

WHAT HAPPENINGS AT MADRAS

Chronicle of Improvements--The Moving Throng--Business and Social Events--Items Condensed.

Persons who desire changes in their names are requested to hand in their applications by Monday morning.

Lampson, of Culver, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. Ralph Brown were in town on their ranch last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haight, of Trout Creek, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown last Sunday.

Ed Craig and John Trotter left a few days ago for the harvest fields near Pendleton. They each put up a fine crop of hay on their ranches before leaving.

E. Endreud and James Rice, of Hay Creek, were visiting in town on Sunday. Mr. Endreud is secretary of the Baldwin Sheep & Land Company, and Mr. Rice is also connected with the company.

O. P. U'Ren, a stockman from Ridge-way, was in town yesterday on his home from the Cascade Forest Reserve, where he is summering his sheep. Mr. U'Ren says that it is getting very dry in the mountains, and that springs never before known to go dry during the longest summers, are already drying up. This is due to the small amount of snow which fell in the mountains during the past winter, and it may cause considerable inconvenience to the stockmen who use the Reserve for summer pasturage.

A subscription list was circulated here on Saturday for the purpose of raising money enough to have the streets of Madras sprinkled during the next two months. The slightest breeze starts the dust to flying, and the merchants of the town have had a difficult task in keeping their stock of goods clean, and if the street sprinkler will prevent this it will be a cheap luxury at any price. In addition to the benefit to the merchants, the street sprinkler would be a material addition to the comfort of every resident in town. Only a few of the business people in town refused to contribute to the fund, and it is likely that the sprinkling-car will be in operation by the first of August.

Horses For Sale. Four work horses--one mare 5 years, three horses 4 years old. Seven miles southwest of Madras. For particulars call at the Pioneer Office.

NOTICE. All parties indebted to me for water will please come in and settle or close by note. I desire to leave for a vacation by middle of August and want these matters settled up before I go. Respectfully, JOHN A. ISHAM.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler, of Vancouver, Wash., father and mother of "Dewey," were in town yesterday visiting him. They have been taking an outing on upper Deschutes. They went to Bend to see Dewey, who had to return to Madras the day they arrived at Bend, so they returned by this place for a short visit with him before returning to their home.

Rev. G. M. Booth Dead. Rev. G. M. Booth, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church for the Columbia River district, died at his home at The Dalles on Monday, July 11, 1905. His death came very suddenly while he was alone in a room at his home, his family being in other portions of the house. Mr. Booth had been down town during the morning, and feeling ill, had been driven up home in a friend's buggy. A doctor called later, and later in the afternoon his wife left the room for just a moment and when she returned, found Mr. Booth lying on his face, dead. Death was due to heart disease, from which he was known to be suffering. He had planned taking a vacation in a few days and had been granted a respite from duty by the conference.

The Rev. George M. Booth was one of the best known and most beloved ministers in Eastern Oregon. Three years ago he was assigned to The Dalles district, as presiding elder, since which time he has lived in this district. He made frequent trips out through interior Oregon in the discharge of the duties of his charge, and had many friends in Central Oregon who will miss these pleasant visits. He leaves a brother in this county, Judge W. A. Booth of Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. McTaggart, Mr. Gardner, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Perival spent a few days camping at Opal Springs this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haight, of Trout Creek, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown last Sunday.

Ed Craig and John Trotter left a few days ago for the harvest fields near Pendleton. They each put up a fine crop of hay on their ranches before leaving.

E. Endreud and James Rice, of Hay Creek, were visiting in town on Sunday. Mr. Endreud is secretary of the Baldwin Sheep & Land Company, and Mr. Rice is also connected with the company.

O. P. U'Ren, a stockman from Ridge-way, was in town yesterday on his home from the Cascade Forest Reserve, where he is summering his sheep. Mr. U'Ren says that it is getting very dry in the mountains, and that springs never before known to go dry during the longest summers, are already drying up. This is due to the small amount of snow which fell in the mountains during the past winter, and it may cause considerable inconvenience to the stockmen who use the Reserve for summer pasturage.

