NEWS FROM GRIZZLY.

M. Wheeler, L. H. Hamilton and wife visited the county seat the first of last week. Mrs. Wheeler accompanied Mr. Wheeler home. She has been visiting in town for several weeks, the guest of Mrs. Hannah Dee.

Albert Cubit returned home from Prineville the last of the week with a brand new saddle which he had purchased from Jake Boone. We don't wonder at him wearing his hat on the back of his head, but then we can't blame him—a new saddle is something all bronco busters are proud of.

We had a nice little dance at the M. W. A. hall on the 10th. Quite a number from Lamonta and Hay Creek attended. We hope they enjoyed themselves and will come again. There wasn't many ladies present but the boys filled the vacancy almost as well.

'Twas a basket supper, and one young lady lost her pie. We hope they were good, but as we didn't get to sample them cannot say. How about it, West? But, come again, boys; we'll have more pies next time.

Warren Brown, of Culver, was seen on our streets the first of the week.

Harry Pitzer is building a barn on his mother's homestead. He intends to begin plowing as soon as he gets his carpenter work finished. Harry is a swell carpenter; if you don't believe it just go over and examine his work.

F. M. Loveland was seen on our streets the last of the week. He attended the dance while here.

Rev. W. P. Jinnett, pastor of the M. E. Church of Prineville, preached a very interesting sermon Sunday. Owing to the inclement weather there were few in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. C. Montgomery entertained him while here.

T. F. Buchanan and family visited on McKay Creek and at Prineville for several days last week.

Mrs. Eva Bland, of Lamonta, is visiting at the home of her father-in-law, J. H. Bland.

Little Dalmar Lewis had the misfortune to turn his hands very badly a few days ago by falling against a stove.

Wonder what there is on Willow Creek that so attracts Bob Nelson. Seems as though he can't live away.

Ray Smith and Clair Quinn came down from Suplee the first of the week with a bunch of fine horses, which Mr. Smith is trying to dispose of.

NOTES FROM NORTH END.

Farmers are busy these fine days plowing and seedling.

Joe Arney has gone to The Dalles after some relatives, rumor hath it.

Mrs. A. P. Clark suffered a relapse from fever, but is reported convalescing.

Sam Edmondson drove in from Dufrer the other night with a large force of teams and is pushing matter lively on his place.

Walter Arney is a busy man now grubbing sage and plowing.

Hugh Davis and his mother are due soon on their places for crop work.

Mr. Conard is getting a lot of grain sown on his claim.

Byron Meeker gives us a treat to fireworks these evenings by burning sage on his late purchase.

Where is that road petition for the road so badly needed down the Ferry Canyon to Des Chutes? Now that the sawmill is going in at the old ferry landing we need this improvement very badly.

We hope Dr. Long's visits to this end of the Plain will not be so frequent now. We like to see the genial face of the doctor, but not under such circumstances.

Mrs. Ramsey is convalescing.

Rumor hast it that the "Literary" died last Saturday evening from congestion of the bowels, and the school marm is pleased, I suppose, since it required a good deal of muscle to clear up on Monday mornings. Literary meetings are instructive but the rules ought to be enforced a little on the tobacco worms and such.

Mr. Evick rides in a splinter brand new buggy and makes frequent trips toward some place. I don't know where; do you?

There is no security for perseverance except in always advancing. To stand still is impossible. A boat ascending a running stream falls back as soon as it ceases to advance. To hold its place is impossible, unless it gain upon the stream. So in the spiritual life.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Putz, of Mitchell, have arrived and will make their future home in this city.

LOCAL NEWS.

Joe Stewart, of Hay Creek, was a pleasant visitor last week.

J. H. Horney, of Culver, was a Madras visitor a few days ago.

B. S. Wilkins is doing some plowing on the Brownhill farm this week.

Mrs. Frank Osborn and Miss One Herrin were pleasant visitors last week.

Al Henneman and Frank Hannan, of Culver, were pleasant visitors last week.

H. F. Borden, of the Little Plain, was looking after road matters while in town a few days ago.

Hon. E. M. Smith, ex R. R. agent, etc., of the Big Plain, was in the city on business last Saturday.

Johnnie Conroy left for Shaniko last Wednesday with the M. M. and M. Co.'s team for a load of goods.

Mrs. N. H. Pinkerton and sister, Miss Rose, made Mrs. T. Brownhill a pleasant visit last Saturday.

Warren Brown, of Haystack, has been promoted—for a short time—to the office of deputy sheriff.

J. G. Hardy, of the Big Plain, was doing business in Madras recently. He is a rooster and is getting in quite a crop this year.

R. M. Jones was in town a short time ago. He is getting ready to go on the road as soon as the weather will permit.

Byron A. Meeker, William Harper and W. S. Williams, all of the Big Plain, were doing business with our merchants last Saturday.

W. C. Cook, a assistant postmaster and clerk for Sanford & Fitzpatrick, of Shaniko, was in town looking after business matters last week.

Mrs. Mary Pitzer, of Grizzly, was in town last Friday night. While here she had the pleasure of attending the dance and reports having had a good time.

Prof. C. R. Deems, who has a home east of town, was a Madras visitor last week. He will make a trip to Boyd this week but will return as soon as possible.

J. A. Hoffman, one of Methodist Hill's most progressive citizens, was a pleasant visitor Monday. John is one of our most versatile and popular correspondents, and we are always glad to have him pay us a visit.

Bill all express and fast freight for Madras and way points in care of the Madras and Dalles stage line, via The Dalles, Oregon, and you will receive it promptly and at a very reasonable rate.

Miss Catharine Henneman and Mrs. T. J. Malloy were pleasant visitors at The Pioneer office last Friday. Miss Henneman has a homestead south of town and is making arrangements to have some important improvements made on it this spring.

The smiling faces of our popular bachelor friend Tom Burden was much in evidence Saturday of last week. Upon learning that we were afflicted with neuralgia and la grippe, he suggested that he was no blankety, blank doctor, but if we would try his remedy it would help. We tried it right away and now pronounce it O.K.

Percy Howell, who has been working this winter for Fred Fisher, whom all are well acquainted with, returned to The Dalles March 9th. Mr. M. Vogt set him at work the next morning as janitor in his buildings on Second street. Mr. Howell is Mr. Vogt's old stand by and he was more than pleased to have him return to his old post.

The "Christian" Church in The Dalles is having a wonderful revival. The meetings have lasted five weeks—61 souls brought into church as a reward for the faithful work of Rev. Robertson, pastor, and Rev. Handaker, evangelist. Rev. Robertson delivered his farewell sermon last week. He goes to Vancouver from here. Who will fill his place at The Dalles has not been settled yet.

THE PRINEVILLE-MADRAS TELEPHONE LINE

is rapidly nearing completion. It is confidently expected that the 1st of April will see our telephone exchange installed and machine ready for operation. The incorporators of this line have not heralded their coming by columns of free advertising in the newspapers, or by great bows of what they were going to do, but they have been doing things in a quiet way that meant business, and time is about here when we shall receive the benefit of one of life's necessities—the long distance telephone—and we hope our people will give it the patronage it merits.
