

RHEUMATISM CAN NOT BE RUBBED AWAY

When the joints are sore and swollen, and the muscles throbbing with the pain of Rheumatism, relief must be had at once, and it is natural to rub the sore parts with liniments, oils, etc. This treatment does good in a way, temporarily relieving the pain and reducing the inflammation, but has no effect on the disease itself, because Rheumatism is more than skin deep; it is in the blood and cannot be rubbed away. Rheumatism is brought on by impure blood, weak kidneys, poor bowel action, stomach troubles and a general sluggish condition of the system. The refuse and waste matters, which are carried off through the natural avenues of bodily waste, are not removed and form uric acid and other irritating poisons which are absorbed by the blood, making it thin, weak and acid. Then instead of nourishing the different nerves, muscles, joints and tissues it fills them with poison to produce the aches, pains and other disagreeable symptoms of the disease. Rheumatism is usually worse in Winter for the reason that cold and dampness are the causes. The nerves become irritated and sting with pain, the muscles are sore and drawn, the joints are stiff and the sufferer is in intense agony; and if the disease is not checked it often leaves helpless cripples for life. Rheumatism cannot be rubbed away. It can be driven from the blood by S. S. S. Being a perfect blood purifier this great remedy soon produces a complete change in the circulation; the thin, acid blood is made pure and rich, and as it goes through the irritated nerves, eases the throbbing muscles, and dissolves and carries out of the system the irritating particles in the joints which are keeping up the pain and inflammation. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism permanently, and in addition tones up the digestion and stimulates the different members of the body to their full duty so there is no cause for another attack. Do not waste time trying to rub Rheumatism away, but get out of the blood with S. S. S. so that the cold and dampness of Winter will not keep you in continual pain and agony. Special book on Rheumatism and any medical advice will be given free.

The Wasteful Captain.
The captain was a fair passenger in search of information and the captain was, finally, only too willing to gratify him. He had explained that the action of the propeller forced the ship to splash the water and added, as a matter of information: "We made twenty knots an hour last night." "You really?" said the sweet girl. "And whatever did you do with it?" "The captain went red and his eyes twinkled." "I threw them overboard," he said. "Why?" she said.—Tit-Bits.

He sold the Crispum Roger Sash. He had been sold at an auction in New York for $4,500. This is believed to be a record price.

Widow and Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. The best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

An Intricate Problem.
"Brown—That conductor in the car?" "Brown—How?" "Brown—Wanted me to pay for Tommy." "Brown—Well, Tommy is quite a lad. He looks—"

Mr. Brown—And you, too? Do you mean to insinuate that I look old enough to have a child old enough to pay for car fare?—Cleveland Star.

A New Way.—Mr. Corrigan: How much d'yez charge for pullin' teeth? Dentist: With gas, one dollar. Mr. Corrigan: An' how much wid electric loight?

Appetite Decides.—Teacher: Can you tell me the difference between "like" and "love"? Small Boy: Yes, ma'am. I like my father and mother, but I love pie.

The Ruling Passion.—"Yes, I quarreled with my wife about nothing." "Why didn't you make up?" "I'm going to. All I'm worried about now is the indemnity."

Queer Charge!—"You are charged," said the policeman, "with having voted twice." "Charged, am I?" muttered the prisoner. "That's odd. I expected to be paid for it."

Seeing the Metropolis.—Stephen Ruralborn: Father, that tall structure is the famous "flat-iron" building. Hiram Ruralborn: Well, well! that's where they make the flat-irons for the hull world.

He Proved It.—Lady (in party viewing stone quarry): And which is the foreman? Casey (proudly)—O! am. Lady—Really? Casey—O! kin prove it. (Calls to laborer). "Kelly, Kelly! yer foiled!"

Pretty Lucky.—Friend of the Family: You are very lucky, my boy, to be the seventh son. It will bring you everlasting fortune. Son No. 7: It hasn't so far. All it's brought yet is the old clothes of my six brothers.

"Do you think that the automobile will displace the horse?" asked the conversational young woman. "It will," answered the nervous young man as he gazed down the road. "If it ever hits him!"—Washington Star.

Parson Coopath.—De choir will now sing that beautiful hymn, "We hain't Got Long to Stay Here," arter singin' which day will consider demselves discharged and file out quietly. We will have only congregational singin' hereafter."—Puck.

A Rehearsal.—"Elsie!" exclaimed the girl's mother, "why are you shouting in that horrible fashion? Why can't you be quiet, like Willie?" "He's got to be quiet, the way we're playin'," replied Elsie. "He's papa coming home late, and I'm you."

Visitor.—Digging potatoes, eh? Farmer's Boy—Yep. Visitor—What do you get for digging potatoes? Farmer's Boy—Nawthin'. But I git somethin' fer not diggin' 'em. Visitor—Indeed? What would you get for not digging them? Farmer's Boy—Licked.—Judge.

