of Indians from Ft. Walla Walla to Collville and the Lakes on the British Possessions to be strongly opposed to the Americans working the mines.

DISTANCES.

From Dalles to Walla Walla, wagon road 150 miles, Tarcet river, 35 miles, Pilloose, 15 miles, Big Lake, 40 miles, (between Pilloose and Big Lake there is water at 10, 15 and 20 miles) Rock Creek, 13 miles, Wilson Creek, 12 miles, Spokan River, 30 miles, Colville valley, 30 miles, Pend d' Oreille River Mines, 30 miles.

Mr. Wilson came through from Ft. Colville to the Dalles in 7 1-2 days.

WELLS, FARGO & CO.,
Portland.

From Mr. C. P. Bacon, who left Portland after the arrival of Mr. Wilson, and brought the above dispatch as far as Salem, where he was taken sick, and forwarded it on, we learn some other particulars. Mr. Wilson got his intelligence from settlers and others about the Ft., and he thinks they seemed averse to furnishing him information about the mines. It is thought by some that the diggings are better than they represent. The chief of the Colville Indians, named Peter John, objected to Mr. Wilson's going in to the mines, and the men about the Ft. advised him that it would be unsafe for him to go. Some supposed the Indians to be under the control of the Hudson's Bay Co. Colville is one of the company's forts.

The country has not been prospected, and there is no positive knowledge that gold exists beyond the two bars already worked. Mr. Wilson does not advise anybody to go to these mines, but says they have the same knowledge of them he has, and must act from their own judgment.

Mr. Pierson, a messenger of Gov. Stevens, arrived at Portland a day earlier than Mr. Wilson, whom he passed this side of Walla Walla. He left Gov. Steven's at St. Mary's Valley, coming through in 13 days. Mr. Sinclair told him the Indians were hostile to miners. Mr. Pierson brought in some of the gold. He is of the opinion that the mines are extensive. He met about a thousand persons on the way, probably there are now 2000 or upwards.

Gov. Stevens has entered into treaties with the Flatheads, Kootenays and Upper Pend D' Oreille Indians, and is next to treat with the Blackfeet tribe. These last facts we gather from an extra from the Times office.

NEWS FROM THE FAR WEST.—St. Louis, July 1 1855.—We learn that a party of seven men, on the route from Fort Union to Fort Sarpy, were attacked on the 1st of May by a band of 300 armed Sioux Indians, and one of their number, Gurdon Gates, of Quincy, Illinois, killed. The remainder of the party were detained some time by the Indians, but were finally permitted to proceed, and reached Fort Sarpy, having suffered greatly on the route.

The Sioux were also congregating in great numbers around Fort Pierce.

We learn from Leavenworth that Mr McCrea, who shot Malcolm Clark, has been committed to jail, on charge of murder, bail having been refused.

SPURIOUS GOLD DUST.—Page, Bacon & Co., of San Francisco, lately commenced a suit against I. C. Wood and A. A. Cohen, and had them arrested, on a charge of selling to the former adulterated gold dust, whereby they (Page, Bacon & Co.) had sustained a loss of some $100,000. The case was tried before Judge Norton, and the defendants discharged from arrest.—Messrs. Halleck, Peachy, Billings & Park have filed an appeal in the case, and given the usual bonds.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE LIQUOR BILL.—CONCORD, July 3, 1855.—The Liquor bill reported to our Legislature provides a fine of $50 for the first conviction of a single sale; $50 and thirty days' imprisonment for a second conviction; and for every subsequent offence a fine of $100 and ninety days' imprisonment.

'What have you ever done to further human progress?' asked a sententious philosopher one day of Jenkins. Jenkins' reply was clear and decisive: 'I've produced seven boys and two girls, sir, what have you done?' The philosopher departed, and for the first time in his life—thought.

An Irish painter declared in an Irish Journal that among other portraits he has a representation of 'Death as large as life.'

Young Peapod fell in love yesterday.—Says he felt like a barrel of new maple sugar sliding down a rainbow, greased with butter at forty-two cents a pound. Peapod soon after left to get his life insured.

☞ Late advices say that the troops under Major Haller were near Fort Boise, and had taken four or five of the Indians who committed the murders last fall, prisoners, and would probably take the others, as the Snake tribe were aiding the troops to find the criminals.

