The entertainment and basket sociel given in McTaggart & Bye's hall January 3 for the benefit of the public school fund is now a thing of the past. That one word-success-describes the whole affair. The beautiful evening was all that could be desired. There was assembled an orderly, good natured crowd. Not so large, however, as was expected, but those present blended pleasure and business so beautifully that from beginning to end it was a pleasant, enjoyable success. The entertainment consisted of vice president; F. O. Minor, eashier. id up and is non-assessable. strumental music, songs; declamations, dialogues and farce comedies and was entertaining, instructive and pleasing. And all present were convinced that our young people, in connection with those who so ably and kindly assisted them, are espable of making an entertainment of this character a pleasant affair.
