Entered as second class matter August 29, 1901, at the Postoffice at Madras, Ore., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY..... NOVEMBER 17, 1904

We certainly owe an apology to our readers this week for the lack of local and news of interest. Our advertising patronage has exceeded our fondest expectations. Hence the congested condition of the paper. However, with the Thanksgiving issue we have arranged to enlarge the paper one-third, two-thirds of which will be printed at home on the new 9 column Ideal hand galley press which has been received and upon which this issue is printed. With the Thanksgiving issue will appear the first installment of the serial story, "Toilers of the Columbia," with which we are sure our readers will be well pleased.

LITTLE PLAINS.

H. H. Curtis received a painful injury last Wednesday morning by being kicked by a horse on the right side just over the region of the liver. Dr. Spook is in attendance.

T. A. Taylor has hauled lumber with which to build a new house on his ranch. We also learn that he has purchased a fine Jersey cow. We wonder if Tommy isn't intending to get a cow too. We hope so. We would advise all bachelors to get married as soon as possible as leap year is almost gone.

The farmers are all quite busy getting their plowing and seeding done before the ground freezes.

We notice several new houses just across the canyon on Round Butte. We are glad to see the country improving so rapidly, and think that in a few years our country will be second to none. Sunflower.

CULVER ORE.

Jack Roberts, of Grizzley, is erecting a fine sawdust cellar for Mrs. Perry Read.

H. W. Lamson has rented the Wilson property and moved to town. Mr. Lamson is now the popular counter-jumper at the Culver store.

Dr. W. H. Spook, of Madras, was called to Culver one day last week to attend Jerry Barber, who is seriously ill at the home of J. H. Windom.

Robert Osborn is erecting a comfortable house on his homestead near Culver. We don't think Bob is going to live a bachelor's life much longer.

Thomas Alderdyce has been engaged the last few days in building some brick flues in the Culver store.

Miss Lilly Read has charge of the Culver school this winter.

It is reported that a prominent member of the Haystack baseball team pawned a pair of his neighbor's shoes for the price of a meal after the game last week, and Dave Barnett says if he don't get those shoes pretty quick he'll tell the fellow's name.

Hayseed.

MARRIED.

Mr. Lee Peck and Miss Frances Tucker were united in wedlock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Peck, six miles northwest of Culver, on Opal Prairie, Wednesday, Nov. 9, 1904. Rev. E. M. Mortimore, of the Little Plains, officiated.

The ceremony was performed at high noon, after which an elaborate luncheon was served.

Only the relatives of the contracting parties were present. The bride was beautifully dressed in cream silk organdie, while the groom wore the conventional black. They received a number of beautiful and useful presents. Just one year ago Miss Pearl Tucker became the bride of Mr. John Peck, but as this is the last of Mr. Tucker's daughters we cannot expect another similar affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Peck will be at home to their many friends on Mrs. Peck's ranch, on Opal Prairie, where Mr. Peck recently erected and furnished a nice large residence. We wish them a long and happy life. M. E. M.

Formaldehyde, the new disinfectant, a sure preventative of smut in grain. Now on sale at the Madras Drug Store.
