Atlas Engines Many prospective purchasers of engines and boilers are under the impression that because the Atlas Throttling Engine is of such high grade, and because it is fitted with a balance value and and because it is fitted with a balance valve and a main bearing, such as only Corliss engines of other makes contain, it is necessarily of such price that it is quite out of their reach. This is not true. An Atlas engine is no higher in price than any other engine, except, perhaps, one that is made entirely in a foundry. The rour information, therefore, we give for the present an approximate price upon a 12x16 Throttling Atlas Engine, range 43 to 60 Horse Forwer of 3350.00

This includes engine complete with band wheel, governor, throttle valve, and all regular trim-mings and represents the price delivered f. o. b. care factory, or, if in stock at our Agencies at any of the following points.

THE MOTE AND THE BEAM.

Miss Brett Has Stopped Talking of the Neglect of Others.

It was Sunday noon, and Miss Brett had just come out of church. She was unhappy. On other days her work kept her busy, but on Sunday, even though she went to church twice, there were many hours left in which to remember that she had no home but a boarding-house "fourth back." Eevn at church it was not much better, for she sat and envied the happy people who came from homes "And not one of them all remembers the hundreds of lonely women in boarding houses," she thought, week after week. There was no question about it ;

Miss Brett was growing better. She hurried past the groups of churchgoers to her boarding-house. She was in the mood when the long climb up the dark stairway offered the satisfaction of a tangible grievance. Once she caught a glimpse of a woman standing wearly by her window, looking down into the row of city back yards, and once the door of a hall bedroom was pushed to at the sound of her footsteps; the pressure of other lonely lives added to the burden of her discontent.

Then suddenly something happened. "What are you doing about it yourself?"

The question came to her so clearly that for a bewildered moment she thought some one had spoken. Then she pushed her door to and dropped into the nearest chair.

"Well!" she ejaculated. Miss Brett might be bitter, but no one had ever might be bitter, but no one had ever said that she was not honest. Alone and unflinchingly she faced the accusa-a man."-Cleveland Leader. tion. When, two hours later, she rose and took off her bonnet-she had entirely forgotten her dinner-the matter was clear.

"I'm a nice one to talk of others' duties when there's that poor thing in the hall bedroom next door who must think my room a palace. I can't say I like her looks, but probably she grumble I'll do it honestly, at any ate."

There was a jar of milk on the winow-sill and some crackers in the box hat served her for pantry; also a box honey which some impulse had made er buy a week before. She arranged "For instance," mused Dr. Osler, using property of the second property of the second preserve of the second preser nocked at her next neighbor's door.

"I wonder if you'd come and have upper with me?" she said. "There's othing but crackers and milk and oney-what we used to have at home hen I was a child-but somehow-I anted company." The woman next door looked at her;

her voice trembled.

"Do you know that you were sent to me?" she asked. That was the beginning. Slowly others came-a girl with desperate eyes, a tired school teacher, a crippled flower-maker. They invited each other to Sunday tea, and had long talks after that made the day a joy both in anticipation and memory. Curiously enough,

"I have used your Fish Brand Slickers for years in the Hawailan Islands and found them the only article that suited. I am now in this country (Africa) and think a great deal of your coats."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pro-nounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. BODY RACKED WITH PAIN

No other bodily suffering is equal to that produced by the pain of Rhede matism. When the poisons and acids, which cause this disease, become in-trenched in the blood there is hardly any part of the body that is not af-fected. The muscles become sore and drawn, the nerves twitch and sting, the joints inflame and swell, the bones ache, every movement is one of agony, and the entire body is racked with pain. Rheumatism is brought on by indigestion, stomach troubles, torpid Liver, weak Kidneys and a general inactive state of the system. The refuse matter instead of passing off through nature's avenues is left to sour and form uric acid, and other acrid poisons which are absorbed into the blood. Rheumatism does not affect all alike. In some cases it takes a wandering form; it may be in the arms or legs one day and in the shoulders, feet, hands, back or other parts of the body the next. Others suffer more seriously, and are never free from pain. The uric acid and other irritating substances find lodgement in the muscles and joints and as these deposits increase the muscles become stiff and the joints locked and immovable. It matters not in what form the disease may be the cause is always the same-a sour, acid condition of the blood. This vital stream has lost its purity and freshness, and instead of nourishing and feeding the different parts with health-giving properties, it fills them with the acids and salts of this painful and far-reaching disease. The cold and dampness of Winter always intensify the pains of Rheumatism, and the sufferer to get relief from the agony, rubs the affected parts with liniments. oils, lotions, etc., or uses plasters and other home remedies. These are desirable because they give temporary ease and comfort but have no effect on the real trouble which is in the blood and beyond the reach of such treatment. S. S. S. is the best rem-

other part of the system, soothes the ation, dissolves the deposits in the joints, relieves all pain and completely cures this distressing disease. S. S. S. is a certain cure for Rheumatism in any form ; Muscular, Inflammatory, Articular or Sciatic. Special book on the disease and any medical advice, without charge, to all who write. Personally Ventilated.

There was nothing else in the world which Norah Leahy, competent scrubwoman, feared as much as a thunderstorm. Her accounts of experiences during the summer were always sure to contain a few thrilling incidents connected with heavy showers.

"The wurrst time iver I had was in the Hirrald buildin' wan Saturday in the summer o' ninety-foor," Mrs. Leahy is certain to tell a new listener. "In the middle o' the afthernoon, whin they'd all gone from the upper floor, an' I was there wid me mop, there came up the fearfullest storm that iver I BRW.

"Whin it burrst, I ran to a coatcloset an' sht meslif in, an' I says to mesilf, 'Whin the thunder dies down, I'll step out, and not befoor.' An' if yo'll belave me, I was two full hours shut in that closet, wid no ventilation but me own breath."

Lifts a Boy with His Eyelids. Recently an Indian fakir appeared at a circus in Berlin, where he astonished the audience by lifting a boy with his eyelids. The boy made himself as small as possible, and was put into a net, to which was secured a string that was provided on each end with a little cup just large enough to fit over the eye. The fakir pressed these little cups over his eyes, where they held fast, then threw his head back and slowly straightened his body, thus lifting his burden, which he then carried abouthis arms being outstretched all the time -and finally lowered it slowly to the ground again. How is it posible for any man to do this? The only explanation is that the cups were fitted into the eye sockets so that they held on the edge of the sockets, but it is not likely that the trick will be imitated by even those prestidigitators who consider themselves very expert.

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play-when in health -and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company-California Fig Syrup Co. - plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.
