ADVERTISING RATES ON APPLICATION
 Entered as second class matter August 29, 1904, at the Postoffice at Madras, Ore., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.
 THURSDAY June 4, 1905

It is thought that high water is the cause which prevented the mails from making connections at Grizzly yesterday. All these delays of mail, or most of them, would be eliminated if the mail route promised this section from Heisler were inaugurated. The roads south of Heisler to Grizzly butte are abominable after almost any kind of a rain and teams can hardly make any time through the adobe which is peculiar to the roads along most of the present mail route. With a mail this way from Heisler, except for a delay at the railroad, the stage should not vary 20 minutes in its arrival at Madras during any season of the year. We beseech thee, O postal department, give us a daily mail via Heisler.

"History and Resources of Crook County" is a neat little pamphlet from the press of the Crook County Journal and edited by the pupils of the Crook county high school, which has made a visit to The Pioneer office.

CLAYPOOL ISHAM.—On Sunday, May 28, 1905, Miss Theodocia Isham and Omer Claypool were united in marriage at Prineville.

County Seat News.

J. F. Stroud, of Lamonta, spent last Tuesday in this city.

John Hanley, of Lamonta, was a business visitor in the city last Wednesday.

W. E. Duchien, of Hay Creek, payed Prineville a visit last Wednesday.

J. H. Garrett, of Cross Keys, was in our midst last Wednesday attending to business interests.

Miss Jessie McCallister, of this city, spent several days last week at the "Cove" visiting her parents.

We understand, William Bogli, of this city, has purchased the "Cove" ranch of T. F. McCallister and will take charge January 1, 1906.

Last week Frank Foster purchased J. E. Calavan's interest in the firm of Calavan & Rideout. The new firm will be known as Rideout & Foster.

Mrs. U. S. Cowles, who for the past week has been quite ill at the Redby lodging house, is much better and expects to depart in a few days for her home near Madras.

James Elkins, of Madras, formerly of this city, spent several days in our midst last week. There seems to be some attraction in this city for James. We wonder what?

The Dedication of the Presbyterian Church of this city will take place the second Sunday in June at which time several Presbyterian ministers will be present, among whom is Rev. Dr. Holt.

Miss Julia Hatch, of Golden-dale, a missionary, will lecture in this city next Sunday. She has for a number of years been in the missionary fields at Siam and her lectures are very interesting and instructive.

John A. Palmehn and Archie Mason, of Madras, were in this city Monday. Mr. Mason states the new machinery for the oil well has arrived but was unfit for use owing to being to light, so the work will be delayed some time longer.

Work on the new First National Bank building is being rapidly pushed ahead. M. Christiani will also erect a two story brick where now stands the Bazaar. The present building will be moved the coming week and work will begin soon.

Plans have been drawn and the contract will be signed within a few days for the erection of a two story brick where now stands the Reception Saloon. Champ Smith will soon prepare for the moving of the building occupied by him and work will begin as soon as possible on the new building.

The graduating exercises of the class of '05 of the Crook County High School will take place, Friday June 2d at the M. E. Church. A small programme has been prepared and a large number of invitations sent. Those of the class are, Misses Gertrude Sharp, Iva Booth and Charles O. Christiani.