Notice.

AT TREATIES concluded with the Nez Perce Tribe of Indians, and with the confederated tribes of the Walla-Wallas, Cayuses, and Umatillas in the Walla-Walla Valley at the Council Ground, there was ceded to the United States a tract of country having the following boundaries, viz:

By the Nez Perces, commencing at the source of the Woh-na-ne-she, or southern tributary of the Palouse river, thence down the river to the main Palouse; thence in a southerly direction to the Snake river at the mouth of the Tukanon river, thence up the Tukanon to its source in the Blue Mountains; thence southerly along the ridge of the Blue Mountains; thence to a point on Grand Ronde river, midway between the Grand Ronde and the mouth of the Woll-low-how river; thence along the divide between the Woll-low-how and Powder rivers; thence to the crossing of Snake river at the mouth of Powder river; thence to the Salmon river fifty miles above the place known as the "crossing of the Salmon river;" thence due North to the summit of the Bitter Root Mountains; thence along the crest of the Bitter Root Mountains to the place of beginning.

By the Walla-Wallas, Cayuses and Umatillas, the tract of land having the following boundaries, to wit:—

Commencing at the mouth of the Tukanon river, in Washington Territory, running thence up said river to its source; thence easterly along the summit of the Blue Mountains, and on the southern boundaries of the purchase made of the Nez Perce Indians and easterly along that boundary to the western limits of the country claimed by the Shoshonee or Snake Indians; thence southerly along that boundary (being the waters of Powder river) to the source of Powder river; thence to the head of Willow Creek; thence down Willow Creek to the Columbia river; thence up the channel of Columbia river to the lower end of a large Island below the mouth of Umatilla river; thence northerly to a point on the Yakima river called Tohnash-luke, thence to Se Lac; thence to the White Bank on the Columbia below Priest's Rapids; thence down the Columbia river to the junction of the Columbia and Snake rivers; thence up the Snake river to the place of beginning. Provided, however, That so much of the country described above as is contained in the following boundaries shall be set apart as Indian Reservations for the Nez Perce Tribe, viz:

Commencing where the Moh-ha-na-she or southern tributary of the Palouse river flows from the spurs of the Bitter Root Mountains; thence down said tributaries to the mouth of the Tin-na-par-up Creek thence southerly to the crossing of the Snake river, ten miles below the mouth of the Alpowain river; thence to the source of the Alpowain river in the Blue mountains; thence along the crest of the Blue Mountains; thence to the crossing of the Grand Ronde river, midway between the Grand Ronde and the mouth of the Woll-low-how river; thence along the divide between the waters of the Woll-low-how river and Powder river; thence to the crossing of Snake river, fifteen miles below the mouth of Powder river; thence to the Salmon river above the crossing; thence by the spurs of the Bitter Root Mountains to the place of beginning.

For the confederated Tribes of Walla-Wallas, Cayuses and Umatillas, viz:—

Commencing in the middle of the channel of the Umatilla river, opposite the mouth of Wild Horse creek; thence up the middle of the channel of said creek to its source; thence southerly to a point in the Blue Mountains known as Lee's Encampment; thence in a line to the waters of the Howtome creek; thence west to the divide of the Howtome and Birch creeks; thence northerly along said divide to a point due west of the southwest corner of William C. McKay's claim; thence east along [illegible] to the southeast corner; thence in a line to the place of beginning.

By an express provision of the Treaty, the country embraced in the cessions and not included in the Reservations is open to settlement, excepting that the Indians are secured in the possession of their buildings and implements till removed to the Reservation.

This notice is published for the benefit of the public.

The attention of the citizens proposing to locate claims upon the ceded Territory is especially called to the provisions protecting the Indians in the possession of their improvements—and for futher information in reference to the Walla-Walla, Cayuse and Umatilla Reservation, they are requested to apply to Agent, R. R. Thompson. To the Nez Perce Reservation, to Sub-Agent, W. H. Tappan.

