420 head of cattle, 16 horses, wagons, mules, &c., leaving them entirely destitute.

An Irish preacher once broke off the thread of his discourse, and said to his hearers, "My dear friends, let me tell you, that I am half through with my services; but seeing your impatience, I will say that the remaining half is not more than a quarter as long as that you have heard."

One Week Later from Europe

2 WEEKS LATER FROM THE STATES.

MORE SUCCESSES OF THE ALLIES.

After we had went to press, we received the New York Herald of July 5th, and the San Francisco Weekly Chronicle of the 28th ult., for which we are indebted to Mr. D. Stearns, who has just returned from Jacksonville. We give the following short synopsis of the news:

The U. S. Mail steamer Baltic from Liverpool the 16th June, arrived at New York July 1st.

By this arrival we have some information respecting the allied success before Sebastopol, but as letters lag ten days behind the telegraphic dispatches, we know nothing beyond the few words published by government. From these it would appear that the fight for the Mamelon was obstinate—not fewer than 5,000 men being put hors du combat—and the success was complete, sixty-two guns having fallen into the hands of the French. An important element in the victory is that the French from their new position can reach the ships in the harbor of Sebastopol. Copious details are to hand of the attack on Kertch; also telegraphic announcements of further success in the Sea of Azoff, where the fleets attacked and destroyed the stores at Taganrog, Marioupol, and Genitsch. A boat expedition, to be conveyed in steamers to the shallow water, is fitting out in all haste at Potanmout; death-ought supposed to be Percepok.

The Russians are stated (but doubtfully) to have evacuated the whole of their Ciscaasian territory. Duke Constantine is appointed Regent of Russia in the event of Alexander's decease. The Russians are about to build a railroad through the Isthmus of Percepok.

It has been formally announced that the Empress of France is en route.

Mr. Fillmore is quite a lion at the English Court.

The insurrection in Spain seems to threaten the overthrow of the government. Mr. Dodge, our Minister, had just arrived at Madrid with his family.

Notice.

AT TREATIES concluded with the Nez Perce Tribe of Indians, and with the confederated tribes of the Walla-Walla, Cayuse, and Umatilla in the Walla-Walla Valley at the Council Ground, there was ceded to the United States a tract of country having the following boundaries, viz: By the Nez Perces, commencing at the source of the Wol-nah-shie, or southern tributary of the Palouse river, thence down the river to the main Palouse; thence in a southerly direction to the Snake river at the mouth of the Tukonam river, thence up the Tukonam to its source in the Blue Mountains; thence southerly along the ridge of the Blue Mountains; thence to a point on Grand Ronde river, midway between the Grand Ronde and the mouth of the Wall-low-ho-her river; thence along the divide between the Wall-low-ho-her and Powder rivers; thence to the crossing of Snake river at the mouth of Powder river; thence to the Salmon river fifty miles above the place known as the "crossing of the Salmon river;" thence due North to the summit of the Bitter Root Mountains; thence along the crest of the Bitter Root Mountains to the place of beginning.

By the Walla-Walla, Cayuse and Umatilla, the tract of land having the following boundaries, to wit:— Commencing at the mouth of the Tukonam river, in Washington Territory, running thence up said river to its source; thence easterly along the summit of the Blue Mountains, and to the southern boundary of the purchase made of the Nez Perce Indians, and easterly along that boundary to the western limits of the country claimed by the Shoshones or Snake Indians; thence southerly along that boundary (being the waters of Powder river) to the source of Powder river; thence to the head of Willow Creek; thence down Willow Creek to the Columbia river; thence up the Columbia river to the lower end of a large island below the mouth of Umatilla river; thence northerly to a point on the Yakima river called Tol-nah-lake, thence to be line; thence to the White Bank on the Columbia below Priest's Rapids; thence down the Columbia river to the junction of the Columbia and Snake rivers; thence down the Snake river to the place of beginning. Provided, however, That so much of the country described above as is contained in the following boundaries shall be set apart as Indian Reservations for the Nez Perce Tribe, viz: Commencing where the Moh-na-na-shie or southern tributary of the Palouse river flows from the spur of the Bitter Root Mountains; thence down said tributary to the mouth of the Teton par-poo; thence southerly to the crossing of the Snake river, ten miles below the mouth of the Alpowain river; thence to the source of the Alpowain river in the Blue Mountains; thence along the crest of the Blue Mountains; thence to the crossing of the Grand Ronde river, midway between the Grand Ronde and the mouth of the Wall-low-ho-her river; thence along the divide between the waters of the Wall-low-ho-her and Powder rivers; thence to the crossing of Snake river, fifteen miles below the mouth of Powder river; thence to the Salmon river above the crossing; thence by the spurs of the Bitter Root Mountains to the place of beginning.

