

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

new goods at Hahn's.

with the crowd and stop at the hotel.

White, of Culver, was a business visitor a few days ago.

you want barbed wire see Louche at Madras.

Wm. W. Gordon, of Warm Springs, was a business visitor last day.

D. McNemer is building a small cottage on lots he has rented from the Palmetto.

Brooks Bros. have just about finished a very neat addition of 20x20 feet to their business house.

Formaldehyde, the new disinfectant, is preventive of smut in grain, on sale at the Madras Drug Store.

H. Stonehocker has resigned his position as stage driver and is now at work on his farm.

When in Prineville don't forget that yourself and family can get the very best of everything at the Poindexter hotel.

Miss Ethyl Babb, who has been visiting her parents on Agency Plains for a few weeks, will shortly return to her home.

The Sabbath school at the north end of the Big Plain has changed its name from Mt. Carmel to North End Sabbath school.

Mesdames H. J. and G. W. Brantner and Mrs. W. E. Fulham were doing business with our merchants the other part of the week.

Ira Isham has bought lots 6 and 7, block 33, town of Palmetto; consideration, $250. Ira has rented the property to Dr. W. H. Snook.

A. Rhodes, recently of Athens, Ga., is now at home on his homestead west of town, where he is busily engaged putting in his fall crop.

When looking for a hotel the first thing you think of is modern equipment, etc. You will find all these at the Poindexter hotel, Prineville, Ore.

Don't buy your fall or winter supplies without getting our prices. We are prepared to make special figures on large orders for farmers and stockmen.

E. Morris, Prineville, Ore.

The Lone Pine Trading Co. will pay 60c for wheat and 50c per bushel for oats, half cash and half merchandise. For further particulars call or write to the above at Prineville, Ore.

Why pay excessive prices for windows, doors, shingles or builders' materials when you can buy them at right prices of J. E. Morris, Prineville, Ore.

T. J. Malloy was called East very suddenly last Saturday on account of state matters in which his mother and sister are interested. He expects to return in about 30 days.

Fred VanNorden, of The Dalles, Ore., is fully prepared to make your book or watch as good as new. His work is fully guaranteed. Give him a trial. Mail orders promptly attended to.

Fred Stolliker and wife, of Palouse City, Wash., are looking for a homestead and think they will locate in the 9 S., R. 14 E. Mr. and Mrs. Stolliker are well pleased with Madras and vicinity.

Harry Deuchit will be in Madras every Tuesday with beef, which can be bought at 10c a lb. store between the hours of 2 a. m. and 4 p. m. of that day. Your patronage is earnestly solicited.

All parties indebted to me are hereby notified that all accounts not settled before November 15th will be put into the hands of a lawyer for collection. I need my money and think I have waited long enough. L. M. Hahn.

When looking for a reliable and comfortable hack or buggy don't overlook the stock carried by J. F. Morris, of Prineville, Ore. They are manufactured by the Deere people and are built especially for the western trade.

William Gritton, a prosperous young farmer of the German settlement, who married Miss Alice Morris, of Trail Crossing, a few days ago, is preparing to build a larger house on his homestead this fall.

L. T. Darm, an old time settler on military land in Sherman county, has taken another homestead near Culver, where he has recently erected a house, barn and other buildings preparatory to making his future home in this country.

John Isham and family, who have been on a trip to their farm near Blue River, have returned, and report that the mining town of Blue River is growing very rapidly, and that the mines, upon which the town depends for support, are very rich and great gold producers.

Now is the time to buy that 40 or 80 acre tract of vacant land joining you. Let us figure on it. We can give you immediate possession and a clear title by placing restricted forest reserve scrip, which we are prepared to sell, for spot cash, at prices that defy competition. For further particulars call on or write to Timothy Brownhill, Madras, Ore., and your inquiry will receive prompt attention.

J. V. Tonnall, of Holbrook, Ore., is here looking for a home.

Did you see Malloy's ad. Better look.

J. W. Harper, of Athens, Ore., is here looking for a location.

New, bright, clean rooms at the Madras.

A. R. Lyle was a pleasant visitor last week.

Take your produce to Malloy's Pioneer Cash Store.

Ed Campbell has made some very substantial improvements on his farm this fall.

Mrs. S. E. Eick is now the possessor of two lots in the city of Madras. Consideration, $125.

John Mayes is building a very neat addition to his residence on his homestead west of town.

J. T. Rice is preparing to make some substantial improvements on his farm this fall and winter.

FOR SALE—400 bushels large potatoes at 50c per sack. Andrew Larsen, Agency Plains.

