Entered as second class matter August 29, 1904, at the Postoffice at Madras, Ore., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY May 18, 1905

The new mail schedule recently inaugurated which passes through Cow Canyon, and leaves Antelope to the left with a service very much inferior to the former one, has raised a storm of protest from that vicinity. The service is lame somewhere as it takes letters from Antelope from three to four days to reach Madras, a distance of possibly 40 miles. Specifically one letter post-marked at Antelope on May 2 reached Madras May 6. The mail route superintendent should investigate this service.

With the June number will begin The Pacific Monthly's series of special editions for the year 1905. They will comprise a number for Portland, for Seattle, for Southern California, for San Francisco and the souvenir number of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, also a special automobile number. The articles of Dr. Wolf Von Schierbrand, six in number, on "The Coming Supremacy of the Pacific" are also promised, and the plans contemplated by the publishers will, without question, place The Pacific Monthly far in advance, not only of present competitors, but also into the unreachably class of "radical literature on the Pacific Coast. The Pacific Monthly is sold to regular subscribers at the extremely low price of $1 a year. We have made an arrangement with the publishers by which we are able to offer it in connection with The Madras Pioneer (both publications) for $2.00 a year.
