U. S. Cowles went to Prineville on Saturday on matters connected with the appointment of an administrator for the estate of the late Charles Derham.

The Rev. E. J. Traglio and wife and Mrs. Theodore Reiger drove to Portland last week to visit the fair. Mr. Traglio will also attend the German M. E. conference

Perry Reed and his daughter, Mrs. Frank Osborne, who have been enjoying a visit at at the Lewis & Clark Fair in Portland, returned home the first of the week.

The Rev. Walton Skipworth, who has been stationed at The Dalles for several years past, was appointed presiding elder of The Dalles district of the M. E. church, at the Columbia River conference held at Moscow, Idaho, last week.

Anton Batalgia lost one of his horses last week, the animal having been killed by running into a wire fence. During the night some of the dogs of the neighborhood ran the horse into a wire gate which was stretched across the road. The gate was stretched very tighly and when the horse struck it he was thrown back with such violence that his head was crushed upon the rocks near the gate.

H. C. MacAllister of Portland was in Madras on Wednesday.

A happy time was had at the ice cream social Saturday evening given by the Sunday school. The children gave a number of pretty selection for the program.

The threshing machine outfit which was sold last week by Huffman & Rodman to a party of Culver people, was burned last Friday, after being in possession of the new company only three days. The separator was injured inside and the large belt destroyed. It is reported that the men will not start the machine again this fall.

Lee and Curtis Goodwin were arrested at Haystack on a warrant charging them with horse stealing. They were given a preliminary hearing before Justice O. G. Collver at Culver and bound over to the grand jury under $500 bonds each. Failing to give bond, they were lodged in the county jail at Prineville. Their cases will come up at the October term of Circuit court.

The Rev. J. K. Craig, the Methodist minister who has been stationed at Antelope for the past two years, was in town last Friday. Mr. Craig has been transferred to Madras and was here making arrangements to move his family over at once. Preparations are about completed for the erection of a parsonage, but for the present Mr. Craig and his family will reside in rooms in the Malloy building.