Careful.—Phillip had gone to bring in the new kittens to show them to a visitor. His mother, hearing a shrill mewling, called out, "Don't hurt the kittens, Phillip!" From the hall came the reassuring answer, "Oh, no. I'm carrying them very carefully by the stems."

Absent-minded.—"Talk about absent-mindedness! Jenkins is the most absent-minded man I know." "What's he done now?" "Why, he wrote the combination of the safe on a piece of paper to keep from forgetting it, and then locked the paper in the safe to keep from losing it."

Contrary Counsel.—The church was packed, even the aisles lined with chairs. Just before the benediction the thoughtful clergyman, who loved order, thus admonished his hearers: "In passing out, please remain seated until the ushers have removed the chairs from the aisles."

Fully Explained.—Teasing Friend: "What makes that new baby at your home cry so much, Tommy? Tommy (indignantly)—It don't cry so very much; and anyway, if all your teeth were out, and your hair off, and your legs so weak you couldn't stand on them, I guess you'd feel like crying yourself."

"I wish to adopt a child," said the wealthy woman in the orphan asylum, "what have you?" "Oh, we have them in all shades," replied the polite lady superintendent, "which do you prefer?" "I think a blonde child will be most appropriate," answered the wealthy woman, "my auto is finished in blue."—Puck.

Clear as Mud.—"I was going over Westminster bridge the other day, and I met Patsy Hewins. 'Hewins,' says I, 'how are ye?' 'Purty well, thank ye, Donnelly,' says he. 'Donnelly?' says I; 'that's not my name.' 'Sure an' mine isn't Hewins,' says he. An' so we looked at each other again, an' it turned out to be neither of us."

A Trifle Unconventional.—An eccentric farmer was married the other night. "Do you," said the preacher, "take this woman to be your wedded wife, to love and to cherish in sickness and health, for better, for worse, for rich or poor, until death do you part?" There was an awkward pause. Then the bridegroom finally replied, "Them's the calculations."

Punctuation.—A high school girl said to her father the other night: "I've got a sentence here I'd like you to punctuate. You know something about punctuation, don't you?" "A little," said her cautious parent. This is what he read: "A five dollar bill flew around the corner." He studied it carefully. "Well," he finally said, "I simply put a period after it, like this, 'I wouldn't,'" said the high school girl; "I'd make a dash after it!"

For Coughs and Colds

There is a remedy over sixty years old—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Of course you have heard of it, probably have used it. Once in the family, it stays; the one household remedy for coughs and hard colds on the chest. Ask your doctor about it.

"I have had pneumonia three times, and Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has brought me safely through each time. I have just recovered from my last attack, aged sixty-seven. No wonder I praise it."—E. V. Higgins, Stevens Point, Wis.

Danger in Hair Dye.
Knott Yette—You mean to say that the use of hair dye is dangerous?
Ben Thayer—I do. Let me tell you something. A dear friend of mine, a happy bachelor, found his hair was turning gray at 30. Well, he had it dyed a deep black. Four weeks later he was married.—Tales.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.
Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

A Judicial Verdict.
Judge—You are accused of having beaten this person cruelly.
The Accused—Well, I had to beat him to make him do his work. He is an idiot.
Judge (severely)—You should remember that an idiot is a man like you or me.—Translated for Tales from Les Annales.

Found at Last.
Trotter (who has been abroad)—Miss Gusherly used to be looking for her ideal. Did she ever find him?
Miss Homer—Yes; but she lost him again.
Trotter—Indeed! How did that happen?
Miss Homer—She was married to him.

Eels in Scotland.
Although eels abound in Scotch waters and are caught in great quantities, they are not considered fit food there. No matter how plentiful and how very fine and large they may be in any district of Scotland, no native will eat one. The objection to the eel is said to be based on its serpentine appearance and the fact that it is not overfastidious as to what it feeds on.

Wealthier than any brother sovereign; master of legions, which number over a million; lord of more than one-sixth of the surface of the globe, with subjects of many colors and races, amounting to over one hundred and twenty million souls, the czar of all the Russias will not be invincible until he adopts Pillsbury's Vitos as his regular breakfast diet.

A Discouraged Chauffeur.
"So you are the applicant for the position as chauffeur?" asked the gentleman, looking up from his desk.
"Yes, sir," replied the man who had just entered the room.
"Are you a union man?"
"Yes, sir."
"Well, after you have worked on a machine for eight hours and the thing won't go, what do you do?"
"Oh, well, sir, if you've got one of that kind of machines, I don't want the job!"—Yonkers Statesman.

THERE IS NO SLICKER LIKE TOWER'S FISH BRAND

WHAT JOY THEY BRING TO EVERY HOME

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.
