

KEEP A-GOIN'

If you strike a thorn or nail,
Keep a-goin'!
If it hurts, or if it stings,
Keep a-goin'!
'Taint no use to sit and whine
When the fish ain't on your line,
Bait your hook an' keep a-tryin'—
Keep a-goin'!
When the weather kills your crop,
Keep a-goin'!
When you tumble from the top,
Keep a-goin'!
If you're out of every dime,
'Taint no use to cry any more,
Tell the world you're having fun—
Keep a-goin'!
When it looks like all is up,
Keep a-goin'!
Breathe the sweetest from the cup,
Keep a-goin'!
See the wild birds on the wing,
Hear the birds that sweetly sing,
When you feel like stagin' wing—
Keep a-goin'!

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Mary Jennings is learning the art of sticking type in The Pioneer office.

Phillip Hasle, who lives five miles northeast of town, was a recent visitor to this burr.

Grandma Connet made Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baird a pleasant visit a short time ago.

Mrs. R. Parrish and Mrs. Rose Booth, of Hay Creek, were visiting friends in Madras recently.

Found—Near Lytle's Gap, a lady's shoe, almost new. Same can be had by calling at The Pioneer office.

Edward H. Dean, of Hay Creek, is building a new six-room house and expects to have it complete by the first of the year.

B. F. Preston was a recent visitor to this city. He has just completed a new residence and made some other improvements on his farm near town.

A petition is being circulated for a new road, commencing near the top of the Warm Spring road and terminating at the southeast corner Sec. 15, Tp. 10 S., R. 13 E., W. M.

We got our first glimpse this week of Timothy Brownhill's new paper, The Pioneer, at Madras, Crook county.

From the extensive advertising patronage extended The Pioneer, Northern Crook county is coming to be a well settled community.—Hood River Glacier.

Lost—A Sunflower; at least we think she is, because we have not heard from her for some time. It is reported that she is on the Little Plain, and if such is the case we hope she will see this article and again favor us with one of those up-to-date letters concerning things generally in that neighborhood.

Help for Hanley Family.
George Lytle, a freighter from the Haystack country, was soliciting subscriptions here the first of the week for the family of John Hanley, who was rendered destitute by a fire at his place on last Friday morning.

A five-year-old child a stepson of Hanley, was burned to death in the same fire. The fire originated from a candle which the children, who slept in the upper story, had carried to their rooms to light themselves to bed, and the fire had made such headway when discovered that it was impossible to save any of the furniture.

Hanley has freighted on the Prineville road for several years, and is well known to some of our people.—Antelope Herald.

The sympathy of this community is with Mr. and Mrs. Hanley in their trouble, and our citizens have responded liberally to the call for their assistance.

Buggy Went Over Tygh Grade.
L. P. Douglas, who bought a new $35 buggy while in The Dalles a few days ago, while coming down Tygh Grade, on his way home, had the misfortune of having the buggy make loose behind the wagon, where it was being trailed, run to one side and rolled down the steepest and longest part of Tygh Hill.

There was scarcely enough left to tell the tale. Mr. Douglas didn't stop to even pick up the pieces, but come on home, and is now putting in time riding as of yore—on the old wagon—thinking of "what might have been."

Attention, Please.

Everybody is especially requested to furnish a box. Good music and an interesting entertainment will be furnished. All are cordially invited to attend. By request of the school board.

Good Demand for Land.
Orla Hale was a pleasant visitor last week. He was on his way to Portland on a business trip and was accompanied by his father, W. S. Hale, and J. W. Cook, all of Culver. Mr. Hale says that land is in demand just now, he having been asked several times to put a price on his farm. He, however, is well pleased with this country and is content to stay.

CHICKEN MITES.

The time to fight mites is the day we first begin the poultry business. Do not wait till the fowls get sick and begin to droop but stop their onward march by preventing their appearance.

Cleanliness is the best weapon, without which it is impossible to combat these terrible pests.

Lime and kerosene make a combination that will, if properly applied, soon rid the poultry house of them and forever keep them away.

Whitewash the walls and sprinkle lime over the floor and ground, and saturate the roosts with kerosene every two weeks and there will never be any lice on hens.