INDIAN RESERVATION.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I have designated as an Indian Reservation for the Coast and Willamette Tribes, and such others as may hereafter be located thereon, the following described district of country; to wit:

Beginning on the shore of the Pacific Ocean, at the mouth of a small stream about midway between the Umpqua and Siuslaw Rivers; thence easterly to the ridge dividing the waters of these streams, and along said ridge on high land to the western boundary of the eighth range of townships west of the Willamette meredian; thence north on said boundary to a point due east of Cape Lookout; thence west to the Ocean; and thence along the place of beginning.

The tract described presents few attractions to the white settler, while it is believed to be better adapted for the colonization of the Indians than any other portion of Territory west of the Cascade mountans affording so few facilities of settlement to our citizens.

The object of this notice is to inform the public that this reservation will not be subject to settlement by whites.

Notice.

COUNCIL GROUND,
WALLA WALLA VALLEY, W. T.
June 12th, 1855. }

A TA TREATY concluded with the Yakima Nation of Indians, at the Council Ground in the Walla Walla Valley, the 9th day of June, 1855, the land included within the following boundaries was ceded to the United States, to wit:

Commencing at Mt. Rainier; thence northerly along the main ridge of the Cascade mountains to the point where the northern tributaries of Lake Chelan and the southern tributaries of the Methew river have their rise; thence Southeasterly on the divide between the waters of Lake Chelan and the Methew river to the Columbia river; thence crossing the Columbia, on a true east course, to a point whose longitude is one hundred and nineteen degrees and ten minutes—which two latter lines separate the above confederated tribes and bands of indians from the Oakinakane tribe of Indians;—thence in a true south course to the forty-seventh parallel of latitude; thence east on said parallel to the main Palouse river—which two latter lines of boundary separate the above confederated tribes and bands from the Spokans; thence down the Palouse river to its junction with the Moh hah-nehshe or southern tributary of the same; thence in a Southeasterly direction to the Snake river at the mouth of the Tucannon river, separating the above confederated tribes from the Nez Perce tribe of Indians; thence down the Snake river to its junction with the Columbia river; thence up the Columbia river to the "White Banks" below Priest's Rapids; thence westerly to a lake called "La Lac;" thence southerly to a point on the Yakima river called Tohnash luke; thence in a southwesterly direction to the Columbia river at the western extremity of the "Big Island," between the mouth of the Umatilla river and Butter creek—all which latter boundaries separate the above confederated tribes and bands from the Walla Walla, Cayuse and Umatilla tribes and bands of Indians;—thence down the Columbia river to midway between the mouths of White Salmon and Wind rivers; thence along the divide between said rivers to the main ridge of the Cascade mountains; and thence along said ridge to the place of beginning.

There is however, reserved from the land above ceded, for the exclusive use and occupation of said confederated tribes and bands of Indians, the tract of land, included within the following boundries to-wit:

Commencing on the Yakima river at the mouth of the Attahnam river; thence westerly along said Attahnam river to the forks; thence along the southern tributary to the Cascade mountains; thence southeasterly along the main ridge of said mountains, passing south and east of mount Adams, to the spur whence flows the waters of the Klikatat and Pisco rivers; thence down said spur to the divide between the waters of said rivers; thence alongsaid divide to the divide separating the waters of the Satass river from those flowing into the Columbia river; thence along said divide to the main Yakima, eight miles below the mouth of the Satass river, and thence up the Yakima river to the place of beginning.

Also a tract of land not exceeding in quantity one township of six miles square situated at the forks of the Pisquouse or Wenatshapam river, and known as the "Wenatshapam Fishery;" which said tract shall be surveyed and marked out whenever the President may direct.

By an express provision of the treaty the country embraced in the cession and included in the reservations is opened to settlements excepting that the Indians are secured in the possession of their buildings and improvements until removed to the reservation.

This notice is published for the information of the public, and the attention of citizens proposing to locate claims upon the ceded territory, is especially called to the above provision, and for further information they are requested to apply to sub-agent A. J. Bolon.

THE BRITISH QUARTERLIES AND BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to republish the following British Periodicals, viz:

The London Quarterly Review (Conservative).
The Edinburg Review (Whig).
The North British Review (Free Church).
The Westminster Review (Liberal).
Blackwood's Edinburg Magazine (Tory).