A subscription list was circulated here on Saturday for the purpose of raising money enough to have the streets of Madras sprinkled during the next two months. The slightest breeze starts the dust to flying, and the merchants of the town have had a difficult task in keeping their stock of goods clean, and if the street sprinkler will prevent this it will be a cheap luxury at any price. In addition to the benefit to the merchants, the street sprinkler would be a material addition to the comfort of every resident in town. Only a few of the business people in town refused to contribute to the fund, and it is likely that the sprinkling-car will be in operation by the first of August.

Horses For Sale. Four work horses--one mare 5 years, three horses 4 years old. Seven miles southwest of Madras. For particulars call at the Pioneer Office.

NOTICE. All parties indebted to me for water will please come in and settle or close by note. I desire to leave for a vacation by middle of August and want these matters settled up before I go. Respectfully, JOHN A. ISHAM.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler, of Vancouver, Wash., father and mother of "Dewey," were in town yesterday visiting him. They have been taking an outing on upper Deschutes. They went to Bend to see Dewey, who had to return to Madras the day they arrived at Bend, so they returned by this place for a short visit with him before returning to their home.

Rev. G. M. Booth Dead. Rev. G. M. Booth, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church for the Columbia River district, died at his home at The Dalles on Monday, July 11, 1905. His death came very suddenly while he was alone in a room at his home, his family being in other portions of the house. Mr. Booth had been down town during the morning, and feeling ill, had been driven up home in a friend's buggy. A doctor called later, and later in the afternoon his wife left the room for just a moment and when she returned, found Mr. Booth lying on his face, dead. Death was due to heart disease, from which he was known to be suffering. He had planned taking a vacation in a few days and had been granted a respite from duty by the conference.

The Rev. George M. Booth was one of the best known and most beloved ministers in Eastern Oregon. Three years ago he was assigned to The Dalles district, as presiding elder, since which time he has lived in this district. He made frequent trips out through interior Oregon in the discharge of the duties of his charge, and had many friends in Central Oregon who will miss these pleasant visits. He leaves a brother in this county, Judge W. A. Booth of Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. McTaggart, Mr. Gardner, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Perival spent a few days camping at Opal Springs this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haight, of Trout Creek, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown last Sunday.

Ed Craig and John Trotter left a few days ago for the harvest fields near Pendleton. They each put up a fine crop of hay on their ranches before leaving.

E. Endreud and James Rice, of Hay Creek, were visiting in town on Sunday. Mr. Endreud is secretary of the Baldwin Sheep & Land Company, and Mr. Rice is also connected with the company.

O. P. U'Ren, a stockman from Ridge-way, was in town yesterday on his home from the Cascade Forest Reserve, where he is summering his sheep. Mr. U'Ren says that it is getting very dry in the mountains, and that springs never before known to go dry during the longest summers, are already drying up. This is due to the small amount of snow which fell in the mountains during the past winter, and it may cause considerable inconvenience to the stockmen who use the Reserve for summer pasturage.

A subscription list was circulated here on Saturday for the purpose of raising money enough to have the streets of Madras sprinkled during the next two months. The slightest breeze starts the dust to flying, and the merchants of the town have had a difficult task in keeping their stock of goods clean, and if the street sprinkler will prevent this it will be a cheap luxury at any price. In addition to the benefit to the merchants, the street sprinkler would be a material addition to the comfort of every resident in town. Only a few of the business people in town refused to contribute to the fund, and it is likely that the sprinkling-car will be in operation by the first of August.

Horses For Sale. Four work horses--one mare 5 years, three horses 4 years old. Seven miles southwest of Madras. For particulars call at the Pioneer Office.

NOTICE. All parties indebted to me for water will please come in and settle or close by note. I desire to leave for a vacation by middle of August and want these matters settled up before I go. Respectfully, JOHN A. ISHAM.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler, of Vancouver, Wash., father and mother of "Dewey," were in town yesterday visiting him. They have been taking an outing on upper Deschutes. They went to Bend to see Dewey, who had to return to Madras the day they arrived at Bend, so they returned by this place for a short visit with him before returning to their home.

