

Pure Blood

Be certain if you take Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine cures those eruptions, pimples and boils that appear at all seasons; cures scrofula sores, salt rheum or eczema; keeps itself equally well to, and also cures, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles; cures rheumatism and catarrh; cures nervous troubles, debility and that tired feeling.

This is proved by thousands of testimonials, 40,366 by actual count in the last two years—a record unprecedented in the history of medicine.

Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla. Liquid or tablets, 100 Doses One Dollar.

Mrs. Helen L. Thompson of Lewiston, Me., reports great benefit to her little girl from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which thoroughly purified her blood after an attack of that blood-poisoning disease, scarlet fever. It gave her strength and renewed health. Thousands of others tell of similar cures, also cures of scrofula, salt rheum, eczema, etc.

An Indefinite Term.
"What do you understand by a 'so-called' member?"
"It used to mean a person who tried to break into society."
"And to mean?"
"Yes. Now it may mean a porcher in search of society news."

Retribution.
"I have come, madam, to take your water out."
"I am glad to hear it, for it's done since it's been here but take it out."

Every town in Mexico has a public bath house. And still the Mexicans are the cleanest people in the world.

The Supreme Court.
Ascum—I think it's a splendid opportunity for you. What are you going to do about it?
Henpeck—I haven't the slightest idea.

Ascum—But surely you can give an opinion.
Henpeck—O, gracious! No, my wife always hands down the opinion.—Philadelphia Press.

CATARRH ANNOYING-DANGEROUS

Catarrh is usually regarded as nothing more serious than a bad cold or slight inflammation of the inner skin and tissues of the head and throat, but it is, in fact, not only a vexatious and troublesome disease, but a common and dangerous one. It is true that Catarrh usually begins with a cold in the head, but when the poisons, which are thrown off through the nostrils, find their way into the blood, it becomes a constitutional trouble and affects all parts of the body. It has more annoying and disgusting symptoms than any other disease. There is a sickening and offensive discharge from the nostrils, a constant buzzing noise in the ears, headaches and pains in the eyes are frequent, while filthy, tenacious matter drops back into the nostrils, requiring continual hawking and spitting, and in certain stages of the disease the breath has an odor that is very offensive. Catarrh is worse in winter, because the cold weather closes the pores and glands, and the poisonous and unhealthy vapors which should pass off that way are thrown back into the tender linings and tissues, causing the inflammation which starts the disease.

Several years ago my blood was bad and I had in addition a dreadful case of Catarrh. My nose was stopped up, I had headaches, ringing noises in my ears and felt unfit for work. I commenced the use of S. S. S. on the recommendation of a friend, and in a short time it cured me sound and well. I put my blood in good condition and I have never had the slightest return of the Catarrh since that time.

Head and other members of the body, while the general health is weakened, appetite lost and the patient feels despondent and half sick all the time. At worst of all, if the trouble is not checked the lungs become diseased from the constant passage of poisoned blood through them, and Catarrh terminates in Consumption, the most fatal of all diseases. You cannot get rid of Catarrh by treating it with sprays, washes, inhalations, etc., because they only reach the membranes and tissues, while the real cause of the trouble is in the blood. These relieve the annoying symptoms for a time, but the poison is still there, and when it gets a stronger hold on the system and when they are left to manifest itself in worse form than before. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and when it has cleansed the blood, this pure, rich stream circulates through the body, carrying healthful properties to the diseased parts. Then the inflamed membranes and tissues begin to heal, the discharges cease, the general condition of the system is strengthened, every one of the annoying and disgusting symptoms pass away, and the patient is left in perfect health. S. S. S. is the best remedy for Catarrh. It goes right into the blood and removes all effects matter and catarrhal poison and cures the disease permanently, and at the same time builds up the entire system by its tonic effect. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy—non-injurious to the system and a certain, reliable cure for Catarrh. Catarrh sufferers will find our consulting department helpful in advising local treatment to be used with S. S. S.

How to Fool a Lazy Liver with Artificial Exercise

VERY serious Sickness has a small beginning. And, in nine cases out of ten that small beginning is made in the Bowels.

Indigestion is the beginning of most diseases.

It paves the way for all others.

Lack of exercise, hasty eating, improper food, are its first causes.

Laziness, and postponement, permits it to grow into Chronic Constipation, which means life-long Discomfort.

It is not necessary to be sick-a-bed, you know, in order to be mighty uncomfortable.

Even slight indigestion affects the nerves, dulls the mind, and obscures the very sunshine of life.