The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting the present year, (1855.) They will occupy a middle ground between the easily-written news items, crude speculations and flying rumors of the daily Journal, and the ponderous tone of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these periodicals that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events, and as such, addition to their well-established literary, scientific and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public.

Arrangements are completed for the receipt of early sheets from the British publishers, by which we shall be able to place all our reprints in the hands of subscribers about as soon as they can be furnished with the foreign copies. Although this involves a very large outlay on our part, we shall continue to furnish the Periodicals at the same low rates as heretofore. viz:

For any one of the four Reviews,	$3	pr ann
For any two of the four Reviews,	5	"
For any three of the four Reviews,	7	"
For all four of the Reviews,	8	"
For Blackwood's Magazine,	3	"
For Blackwood and three Reviews,	9	"
For Blackwood and the four Reviews,	10	"

☞ Payments to be made in all cases in advance. Money current in the State where issued will be received at par.

CLUBBING.—A discount of twenty-five per cent. from the above prices will be allowed to Clubs ordering, direct from L. Scott & Co., four or more copies of any one or more of the above works. Thus: Four copies of Blackwood, or of one Review, will be sent to one address for $9; four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $30; and so on.

POSTAGE.—In all the principal Cities and towns, these works will be delivered, through Agents, free of postage. When sent by mail, the postage to any part of the United States will be but twenty-four cents a year for 'Blackwood,' and but fourteen cts a year for each of the Reviews.

Remittances and communications should always be addressed, post-paid, to the publishers,

The only Lady's Book acknowledged by the Ladies of this county as worthy of its name.

Principal Points of Attraction for 1855.

It contains one hundred pages of reading in every month's number, not beginning with a large number of pages in January, and decreasing throughout the year.

BEAUTIFUL STEEL PLATES,
Line or Mezzotints in every number.

Godey's reliable STEEL FASHION PLATES [colored] in every number—the only fashion plates that are considered as authority.

Knitting, Netting and Embroidering printed in colors.

MUSIC—Two pages monthly.

Easy lessons in drawing are given monthly.

Godey's invaluable receipts, worth alone three dollars a year—for cooking, the toilet, sick room, nursery, and miscellaneous house-keeping receipts.

Diagrams and Plans, with full directions for Ladies to cut their own dresses.

Patterns for childerns dresses, both male and female,

Embroidery and broderie Anglaise patterns every month—in great variety.

THE NURSERY—This department is invaluable to every mother.

MODEL COTTAGES.

Great attention paid to this department.

A Treatise on the Hair.—A most excellent article for the preservation and beautifying of the most valuable ornament to both sexes.

Undoubted receipts, model cottages, model cottage furniture, patterns for window curtains, music, crotchet work, hair braiding, ribbon work, chenille work, lace collar work, children's and infant's clothes, caps, chimisiette, bonnets, cloaks, evening dresses, fancy articles, head dresses, hair dressing, bridal dresses, mantillas, riding habits, morning and evening dresses, cloaks, talmas, robes de chambre, capes and cloaks of fur in season—in fine, every thing that can interest a lady, will find its appropriate place in her own book.

Remember that the Lady's Book has always given steel engravings, and throughout the year, not publishing them in January and February numbers, and then omitting them. In the Lady's Book you receive what no other three magazines can furnish you with.

EVERY DAY ACTUALITIES.

This is another series of articles peculiar to this Magazine. Every one of these are mes is illustrated with at least eight or ten mathe fine wood engravings. This department is very interesting, conveying information in an agreeable form, suitable for ladies and gentlemen, that cannot be obtained elsewhere.

The expense of one number of the Lady's Book, including steel engravings and literary matter, paid for, not taken from the English Magazines, far exceeds that of any other Magazine published in this country. We make no exception, and are willing to have the fact tested.

Taken Up.

BY the subscriber living in Umpqua Co., O. T., two miles west of Oakland post office, one large ox, described as follows: line back, red brindle sides, white face and belly, wide horns which stand up rather straight, and have both been bored, notched out of the under side of the right ear, and supposed to be 10 years old; no other marks or brands perceivable. The above ox has been running in this range since February, and has been known as a stray for near a year. BANNER BRUMMET.

This is to certify that I have, this 19th day of April, 1855, appraised the above described ox at $55. N. W. ALLEN, J. P.