Rev. G. M. Booth Dead. Rev. G. M. Booth, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church for the Columbia River district, died at his home at The Dalles on Monday, July 11, 1905. His death came very suddenly while he was alone in a room at his home, his family being in other portions of the house. Mr. Booth had been down town during the morning, and feeling ill, had been driven up home in a friend's buggy. A doctor called later, and later in the afternoon his wife left the room for just a moment and when she returned, found Mr. Booth lying on his face, dead. Death was due to heart disease, from which he was known to be suffering. He had planned taking a vacation in a few days and had been granted a respite from duty by the conference.

The Rev. George M. Booth was one of the best known and most beloved ministers in Eastern Oregon. Three years ago he was assigned to The Dalles district, as presiding elder, since which time he has lived in this district. He made frequent trips out through interior Oregon in the discharge of the duties of his charge, and had many friends in Central Oregon who will miss these pleasant visits. He leaves a brother in this county, Judge W. A. Booth of Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. McTaggart, Mr. Gardner, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Perival spent a few days camping at Opal Springs this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haight, of Trout Creek, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown last Sunday.

Ed Craig and John Trotter left a few days ago for the harvest fields near Pendleton. They each put up a fine crop of hay on their ranches before leaving.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler, of Vancouver, Wash., father and mother of "Dewey," were in town yesterday visiting him. They have been taking an outing on upper Deschutes. They went to Bend to see Dewey, who had to return to Madras the day they arrived at Bend, so they returned by this place for a short visit with him before returning to their home.

Rev. G. M. Booth Dead. Rev. G. M. Booth, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church for the Columbia River district, died at his home at The Dalles on Monday, July 11, 1905. His death came very suddenly while he was alone in a room at his home, his family being in other portions of the house. Mr. Booth had been down town during the morning, and feeling ill, had been driven up home in a friend's buggy. A doctor called later, and later in the afternoon his wife left the room for just a moment and when she returned, found Mr. Booth lying on his face, dead. Death was due to heart disease, from which he was known to be suffering. He had planned taking a vacation in a few days and had been granted a respite from duty by the conference.

The Rev. George M. Booth was one of the best known and most beloved ministers in Eastern Oregon. Three years ago he was assigned to The Dalles district, as presiding elder, since which time he has lived in this district. He made frequent trips out through interior Oregon in the discharge of the duties of his charge, and had many friends in Central Oregon who will miss these pleasant visits. He leaves a brother in this county, Judge W. A. Booth of Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. McTaggart, Mr. Gardner, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Perival spent a few days camping at Opal Springs this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haight, of Trout Creek, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown last Sunday.

Ed Craig and John Trotter left a few days ago for the harvest fields near Pendleton. They each put up a fine crop of hay on their ranches before leaving.

E. Endreud and James Rice, of Hay Creek, were visiting in town on Sunday. Mr. Endreud is secretary of the Baldwin Sheep & Land Company, and Mr. Rice is also connected with the company.

O. P. U'Ren, a stockman from Ridge-way, was in town yesterday on his home from the Cascade Forest Reserve, where he is summering his sheep. Mr. U'Ren says that it is getting very dry in the mountains, and that springs never before known to go dry during the longest summers, are already drying up. This is due to the small amount of snow which fell in the mountains during the past winter, and it may cause considerable inconvenience to the stockmen who use the Reserve for summer pasturage.

A subscription list was circulated here on Saturday for the purpose of raising money enough to have the streets of Madras sprinkled during the next two months. The slightest breeze starts the dust to flying, and the merchants of the town have had a difficult task in keeping their stock of goods clean, and if the street sprinkler will prevent this it will be a cheap luxury at any price. In addition to the benefit to the merchants, the street sprinkler would be a material addition to the comfort of every resident in town. Only a few of the business people in town refused to contribute to the fund, and it is likely that the sprinkling-car will be in operation by the first of August.

Horses For Sale. Four work horses--one mare 5 years, three horses 4 years old. Seven miles southwest of Madras. For particulars call at the Pioneer Office.

NOTICE. All parties indebted to me for water will please come in and settle or close by note. I desire to leave for a vacation by middle of August and want these matters settled up before I go. Respectfully, JOHN A. ISHAM.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler, of Vancouver, Wash., father and mother of "Dewey," were in town yesterday visiting him. They have been taking an outing on upper Deschutes. They went to Bend to see Dewey, who had to return to Madras the day they arrived at Bend, so they returned by this place for a short visit with him before returning to their home.