A. J. Henneman, recently of Milwaukee, Ore., is now at home on his homestead on the Little Plains.

S. R. Percival and Ralph Brown were tripping the light fantastic at the Royal Neighbors' ball last week.

Hon. J. E. Kirk, superintendent of the Warm Springs Indian Reservation, was a pleasant visitor at The Pioneer office last week.

Rev. O. W. Triplett, Baptist minister, will preach in the school house at Madras next Sunday, the 30th, both morning and evening. You are respectfully invited to attend.

H. E. Jacobs and wife, of Spokane, Wash., arrived last Tuesday night and are now domiciled on their homestead two miles north of town.

W. H. Ramsey, of Agency Plains, passed through town this week with a large load of lumber, with which he expects to build an addition to his house and barn.

Rev. William Brantner, superintendent, announces that commencing with Sunday, October 23d, Sunday school will be held at the Agency Plains school house every Sunday afternoon at 2.30. Everyone cordially invited.

John A. Palmehn left yesterday for a short visit to Cline Falls and Prineville. Rumor has it that John has a feminine attraction at the latter place, and that Judge Brooks is liable to be called into service at any time.

G. J. Hardy, who has been suffering from an injury to his shoulder, received some months ago, is no better, and will leave for The Dalles in a few days, where he goes to receive a thorough examination and also attend to some important business matters.

It is reported that H. A. Page, of Moro, who passed through this city recently in company with O. G. Smith, is contemplating establishing a meat market here. This is something badly needed and a business that would be a paying investment right from the start.

Mr. Baird, an Agency Plains rancher, was in town last Friday evening on his way to The Dalles. He is living on the Plains, improving and cultivating his ranch, and is enthusiastic over the future of that country, which he thinks will be a greater wheat country even than Sherman county is.—Antelope Herald.

Now is the time to plant fruit and shade trees. The Dalles Nurseries (see ad in another column) handle nothing but home grown trees, which are fully guaranteed to be as represented. Get their prices before buying elsewhere. By leaving your orders at The Pioneer office they will receive prompt attention. Call and get a price list.

The Edwards Moving Picture Co. showed to a large and appreciative audience at Davis' hall Tuesday night. The illustrated songs, "Star and the Flower," "Mid the Green Fields of Virginia," and "Break the News to Mother," were worthy of special mention, as were also some of the views of the Japanese-Russian war. The company went from here to Lamonia.

Geo. W. Mayce & Co. have located a number of very desirable settlers around Madras during the last week. Their charges are very reasonable, so much so that intending settlers find they can better afford to pay them than to undertake to locate themselves. They have several good homesteads cruised out and are in a position to give prompt and correct service. Anyone wishing claims can secure all needed information by calling on or writing to the above at Madras, Ore.

The Madras Townsite Company have closed satisfactory arrangements with the proposed flouring mill company to establish a modern roller flouring mill in this city in so far as lots and other privileges are concerned. Mr. S. P. Conroy, the secretary of the new mill company, is here and is interesting our farmers in the mill. We sincerely hope that every citizen of this country will materially aid this enterprise, as it is the one thing we need and must have before we are assured of a market for our grain.

Francis G. Carney has just finished a very commodious barn on his homestead northwest of town.

James S. Atkins, formerly of Menominee, Mich., has located on a homestead near Juniper Springs, south of town.

Fred Davis has returned to Shaniko to look after business affairs, leaving his wife and family to hold down his homestead.

M. Maagn, who has a homestead near Madras, is appreciated by his Sunday school class. He is an interesting teacher and takes great interest in the Sunday School Bible class.

Fred Guttendorf has just finished a splendid cottage on the farm of H. P. Poulsen, who will soon move on his homestead from Shaniko.

When thinking about your winter reading remember that we can give you very reasonable rates upon any paper or magazine in connection with The Pioneer. Call and see us about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher will leave for a visit to The Dalles in a few days. Returning, they will bring their daughter, Miss Edie, and her friend, Miss B. Schofield, who have adjoining homesteads in the north end of the Agency Plains.

A tent city has sprung up in the north end of town in the last few days. Many people are coming in and are looking for homesteads and business locations. If the present rate of settlement continues it will be only a short time until all the available land within a radius of 15 miles of this city will have been taken.

Standard Patterns

ALL STANDARD PATTERNS are reduced to 10c and 15c.

We have the agency. If you do not receive our monthly fashion-plate drop us a post card and get your name on our mailing list.

The Designer

"A Magazine of Real Use to Woman."

Contains Fashions, Stories and numerous special features for instruction and amusement. Send us your subscription. 10c a copy, 80c a year.

