The business men of Madras and all others interested in the progress of the town are requested to meet at McTaggart's hall tomorrow (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of discussing incorporation, and initiating a movement to that end.

Jack McTaggart, who, with his wife, has been visiting in Portland and at the Lewis and Clark Fair for the past three weeks, returned home Tuesday.

Gottfried Kamper, a prominent sheepman from Cross Keys, was in town Monday, his family accompanying him. Mr. Kamper bought the Vaisli property on lower Trout Creek.

George G. Poindexter was in town on Saturday on his way to Ashwood from Derham & Cowles' sawmill. He has a homestead near Ashwood and is going there to reside upon it.

Perry Reed, of Culver, and his two daughters, Miss Lillie Reed and Mrs. Frank Osborae, left yesterday for Portland, where they will spend about two weeks seeing the Lewis and Clark Fair. They went overland to Portland, driving by way of Barlow pass, and expect to reach Portland about next Monday.

Harry B. Sill, of Sanford & Sill at Shaniko, was a visitor in Madras Sunday. This was Mr. Sill's first visit to the Willow Creek basin and he was very much pleased with what he saw of the surrounding country during this short trip. He was accompanied by a relative, a Mr. Hampton from the East, who is visiting him at Shaniko.

James R. Chrisman, of Lagonda, Missouri, has been in town several days during the week. He came here to defend the homestead of the late Pressley A. Chrisman, of whom he is one of the heirs, against the contest of Warren E. Mills. The contest has been dismissed by motion of contestant, some settlement having been arrived at. The homestead entry involved is situated on Agency Plains. Mr. Chrisman expects to have it cultivated during the coming season.

Special Excursion to Lewis & Clark Fair
On August 28 agents of the Columbia Southern Railway will issue round trip tickets from their respective stations to Portland, limit 7 days from date of sale, at one way fare for the round trip.