Rev. G. M. Booth Dead. Rev. G. M. Booth, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church for the Columbia River district, died at his home at The Dalles on Monday, July 11, 1905. His death came very suddenly while he was alone in a room at his home, his family being in other portions of the house. Mr. Booth had been down town during the morning, and feeling ill, had been driven up home in a friend's buggy. A doctor called later, and later in the afternoon his wife left the room for just a moment and when she returned, found Mr. Booth lying on his face, dead. Death was due to heart disease, from which he was known to be suffering. He had planned taking a vacation in a few days and had been granted a respite from duty by the conference.

The Rev. George M. Booth was one of the best known and most beloved ministers in Eastern Oregon. Three years ago he was assigned to The Dalles district, as presiding elder, since which time he has lived in this district. He made frequent trips out through interior Oregon in the discharge of the duties of his charge, and had many friends in Central Oregon who will miss these pleasant visits. He leaves a brother in this county, Judge W. A. Booth of Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. McTaggart, Mr. Gardner, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Perival spent a few days camping at Opal Springs this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haight, of Trout Creek, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown last Sunday.

Ed Craig and John Trotter left a few days ago for the harvest fields near Pendleton. They each put up a fine crop of hay on their ranches before leaving.

E. Endreud and James Rice, of Hay Creek, were visiting in town on Sunday. Mr. Endreud is secretary of the Baldwin Sheep & Land Company, and Mr. Rice is also connected with the company.

O. P. U'Ren, a stockman from Ridge-way, was in town yesterday on his home from the Cascade Forest Reserve, where he is summering his sheep. Mr. U'Ren says that it is getting very dry in the mountains, and that springs never before known to go dry during the longest summers, are already drying up. This is due to the small amount of snow which fell in the mountains during the past winter, and it may cause considerable inconvenience to the stockmen who use the Reserve for summer pasturage.

A subscription list was circulated here on Saturday for the purpose of raising money enough to have the streets of Madras sprinkled during the next two months. The slightest breeze starts the dust to flying, and the merchants of the town have had a difficult task in keeping their stock of goods clean, and if the street sprinkler will prevent this it will be a cheap luxury at any price. In addition to the benefit to the merchants, the street sprinkler would be a material addition to the comfort of every resident in town. Only a few of the business people in town refused to contribute to the fund, and it is likely that the sprinkling-car will be in operation by the first of August.

Horses For Sale. Four work horses--one mare 5 years, three horses 4 years old. Seven miles southwest of Madras. For particulars call at the Pioneer Office.

NOTICE. All parties indebted to me for water will please come in and settle or close by note. I desire to leave for a vacation by middle of August and want these matters settled up before I go. Respectfully, JOHN A. ISHAM.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler, of Vancouver, Wash., father and mother of "Dewey," were in town yesterday visiting him. They have been taking an outing on upper Deschutes. They went to Bend to see Dewey, who had to return to Madras the day they arrived at Bend, so they returned by this place for a short visit with him before returning to their home.

Rev. G. M. Booth Dead. Rev. G. M. Booth, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church for the Columbia River district, died at his home at The Dalles on Monday, July 11, 1905. His death came very suddenly while he was alone in a room at his home, his family being in other portions of the house. Mr. Booth had been down town during the morning, and feeling ill, had been driven up home in a friend's buggy. A doctor called later, and later in the afternoon his wife left the room for just a moment and when she returned, found Mr. Booth lying on his face, dead. Death was due to heart disease, from which he was known to be suffering. He had planned taking a vacation in a few days and had been granted a respite from duty by the conference.

The Rev. George M. Booth was one of the best known and most beloved ministers in Eastern Oregon. Three years ago he was assigned to The Dalles district, as presiding elder, since which time he has lived in this district. He made frequent trips out through interior Oregon in the discharge of the duties of his charge, and had many friends in Central Oregon who will miss these pleasant visits. He leaves a brother in this county, Judge W. A. Booth of Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. McTaggart, Mr. Gardner, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Perival spent a few days camping at Opal Springs this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haight, of Trout Creek, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown last Sunday.

