

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Try Hahn's for a meal.
 New, bright, clean rooms at the Madras.
 If you want barbed wire see Loucks Bros., Madras.
 Glenn Loucks arrived home from Blue river a few days ago.
 Malloy pays best price for your butter and eggs.
 Joe Marnach, of the Opal district, was a business visitor the fore part of the week.
 Take your produce to Malloy's Pioneer Cash Store.
 Fred Wentworth, the popular merchant of Warmspring, was in the city Sunday.
 John McPherson, of Pine Mountain, was visiting old friends in and near Madras last Sunday.
 Frank Crowley had the misfortune to break his left hand in an accident on the automobile grade last week.
 George O'Neil, of O'Neil Bros., of Forest, passed through town a day or two ago on his way home from the Agency.
 On the evening of October 22d the Royal Neighbors will give a ball in Davis' hall. Basket supper and all invited to attend.
 Wilbur F. Hammer, Haystack's popular postmaster and ex-clerk of Linn county, was a business visitor Saturday.
 John B. Brown, of Haystack, spent Sunday in the city taking advantage of an opportunity of attending church services.
 When in Prineville don't forget that yourself and family can get the very best of everything at the Pointhexter hotel.
 J. A. Arney made our hearts glad last Saturday. He left us a solid reminder of what he thinks of The Pioneer.
 A. S. Phillips, Kyle Loucks and R. T. Jones left for Bend the fore part of the week with heavy loads of merchandise for Bend merchants.
 We are indebted to Richard Baird and Rev. E. Mortimore and others for their assistance in moving our safe last Saturday afternoon.
 George Richardson, recently of Tennessee, and Fred Gutendorf, recently of Spokane, are good hands at safe moving. When you want to move a safe call on them.
 Don't buy your fall or winter supplies without getting our prices. We are prepared to make special figures on large orders for farmers and stockmen. J. F. Morris, Prineville, Ore.
 W. C. Lathin and William Brownhill are preparing to make needed improvements on their homesteads on the north end of Agency Plains before the winter starts in.
 Why pay excessive prices for windows, doors, shingles or builders' materials when you can buy them at right prices of J. F. Morris, Prineville, Ore.
 Messrs. Hoffmann & Rodman's threshing machine passed through town last Saturday on the way home from Agency Plains, where they report good yields for so new a country.
 Fred VanNorden, of The Dalles, Ore., is fully prepared to make your clock or watch as good as new. His work is fully guaranteed. Give him a trial. Mail orders promptly attended to.
 All parties indebted to me are hereby notified that all accounts not settled before November 15th will be put into the hands of a lawyer for collection. I need my money and think I have waited long enough. L. M. Hahn.
 When looking for a reliable and comfortable hack or buggy don't overlook the stock carried by J. F. Morris, of Prineville, Ore. They are manufactured by the Deere people and are built specially for the western trade.
 We were visited by a good substantial rain last Saturday, which was followed on Sunday and Monday with one of those gentle zephyrs that we used to get while at Grass Valley years ago.
 Rev. C. A. Sias preached to an attentive and appreciative audience morning and evening on Sunday last in this city. His evening discourse on the subject of "The Study of the Bible" was especially pleasing.
 John McTaggart, of McTaggart & Sias, is preparing to secure lumber and put up a store building on the lot he has just bought for that purpose. He says his firm have a stock of groceries and hardware on the way to Madras.
 We can use oats, wheat, wood, vegetables, fruit, meat, chickens, butter and money as payment for your subscription to The Madras Pioneer, so don't be afraid that you will offend us by offering any of the above when you want to subscribe.
 An automobile attracted a good deal of attention on our streets last week. F. C. Rowlee and C. O. Johnston, of the Deschutes Irrigation and Power Co. having passed through town on their way to Bend from Shaniko. This ought to be convincing evidence that the auto can be made to climb Eastern Oregon grades.

New goods at Hahn's.
 Go with the crowd and stop at the Madras hotel.
 William Finkerton, of Athens, Ore., is here on a visit to his son, N. H.
 Did you see Malloy's ad. Better look.
 The majority of the stockholders of the proposed flouring mill are in favor of locating at Madras.
 R. Parrish, wife and daughter, Grace, were in town Monday on business matters.
 Martin Pratt left for Portland last week, where he will teach the youth of Webfoot how to play football.
 Irvine Shutt is just finishing a very neat residence on his homestead near town.
 M. C. Mason and family, who have spent the summer near The Dalles, have arrived at home for the winter.
 George Mayes is kept very busy these days locating new settlers on homesteads in the vicinity of Madras.
 Mr. Fisch and daughter, of The Dalles, were in town yesterday, en route to Haystack on a visit to his son.
 John Coulter's horse, which has been lame for several days, is reported as no better. This is a serious handicap to his fall work.
 Irvine F. Shutt, the popular carpenter and contractor, will submit a bid on the construction of the bridge across Willow creek.
 R. P. Harrington, deputy sheriff and city marshal of Prineville, is here in the interest of the Circuit Court, which convenes Monday, the 19th.

