

WHAT HAPPENINGS AT MADRAS

Chronicle of Improvements--The Moving Throng--Business and Social Events--Items Condensed.

James Magness has rented the Ira Isham house, and is making a number of improvements in it. As soon as they are completed he and Mrs. Magness will be at home to their friends.

J. C. Sothman, who spent a portion of the summer and fall in Minnesota, arrived home Monday. He was at his former home and reports a successful trip in connection with his business. Crops were fairly good in Minnesota this season.

Mrs. E. H. Dean and her daughter, Miss Pearl, were in town on Tuesday from their home near Hay Creek. The friends of Mr. E. H. Dean will be glad to know that he has sufficiently recovered to be able to make a trip over to Hay Creek.

Max Laedeman is local agent for Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society, one of the oldest and strongest of the old-line companies. If you desire insurance on your property, he will be glad to place it for you in this company.

James Kaas, who spent a portion of the summer and fall in North Dakota, arrived home Tuesday. He had a fine trip and reports times good in N. D., but the cold weather there caused his thoughts to return to Oregon, where the lovely autumn weather continues until after Christmas time.

W. W. Brown, of Heisler, was in town last Friday. Mr. Brown is one of the most prominent stockmen in the northern part of Crook county, being a member of the firm of Lyle & Brown, of which the senior member, Mr. Lyle, recently died. This firm is the largest owner of cattle in this section of the county.

H. H. Cook, who lives about four miles south of town, brought us two samples of winter radishes last Saturday, raised on his place without irrigation, which are immense. One of them is 6 inches in diameter and 12 inches long and the other 7 1/2 inches in diameter and 9 inches in length. This speaks well for a country where the growing season was as dry as this one was this year.

The literary society held a meeting last Saturday evening and completed reorganization. Henry Conroy was elected recording secretary and Glenn Loucks was selected as editor of the society paper. Several additions were made to the membership. What promises to be an interesting programme is being prepared for the next meeting, which will be held on Saturday evening, Nov. 18. Everybody is invited to attend the meetings.

The Wilkinson family, composed of Ira Wilkinson and wife and two daughters, Misses Bessie and Niva, just from Minneapolis, Minnesota, arrived in Madras Wednesday enroute to Bend. They were met at Shaniko by their son, Ray Wilkinson, who has been a resident of the Bend country for about a year. Mr. Wilkinson has several dozen chickens with him, thoroughbred Buff, White and Barred Plymouth Rocks and Light Brahmas, and will make a specialty of the poultry business at Bend.

Everything Must Go Quick

Monster Closing-Out Sale of Exposition, Slightly Used, Rented and Sample Styles of Pianos, Pianola Pianos, Pianolas, Etc., at Enormous Reductions at Eilers Piano House.

Just received word that our Christmas stock of beautiful new Chickering, Webers, Kimballs, Pianola Pianos, Pianolas, etc. will arrive in a few days. A little earlier than we expected, but we must make room quick. We must have all the floor space in our salesrooms now occupied by Exposition, slightly used, rented and sample styles of Pianos, Pianola Pianos, Pianolas, etc.

Many instruments were rented to hotels and rooming-houses for the term of the Exposition. All have been thoroughly gone over in our repair shop, and now are in our retail department, good as new.

Traveling in New Auto.

A party composed of members of the Deschutes Irrigation & Power Company were in town last Saturday on their way to Redmond, the new headquarters of the company. They were making the trip in the new automobile recently purchased by the Central Oregon Transportation Company, and which was manufactured by the Oldsmobile Company especially for use over the roads of this section of the country. It is a light wagonette, and much lighter than the large machine manufactured for them in Portland, yet capable of carrying about nine passengers. In the party were H. D. Turney, president of the company; Fred S. Stanley, secretary; J. O. Johnston, general manager, and E. C. Baldwin, a large stockholder in the company. They left Shaniko in the morning and expected to reach Redmond, a distance of 80 miles, in the afternoon.

County Teachers' Meeting.
 The teachers of Crook county will hold an institute at Madras the last Saturday in this month, the work being in charge of County Superintendent Dinwiddie. An instructive and entertaining programme will be given. It is expected a large number of teachers will be present, and it is hoped to make this a notable event in the educational history of the county. The ladies of this city and vicinity have started the movement for a basket-dinner, and every one is invited to co-operate to make this occasion a success socially, as well as instructive to those present.

Purchased by Les. N. Kelsay

The Shaniko Bee, published at Shaniko, has been purchased by Les N. Kelsay, who was formerly connected with the Central Oregonian at Silver Lake. This is the first paper published at Shaniko since the Leader was published there by W. Holder and S. D. Percival, about three years ago. The new paper seems to have a liberal advertising patronage, and Mr. Kelsay appears to be making a success of his new venture.

Epworth League at Methodist Hill

The young people of the German M. E. church met Sunday evening, at 7:00 p. m. for the purpose of organizing an Epworth League at Methodist Hill. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Jno A. Hoffman president; Giliam Reichen, vice-president; Jacob Moehring, secretary; Marie Moehring, organist; Emil Zemke, treasurer. Thirty young people joined as charter members.