Ed Craig and John Trotter left a few days ago for the harvest fields near Pendleton. They each put up a fine crop of hay on their ranches before leaving.

E. Endreud and James Rice, of Hay Creek, were visiting in town on Sunday. Mr. Endreud is secretary of the Baldwin Sheep & Land Company, and Mr. Rice is also connected with the company.

O. P. U'Ren, a stockman from Ridge-way, was in town yesterday on his home from the Cascade Forest Reserve, where he is summering his sheep. Mr. U'Ren says that it is getting very dry in the mountains, and that springs never before known to go dry during the longest summers, are already drying up. This is due to the small amount of snow which fell in the mountains during the past winter, and it may cause considerable inconvenience to the stockmen who use the Reserve for summer pasturage.

A subscription list was circulated here on Saturday for the purpose of raising money enough to have the streets of Madras sprinkled during the next two months. The slightest breeze starts the dust to flying, and the merchants of the town have had a difficult task in keeping their stock of goods clean, and if the street sprinkler will prevent this it will be a cheap luxury at any price. In addition to the benefit to the merchants, the street sprinkler would be a material addition to the comfort of every resident in town. Only a few of the business people in town refused to contribute to the fund, and it is likely that the sprinkling-car will be in operation by the first of August.

Horses For Sale. Four work horses--one mare 5 years, three horses 4 years old. Seven miles southwest of Madras. For particulars call at the Pioneer Office.

NOTICE. All parties indebted to me for water will please come in and settle or close by note. I desire to leave for a vacation by middle of August and want these matters settled up before I go. Respectfully, JOHN A. ISHAM.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler, of Vancouver, Wash., father and mother of "Dewey," were in town yesterday visiting him. They have been taking an outing on upper Deschutes. They went to Bend to see Dewey, who had to return to Madras the day they arrived at Bend, so they returned by this place for a short visit with him before returning to their home.

Rev. G. M. Booth Dead. Rev. G. M. Booth, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church for the Columbia River district, died at his home at The Dalles on Monday, July 11, 1905. His death came very suddenly while he was alone in a room at his home, his family being in other portions of the house. Mr. Booth had been down town during the morning, and feeling ill, had been driven up home in a friend's buggy. A doctor called later, and later in the afternoon his wife left the room for just a moment and when she returned, found Mr. Booth lying on his face, dead. Death was due to heart disease, from which he was known to be suffering. He had planned taking a vacation in a few days and had been granted a respite from duty by the conference.

The Rev. George M. Booth was one of the best known and most beloved ministers in Eastern Oregon. Three years ago he was assigned to The Dalles district, as presiding elder, since which time he has lived in this district. He made frequent trips out through interior Oregon in the discharge of the duties of his charge, and had many friends in Central Oregon who will miss these pleasant visits. He leaves a brother in this county, Judge W. A. Booth of Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. McTaggart, Mr. Gardner, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Perival spent a few days camping at Opal Springs this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haight, of Trout Creek, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown last Sunday.

Ed Craig and John Trotter left a few days ago for the harvest fields near Pendleton. They each put up a fine crop of hay on their ranches before leaving.

E. Endreud and James Rice, of Hay Creek, were visiting in town on Sunday. Mr. Endreud is secretary of the Baldwin Sheep & Land Company, and Mr. Rice is also connected with the company.

The Edward C. Pease Co.
EVERYBODY'S STORE.
SHANIKO, ORE.

Hazelwood Ice Cream
SODA WATER, ICE CREAM SODA; ROOT BEER
HAMMOCKS, CAMP STOOLS, FISHING TACKLE
WALL PAPER, FURNITURE, LINOLEUM

OUTFITTING HEADQUARTERS
FOR
Lewis and Clark Fair Visitors
Call on Us When Passing Through Town. We're at Your Service

A general line of Groceries, a special line of Gents' Furnishing Goods, also a complete line of Stationery, Cigars, Confectionery and Notions can be found at the Grizzly Postoffice Store
W. E. WILLS, Prop.