 Prof. P. C. Fulton left yesterday morning for Prineville, where he will attend the Teachers' Institute in session at that place. School is closed for the remaining days of this week.
 John M. Mayer, who has been working on The Pioneer building, has again taken up the awl and last is now prepared to do shoe repairing as neatly, quickly and cheap as ever.
 Notice.—Those who have contributed to the organ fund will please pay as soon as possible to Mr. Brownhill or myself. Very truly, Mrs. W. A. Ellis.
 Isaac Serier and family will soon leave for their old home in the East, if the necessary arrangements can be made. Mr. and Mrs. Serier feel the loss of their little girl very keenly and think the change will be beneficial.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher have arrived from The Dalles and are now at home in their new residence on the main street of Fisherville. Mrs. Fisher is well pleased with the country and is a firm believer in its future prosperity.
 J. C. Stoner and family, of Agency Plains, were treated to a pleasant surprise last Monday evening when Mr. Stoner's mother and two sisters walked in, having just arrived from Michigan. They will visit here for two or three weeks before returning to the East.
 F. S. Hoffman, of Culver, was a pleasant and profitable visitor to our sanctuary the fore part of the week. Mr. Hoffman is very confident that the land on Agency Plains will exceed all expectations in the growing of cereals, hardy vegetables and fruits.
 Now is the time to buy that 40 or 80 acre tract of vacant land joining you. Let us figure on it. We can give you immediate possession and a clear title by placing restricted forest reserve scrip, which we are prepared to sell, for spot cash, at prices that defy competition. For further particulars call on or write to Timothy Brownhill, Madras, Ore., and your inquiry will receive prompt attention.

WARMSRING RESERVATION.

Wm. J. Lovett arrived on the 5th inst. from Illinois to take the teacher's position in the school, succeeding Miss Ella Montgomery, who has temporarily filled the position since school opened. Mr. Lovett is becoming quite popular with the boys on account of his enthusiasm for base and foot ball. Our village blacksmith, J. T. Disney, is taking in the fair at The Dalles this week. During his absence the Indians are running the shop themselves, as a large number are able to do fair work at blacksmithing. Many of the Indians are engaged in hauling their surplus grain to Prineville. The prices received there are very attractive, but the trip is a long one, and all will welcome a grist mill at Madras, if The Pioneer's efforts along this line ever bear fruit. Superintendent Kirk made a business trip to The Dalles, leaving Saturday and returning Thursday. One object of the trip was to gather up some of the school children believed to be there, but in this respect his trip was unsuccessful. Miss Emma Calvert, kindergartner, left the 1st inst. for San Francisco, having obtained a month's leave on account of sickness at home. Her place will be filled by Mrs. W. H. Bishop. Another new addition to the force of employees is Mrs. Davis, who takes the cook's position. This is Mrs. Davis' first appointment in the civil service, but she takes hold as if she understood her business, and we believe the kitchen girls will find that the easiest way to get along with her is to mind. Ego.

CULVER CULLINGS.

Miss Kate Fendall, of Yamhill county, is visiting with her cousin, Miss Lula Osborn.
 Dr. W. H. Snook, of Madras, was in town last Sunday.
 Quite a number of Culverites took in the Harvest ball at Madras last Friday evening, and all report having a very enjoyable time.
 James Read and Orville Armstrong will leave for Portland in a short time, where they expect to enter the Portland Business College.
 H. W. Lamson has sold his farm and will leave for Yakima, Wash., some time next week. Mr. Lamson will be accompanied by his son, J. H. Lamson.
 John Newhall, of Grizzley, was at the Culver hotel several days last week. There seems to be a great deal of attraction in these parts for John. That's alright, John, come again.
 Perry Read and wife and Mr. and Mrs. C. Montgomery, of Grizzley, have gone to The Dalles on a business and pleasure trip. They will be accompanied home by Miss Lilly Read, who has been in Portland for the last two months.
 There is not much doing around Culver nowadays, a good many of the "Hayseeds" having moved to the Bend, so if you want any more news from this neck-of-the-woods you will have to send Teampy, Jr., up here. Hayseed.
 Keep everlastingly at it is the keynote of success in advertising—as well as in anything else.