For the confederated Tribes of Walla-Walla, Cayuse and Umatilla, viz:— Commencing in the middle of the channel of the Umatilla river, opposite the mouth of Wild Horse creek; thence up the middle of the channel of said creek to its source; thence southerly to a point in the Blue Mountains known as Lee's Encampment; thence in a line to the waters of the Howlome creek; thence west to the divide of the Howlome and Birch creeks; thence northerly along said divide to a point due west of the southwest corner of William C. McKay's claim; thence east along the spurs of the south-east corner, thence in a line to the place of beginning. By an express provision of the Treaty, the country embraced in the cession and settlement excepting that the Indians are secured in the possession of their buildings and improvements until removed to the reservation. This notice is published for the information of the public.

The attention of the citizens proposing to locate claims upon the ceded Territory is especially called to the provisions protecting the Indians in the possession of their improvements—and for further information in reference to the Walla-Walla, Cayuse and Umatilla Reservation, they are requested to apply to Agent, R. H. Thompson, To the Nez Perce Reservation, to Sub-Agent, W. H. Teppan, ISAAC I. STEVENS, Gov. and Sup't Indian Affairs, W. T. July 26, 1855. 101m

THE BRITISH QUARTERLIES AND BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to republish the following British Periodicals, viz: The London Quarterly Review (Conservative). The Edinburgh Review (Whig). The North British Review (Free Church). The Westminster Review (Liberal). Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory). The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting the present year. (1855.) They will occupy a middle ground between the easily-written news items, crude speculations and flying rumors of the daily Journal, and the ponderous tone of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these periodicals that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events, and as such, addition to their well-established literary, scientific and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public. Arrangements are completed for the receipt of early sheets from the British publishers, by which we shall be able to place all our reprints in the hands of subscribers about as soon as they can be furnished with the foreign copies. Although this involves a very large outlay on our part, we shall continue to furnish the Periodicals at the same low rates as heretofore, viz: For any one of the four Reviews, $3 per ann For any two of the four Reviews, 5 " For any three of the four Reviews, 7 " For all four of the Reviews, 8 " For Blackwood's Magazine, 3 " For Blackwood and three Reviews, 9 " For Blackwood and the four Reviews, 10 " Payments to be made in all cases in advance. Money current in the State where issued will be received at par. CHARGES.—A discount of twenty-five per cent from the above prices will be allowed to Clubs ordering direct from L. Scott & Co., four or more copies of any one or more of the above works. Thus: Four copies of Blackwood, or of one Review, will be sent to one address for $9; four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $30; and so on. Postage.—In all the principal Cities and towns, these works will be delivered, through Agents, free of postage. When sent by mail, the postage to be any part of the United States will be but twenty-four cents a year for 'Blackwood,' and but fourteen cts a year for each of the Reviews. Remittances and communications should always be addressed, post-paid, to the publishers, LEONARD SCOTT & CO., nov18] 54 Gold street, New York.

Bounty Lands

FOR SOLDIERS WHO SERVED IN THE Rogue River or Cayuse Wars. THE undersigned will attend to the procuring of Bounty Lands, under the new act of Congress, for persons who have been regularly mustered into the United States service for the term of fourteen days, or more. Persons who were engaged in either of the Indian wars in this country, and all widows and orphans of such persons, are entitled to 160 acres of land, and by forwarding the necessary proof of their service to the undersigned, they can apply to Agent, R. H. Thompson, To the Nez Perce Reservation, to Sub-Agent, W. H. Teppan, ISAAC I. STEVENS, Gov. and Sup't of W. T. INDIAN RESERVATION.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I have designated as an Indian Reservation for the Coast and Willamette Tribes, and such others as may hereafter be located thereon, the following described district of country, to wit: Beginning on the shore of the Pacific Ocean, at the mouth of a small stream about midway between the Unqupa and Siuslaw Rivers; thence easterly to the ridge dividing the waters of these streams, and along said ridge on high land to the western boundary of the eighth range of townships west of the Willamette meridian; thence north on said boundary to a point due east of Cape Lookout; thence west to the Ocean; and thence along the place of beginning. The tract described presents few attractions to the white settler, while it is believed to be better adapted for the colonization of the Indians than any other portion of Territory west of the Cascade mountains affording so few facilities of settlement to our citizens. The object of this notice is to inform the public that this reservation will not be subject to settlement by whites. JOEL PALMER, Sup Indian Affairs.

Notice.

COUNCIL GROUND, WALLA WALLA VALLEY, W. T. June 12th, 1855.