J. W. BOONE
Dealer in home-made
Harness & Saddles
Try our make of White River Tree Stock Saddle. The best in the market.
PRINEVILLE OREGON

CULVER HOTEL
AND FEED BARN
FERRY REED, Manager.
GOOD MEALS CLEAN BEDS
NEW BUILDINGS
GRAIN AND HAY OF ALL KINDS FOR SALE
PRICES REASONABLE.
CULVER OREGON

McGee's HOTEL
Successor to Hahn's
MRS. E. R. M'GEE, Prop.
Best place to stop in the city. Home-like comforts
GOOD ACCOMMODATIONS FOR TRAVELLING MEN

Red Front Feed Barn
BARBER & D'LASHMUTT, MANAGERS
Good feed and careful treatment given to stock
BEST ACCOMMODATIONS FOR FREIGHTERS
Give Us A Call

MADRAS Lumber Yard
C. E. ROUSH, Manager
All kinds of Rough Lumber; also, a full line of Dressed Lumber and SHINGLES.
Give us your order. It will be promptly attended to.
Yard near Madras Meat Market

L. A. YOUNG.. GENERAL MERCHANDISE
See me for your
Harv'ing Machin'ry
STANDARD BINDING TWINE 15c an lb.
Agricultural Implements

PRINEVILLE'S
...Department Store...
Carries the Largest and Best selected stock of gents' and ladies' ready-made clothing of any store in Crook county. Latest styles, best fit, lowest prices; also a full and complete line of everything needed by the farmer and stockman. Send in a trial order and be convinced.

WURZWEILER & THOMSON
Prineville,.....Oregon

MARBLE AND GRANITE MONUMENTS.
WATTS MARBLE WORKS
WATTS & BAKER, PROPS
Marble and Granite MONUMENTS
Woodmen and lodge work a specialty
Iron and Wire Fencing for Cemeteries and Farms.
We deal direct with quarries in Car Load Lots.
THE DALLES, OREGON

MADRAS MEAT MARKET
C. E. ROUSH, Prop.
Keeps constantly on hand the best
FRESH AND SALT MEATS
And pays the highest market price for Fat Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, Butter, Eggs, and other Farm Produce.
WE CAN SATISFY YOUR WANTS - GIVE US A CALL
Madras, Oregon

HALL'S SAFES
SOLD ONLY BY THE
Norris Safe and Lock Company
Agents for the Pacific Coast. The only firm that can sell a Safe under Hall's Brand. Exclusive sale for the only MANGANESE BANK SAFE. Agents for the OLIVER TYPEWRITERS.
84 Third Street, Portland, Ore.

Z. F. MOODY
GENERAL COMMISSION & FORWARDING MERCHANT
Large and Commodious Warehouse. Consignments Solicited. Prompt attention paid to those who favor us with their patronage.
SHANIKO, OREGON

Shaniko Warehouse Company
GENERAL STORAGE AND FORWARDING
Special attention to Wool Grading and Baling for Eastern shipments. Dealers in Blacksmith Coal, Lime and Builders' Material of all kinds. Sulphur, Wool and Grain Sacks and Twine, Grain, Flour and Feed. Highest price paid for Hides and Pelts. Stock Yards with all the latest and best facilities for handling Stock.
Mark Goods Care of
"S. W. Co."
T. G. CONDON, Manager.

JOB PRINTING
IS OUR BUSINESS
NEAT AND ARTISTIC PRICES ARE RIGHT
THE PIONEER JOB OFFICE

Persons who desire changes in their names are requested to hand in their applications by Monday morning.

Lampson, of Culver, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. Ralph Brown were in town on their ranch last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haight, of Trout Creek, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown last Sunday.

Ed Craig and John Trotter left a few days ago for the harvest fields near Pendleton. They each put up a fine crop of hay on their ranches before leaving.

E. Endreud and James Rice, of Hay Creek, were visiting in town on Sunday. Mr. Endreud is secretary of the Baldwin Sheep & Land Company, and Mr. Rice is also connected with the company.