The Edward C. Pease Co.

Shaniko, Ore.

N. M. LANE

General Blacksmith and Wagon Maker

HORSESHOEING A SPECIALTY All Work Guaranteed

SHANIKO, OREGON

This Space Reserved for

SANFORD & FITZPATRICK

SUCCESSORS TO A. C. SANFORD.

DEALERS IN

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

SHANIKO, OREGON.

Shaniko Warehouse Company

GENERAL STORAGE AND FORWARDING

Special attention to Wool Grading and Baling for Export shipments. Dealers in Blacksmith Coal, Lime and Builders' Material of all kinds. Sulphur, Wool and Grain Sacks and Twine, Grain, Flour and Feed. Highest price paid for Hides and Pelts. Stock Yards with all the latest and best facilities for handling stock.

Mark Goods Care of

"S. W. Co."

T. G. CONDON, Manager.

EAST END DEPARTMENT STORE

Is Headquarters for Farmers and Stockmen's Supplies of all kinds.

Write us for special prices on your Fall Supplies.

CONROY, SON & CO., PROPRIETORS.

East 2d St., The Dalles, Ore.

OUR Summer trade has exceeded our expectations. We have determined not to be outsold in fall and winter supplies, so now is the time to call and inspect the largest and best stock of goods in Crook county. We are headquarters for everything needed by the Farmer and Stockman. We buy and take in trade Farmers' Products of all kinds. Write us for figures on your fall and winter supplies.

WURZWEILER & THOMSON

Prineville, Oregon.

ELKINS & KING

DEALERS IN

GROCERIES, HARDWARE, HOUSE FURNISHINGS and FARM MACHINERY.

Agents for

SUPERIOR DRILLS, OLIVER PLOWS and BAIN WAGONS.

Prineville, Oregon.

Pioneer Cash Store

GOOD GOODS ONLY—OUR PRICE THE LOWEST, QUALITY OF GOODS CONSIDERED.

You are respectfully invited to inspect our new and complete stock of goods. We have been for months preparing this great display of merchandise, and the correct wearables for fall and winter are being shown in profusion. Everything is reasonable, everything is new, everything is the best of its kind. Merchandise that will please, merchandise that will insure the permanent patronage of those who buy it. We do not exaggerate, we never misrepresent, and we guarantee satisfaction ALWAYS.

Clothing Department

Neat, durable pants, worth $2.00, $1.50

All wool pants, $2.75, $3.00 and $4.00

We are agents for Selig Bros. & Co., wholesale tailors, and can make you a suit to order for $11.00 and up.

Men's work shirts, the 75c kind,60

Men's Negligee shirts, the $1.00 kind,75

Men's black sateen shirts, the $1.00 kind,75

Men's blue flannel shirts, the $1.50 kind, $1.25

Men's wool sweaters, $1.25 to $2.25

Boys' wool sweaters, 75c to $1.25

School Supplies

Large pencil, 05c

Ink tablets, 5c, 10c, 15c, 25c

Lead Pencils, 1c

Slate pencils in wood, 2 for 5c

SCHOOL BOOKS and TABLETS.

We save you money on farm machinery. We have on hand walking plows in steel and cast, sulky and gang plows, both disc and mouldboard; harrows, disc harrows with 12, 14 and 18 disc. Hoosier Drills, Mitchell Wagons, Buggies, Hacks.

We Save You Money.

T. J. MALLOY & CO.

Main Street, Madras, Oregon.

Bear in mind that

HAHN

is always at the bottom with Prices. Over $1,000 worth of

NEW DRY GOODS

is en route to their Store. Also $1,000 worth of

FARM IMPLEMENTS, BUGGIES, CARRIAGES

New Goods are arriving weekly.

Their Store is the Bee Hive of good things for Northern Crook county. Why? Good goods at lowest prices, and, above all, honest dealings.

L. M. HAHN, MADRAS, ORE.

L. A. YOUNG

DEALER IN

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

If you are looking for stale groceries don't come to this store. We carry nothing but fresh and reliable goods. You will find in our stock of Gents' Furnishing Goods and Boots and Shoes a very complete line at RIGHT PRICES. Give us a call.

Five Miles N. E. of Madras.

THE DALLES NURSERIES

R. H. WEBER, Proprietor. Grower and Dealer in

FRUIT, SHADE AND ORNAMENTAL TREES

EVERGREENS, ROSES AND SHRUBBERY

Hyacinths, Tulips, Lilies, Dahlias, Peonies, Etc.

THE DALLES OREGON