Just arrived, a new line of all kinds of jewelry, at the Madras Drug Store.

Cramer and H. A. Foster, of Prineville, were Madras visitors on Thanksgiving day.

Young man, make your best girl a present, present of some of the perfumes sold at Malloy's.

Just received, a supply of the popular "Lynx Brand" shoes for women and children at Malloy's.

When in Prineville don't forget that yourself and family can get the very best of everything at the Poindexter hotel.

Frank Rodman will give a grand masquerade Ball Friday night, December 23. A fine time is anticipated and everyone is invited.

Dr. L. D. Idleman, dentist, of Moro, Ore., will be in Madras ready to do any and all kinds of dental and bridge work on or about December 1, 1904.

If you are looking for a Xmas present for your best girl don't forget that you can get just what you are looking for at the Madras Drug Store.

When looking for a hotel the first thing you think of is modern equipments, etc. You will find all these at the Poindexter hotel, Prineville, Ore.

Why pay excessive prices for windows, doors, shingles or builders' materials when you can buy them at the right prices of J. F. Morris, Prineville, Ore.

F. H. Bruner, foreman of the C. S. & R. Co.'s shops at Shaniko, and Tom Alan, both of Shaniko, were recent visitors. Mr. Bruner is looking for a business location.

Don't buy your fall or winter supplies without getting our prices. We are prepared to make special figures on large orders for farmers and stockmen.

J. F. Morris, Prineville, Ore.

Fred VanNorden, of The Dalles, Ore., is fully prepared to make your check or watch as good as new. His work is fully guaranteed. Give him a trial. Mail orders promptly attended to.

Frank M. Melton has disposed of his interests on Agency Plains to S. T. Madrus, who has scripped the land and expects to make his future home among us. Mr. Melton has not decided what he will do as yet.

When looking for a reliable and comfortable hack or buggy don't overlook the stock carried by J. F. Morris, of Prineville, Ore. They are manufactured by the Deere people and are built especially for the western trade.

Rather Hickey says that the Catholic domination will commence building a church in this city next May. He says that Madras is destined to be the coming town of Central Oregon and the people propose to get in on the ground floor.

W. H. Zell is now at home on his homestead north of town. Bill, oftentimes as devil in The Pioneer office during the rush last week, and certainly did his part nobly. We are indebted to him for his assistance in more than dollars and cents.

Mrs. J. H. Jackson and daughter, Miss May, of The Dalles, and Mrs. Anna M. Lamb, of Moro, spent Thanksgiving on the Jackson farm. Mrs. Jackson will make her home with J. H. on the farm. Mrs. Lamb and Miss Jackson returned to Moro the fore part of the week.

A. P. Clarke, of North Yakima, Wash., arrived on his homestead this week, accompanied by Mrs. Clarke and the children. They have come to stay and expect to make an aggressive warfare on sagebrush and sod, preparing for a good-sized crop next year. Mrs. Clarke brought a coop of very fine white Plymouth Rock chickens and will do an extensive business in raising blooded chickens for the market and show purposes.

Phillip Hastie, of the Mud Springs district, was a recent visitor to our berg. Mrs. Hastie is at present visiting friends in Markham, Ore., but will be home in time for the holidays.

R. Parrish, of Hay Creek, has bought two more lots in Madras. Consideration, $200. Mr. Parrish knows a good thing when he sees it, hence his desire to secure all the property here he can.

The County Court awarded the contract for building the bridge across Willow Creek, near this city, to Elkins & Harbin, of Prineville. The price is $485, the bridge to be completed by January 1, 1905.

George Osborne, of Culver, is especially well pleased just now with a picture, just received, of his father and two of his friends, who were the first commissioners of Greenwood county, Kansas.

W. C. Baxton, son of G. L., has located on a homestead north of town and is preparing to build and fence his claim. He is well pleased with the country and will use every effort to assist in its upbuilding.

W. R. Brown, of The Dalles, has been assisting W. A. Maddron in bringing his family and household goods out. Mr. Maddron has a homestead near Madras and expects to spend the balance of his days in this country.

William Brownhill is busy building a good-sized barn on his homestead. He has also hauled a large stack of hay and straw, made improvements to his residence, bought a new cook-stove, and from present appearances is preparing to entertain his friends when the expected happens. We extend congratulations—in advance.

S. H. Edmondson, of Dufur, who has a homestead on the Big Plain, was in town a few days ago. Sam says he will move out late in the winter or early in the spring. He is the right kind of folks, and while we know the Dufur people will be sorry to see him go, we are more than glad he has a place among us.

When we were across the Agency last week Mrs. J. L. Drummond and baby came near an accident. In coming across the grade the horse became unmanageable and in consequence thereof the horse, buggy and occupants went over the grade. Mrs. Drummond and baby were thrown out but not seriously hurt.

W. D. McGee, of Salem, who has been here representing the nurseries of that place, left the fore part of the week for Condon. He expects to be back in the early spring with his family, when they will build and make many improvements, among which will be the starting of a nursery. This will mean much for this country and we shall be glad to see the new industry spring up.

G. L. Paxton, formerly of Oregon City, who bought the relinquishment of John Johnson in sections 7 and 18, Tp. 10 S., R. 14 E., is busily engaged on his farm and already has a new house 14x20, 1 1/2 stories, also a new barn 14x20. He also has the necessary wire and posts on the ground to fence the whole place and will soon commence plowing for a large winter and spring crop. We are glad to have Mr. Paxton among us.

As winter and cold weather is approaching coyotes are getting thick. Chris Harry saw 8 in one bunch, W. Terrell saw 11, H. Cochlin and Timothy Brownhill saw 12 romping and playing together, and other people bring in reports of a similar character. Some think that the coyotes band together for the purpose of hunting jack rabbits. There may be some reason in this, as it is said the jack rabbits are becoming more scarce.