O. P. U'Ren, a stockman from Ridge-way, was in town yesterday on his home from the Cascade Forest Reserve, where he is summering his sheep. Mr. U'Ren says that it is getting very dry in the mountains, and that springs never before known to go dry during the longest summers, are already drying up. This is due to the small amount of snow which fell in the mountains during the past winter, and it may cause considerable inconvenience to the stockmen who use the Reserve for summer pasturage.

A subscription list was circulated here on Saturday for the purpose of raising money enough to have the streets of Madras sprinkled during the next two months. The slightest breeze starts the dust to flying, and the merchants of the town have had a difficult task in keeping their stock of goods clean, and if the street sprinkler will prevent this it will be a cheap luxury at any price. In addition to the benefit to the merchants, the street sprinkler would be a material addition to the comfort of every resident in town. Only a few of the business people in town refused to contribute to the fund, and it is likely that the sprinkling-car will be in operation by the first of August.

Horses For Sale. Four work horses--one mare 5 years, three horses 4 years old. Seven miles southwest of Madras. For particulars call at the Pioneer Office.

NOTICE. All parties indebted to me for water will please come in and settle or close by note. I desire to leave for a vacation by middle of August and want these matters settled up before I go. Respectfully, JOHN A. ISHAM.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler, of Vancouver, Wash., father and mother of "Dewey," were in town yesterday visiting him. They have been taking an outing on upper Deschutes. They went to Bend to see Dewey, who had to return to Madras the day they arrived at Bend, so they returned by this place for a short visit with him before returning to their home.

Rev. G. M. Booth Dead. Rev. G. M. Booth, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church for the Columbia River district, died at his home at The Dalles on Monday, July 11, 1905. His death came very suddenly while he was alone in a room at his home, his family being in other portions of the house. Mr. Booth had been down town during the morning, and feeling ill, had been driven up home in a friend's buggy. A doctor called later, and later in the afternoon his wife left the room for just a moment and when she returned, found Mr. Booth lying on his face, dead. Death was due to heart disease, from which he was known to be suffering. He had planned taking a vacation in a few days and had been granted a respite from duty by the conference.

The Rev. George M. Booth was one of the best known and most beloved ministers in Eastern Oregon. Three years ago he was assigned to The Dalles district, as presiding elder, since which time he has lived in this district. He made frequent trips out through interior Oregon in the discharge of the duties of his charge, and had many friends in Central Oregon who will miss these pleasant visits. He leaves a brother in this county, Judge W. A. Booth of Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. McTaggart, Mr. Gardner, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Perival spent a few days camping at Opal Springs this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haight, of Trout Creek, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown last Sunday.

Ed Craig and John Trotter left a few days ago for the harvest fields near Pendleton. They each put up a fine crop of hay on their ranches before leaving.

E. Endreud and James Rice, of Hay Creek, were visiting in town on Sunday. Mr. Endreud is secretary of the Baldwin Sheep & Land Company, and Mr. Rice is also connected with the company.

O. P. U'Ren, a stockman from Ridge-way, was in town yesterday on his home from the Cascade Forest Reserve, where he is summering his sheep. Mr. U'Ren says that it is getting very dry in the mountains, and that springs never before known to go dry during the longest summers, are already drying up. This is due to the small amount of snow which fell in the mountains during the past winter, and it may cause considerable inconvenience to the stockmen who use the Reserve for summer pasturage.

A subscription list was circulated here on Saturday for the purpose of raising money enough to have the streets of Madras sprinkled during the next two months. The slightest breeze starts the dust to flying, and the merchants of the town have had a difficult task in keeping their stock of goods clean, and if the street sprinkler will prevent this it will be a cheap luxury at any price. In addition to the benefit to the merchants, the street sprinkler would be a material addition to the comfort of every resident in town. Only a few of the business people in town refused to contribute to the fund, and it is likely that the sprinkling-car will be in operation by the first of August.

Horses For Sale. Four work horses--one mare 5 years, three horses 4 years old. Seven miles southwest of Madras. For particulars call at the Pioneer Office.

NOTICE. All parties indebted to me for water will please come in and settle or close by note. I desire to leave for a vacation by middle of August and want these matters settled up before I go. Respectfully, JOHN A. ISHAM.