AT A TREATY concluded with the Cayuse, Umatilla and Walla-Walla Tribes of Indians, at the Council Ground in the Walla-Walla Valley, the 11th day of June, 1855, the land included within the following boundaries was ceded to the United States, to wit: Commencing at Mt. Rainier; thence northerly along the main ridge of the Cascade mountains to the point where the northern tributaries of Lake Clelan and the southern tributaries of the Methow river have their rise; thence Southerly along the divide between the waters of Lake Clelan and the Methow river to the Columbia river; thence crossing the Columbia, on a true east course, to a point whose longitude is one hundred and nineteen degrees and ten minutes—which two latter lines separate the above confederated tribes and bands of Indians from the Okaishan tribe of Indians;—thence in a true south course to the forty-seventh parallel of latitude; thence east on said parallel to the main Palouse river—which two latter lines of boundary separate the above confederated tribes and bands from the Spokane thence down the Palouse river to its junction with the Moh-nah-shie or southern tributary of the same; thence in a Southeasterly direction to the Snake river at the mouth of the Tucannon river, separating the above confederated tribes from the Nez Perce tribe of Indians; thence down the Snake river to its junction with the Columbia river; thence up the Columbia river to the White Bank below Priest's Rapids; thence westerly to a lake called "La-Lan;" thence southerly to a point on the Yakima river called Tol-nah-lake; thence in a southeasterly direction to the Columbia river at the western extremity of the "Big Island;" between the mouth of the Umatilla river and Butler creek—all which latter boundaries separate the above confederated tribes and bands from the Walla-Walla, Cayuse and Umatilla tribes and bands of Indians;—thence down the Snake river to the mouth of Wind river; thence along the divide between said rivers to the main ridge of the Cascade mountains; and thence along said ridge to the place of beginning.

This is however, reserved for the land above ceded, for the exclusive use and occupation of said confederated tribes and bands of Indians, the tract of land, included within the following boundaries to wit:— Commencing on the Yakima river at the mouth of the Atlatshan river; thence westerly along said Atlatshan river to the forks; thence along the southern tributary to the Cascade mountains; thence southerly along the main ridge of said mountains, passing south and east of Mount Adams, to the spur whence flows the waters of the Klilatani and Pisco rivers; thence down said spur to the divide between the waters of said rivers; thence along said divide to the divide separating the waters of the States river from those flowing into the Columbia river; thence along said divide to the main Yakima, eight miles below the mouth of the States river, and thence up the Yakima river to the place of beginning.

Also a tract of land not exceeding in quantity one township of six miles square situated at the forks of the Piquosse or Wenatchapan river, and known as the "Wenatchapan Fishery;" which said tract shall be surveyed and marked out whenever the President may direct. By an express provision of the treaty the country embraced in the cession and included in the reservations, is opened to settlements excepting that the Indians are secured in the possession of their buildings and improvements until removed to the reservation.

This notice is published for the information of the public, and the attention of citizens proposing to locate claims upon the ceded Territory, is especially called to the above provision, and for further information they are requested to apply to sub-agent A. Godey's Lady's Book for 1855.

Twenty-fifth year of Publication by the same Publisher.

The only Lady's Book acknowledged by the Ladies of this county as worthy of its name.

Principal Points of Attraction for 1855. It contains one hundred pages of reading in every month's number, not beginning with a large number of pages in January, and decreasing throughout the year. BEAUTIFUL STEEL PLATES, Lines or Mezzotints in every number. Godey's reliable STEEL FASHION PLATES (colored) in every number—the only fashion plates that are considered as authority.

Knitting, Netting and Embroidering printed in colors. MUSIC—Two pages monthly. Easy lessons in drawing are given monthly.

Godey's invaluable receipts, worth alone three dollars a year—for cooking, the toilet, sick room, nursery, and miscellaneous house-keeping receipts.

Diagrams and Plans, with full directions for Ladies to cut their own dresses. Patterns for children's dresses, both male and female.

Embroidery and broderie Anglaise patterns every month—in great variety. THE NEWMARK—This department is invaluable to every mother.

MODEL COTTAGES. Great attention paid to this department. A Treatise on the Hair.—A most excellent article for the preservation and beautifying of the most valuable ornament to both sexes.

Undoubted receipts, model cottages, model cottage furniture, patterns for window curtains, music, crochets work, hair banding, ribbon work, chenille work, lace collar work, children's and infant's clothes, caps, chimettes, bonnets, cloaks, evening dresses, fancy articles head dresses, hair dressing, bridal dresses, mantillas, riding habits morning and evening dresses, slinks, albums, robes du chambre, capes and cloaks of fur in season—in fine, every thing that can interest a lady, will find its appropriate place in her own book.

Remember that the Lady's Book has always given steel engravings, and throughout the year, not publishing them in January and February numbers, and then omitting them. In the Lady's Book you receive what no other three magazines can furnish you with.

EVERY DAY ACTUALITIES. This is another series of articles peculiar to this Magazine. Every one of these are illustrated with at least eight or ten-tenable fine wood engravings. This department is very interesting, conveying information in a greenable form, suitable for ladies and gentlemen, that cannot be obtained elsewhere.

The expense of one number of the Lady's Book, including steel engravings and literary matter, paid for, not taken from the English Magazines, far exceeds that of any other Magazine published in this country. We make no exception, and are willing to have the fact tested.

TERMS. One penny one year, $3 00 Two copies one year, or one copy two years 5 00 Five copies one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club 15 00 Eight copies one year, do do 15 00 Eleven copies one year, do do 20 00

IF Godey's Lady's Book and Arthur's Home Magazine will both be sent one year for $3 50. To insure what you order being sent, Address L. A. GODEY, No. 113 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. Specimen copies sent if desired. n3