And, indigestion once started, grows and corrodes temperament, and discounts happiness, good cheer, capacity.

It does that long before it puts you on the Sick list.

Every thinking Doctor knows why.

Professor Rand knew it.

That's why he framed up for students the famous formula for Happiness, viz.: Trust in God, and keep your Bowels open.

The Bowels need adjustment from time to time, just like a clock, or a watch.

"Good time" is humanly possible.

And, the time to adjust the watch is when it has run down, or when the spring is broken, but at the very first adjustment is discovered necessary.

The time to adjust the Bowels is not when your Head Aches, when your Stomach is Revolting, and when your Food Process retarded for 24 hours or longer.

The proper time to adjust them is the very minute you suspect they need adjustment.

LASHES OF FUN

Bat—The trouble with you is you're always up in the air. Ball—Ah! you can't stop knocking, can you?—Judge.

Knicker—Is Newrich happy? Bocker—No; by the time fortune's cup came to him his wife wouldn't let him drink out of the saucer.—Brooklyn Life.

"He's a bad scholar, isn't he?" "In-corrigeable! He would rather go roaming round in the woods picking flowers than study botany."—Brooklyn Life.

The Arizona Terror—I haint got an enemy in the world. The Tenderfoot—Is it possible? The Arizona Terror—Yes; I've killed 'em all.—Philadelphia Record.

"So many prominent men are reported to be ill. What do you suppose is the matter with them?" Probably suffering from exposure.—Baltimore American.

"I understood Skinner has lost all his money." "Yes, by his speculations." "But how did he get his money in the first place?" "By his speculations."—Philadelphia Press.

Councilman—I've come to see, sir, if you will subscribe anything to the town cemetery. Old Resident—Good gracious! I've already subscribed three wives.—Life.

Jones—Got a match, Smith? Smith (Inaudibly)—Yes, but I have no cigar. Jones—Then you won't need the match, will you? Let's have it.—Cleveland Leader.

"No man is guilty until he is convicted. You must always remember that." "Yes, but this fellow is a member of the United States Senate."—Chicago Record-Herald.

"What do newspaper poets do when they haven't anything clever to write about and become commonplace and dull?" "Sell all their dull stuff to the magazines."—Cleveland Leader.

Visiting Reporter—There's nothing like the spit-ball to kill a pitcher's arm. Transcript Reporter—Beg pardon, but here in Boston we speak of it as the Salva Sphere.—Puck.

"She told him she simply could not make up her mind to be the wife of a poor man." "He isn't a poor man, though." "No; but she soon would be if she married him."—Brooklyn Life.

"Why don't you make some ringing speeches against the trusts?" Nothing to gain," answered Senator Sorghum; "the public wouldn't believe I meant 'em and the trusts might."—Exchange.

"Try to forget me," she said, with a look of pity. "How can I?" he miserably answered, "as long as I have to make monthly payments on the things I have presented to you?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

Mrs. Panecak (to a fourth-floor lodger)—Anything the matter with your steak, Mr. Hardup? Hardup—A trifle overtrained, maybe, madam; but, really, I never saw a firmer muscle!—London Tit-Bits.

Missionary—My friend, do you ever think about your future state? Oklahoma Ike—Say, pard, don't you read the papers? We ain't been thinkin' of anything else for th' last five years.—Cleveland Leader.

Pat—Th' rich are gettin' richer. Mike—Yis; but they give more to th' poor than Iver before. Pat—Thru! A judge will give a poor man six months now where he used to only give him tin days.—Judge.

Knicker—I see the government is investigating the cotton scandal. Mrs. Knicker—It's high time. My lovely bargains that I bought for all wool is half cotton. You needn't laugh; it's so.—New York Sun.

She—Well, supposing she did throw you over because you lost your money—there are as good flat in the sea as ever came out of it. He—I know, but that's poor consolation for a fellow who has lost his bait.—New York Mall.

Bleeker—The chap across the hall has a phonograph, hasn't he? Baxter—No, he's a dentist, and is filling Mrs. Gabbitt's teeth. She is trying to talk with two rubber bands, a napkin, a mirror, and a drill in her mouth, that's all!—Puck.

"She's really not cultured. She says she can't understand Browning at all." "But one may be cultured and yet not understand Browning." "Of course, one may not understand it, but one should never admit it."—Philadelphia Ledger.

"Is Mr. Scadda a man of scientific distinction?" "Yes, indeed," answered Miss Cayenne; "he has so many college degrees that when he sends in his card you can't be sure whether it is his name or a problem in algebra."—Philadelphia Press.

Rownds—Of course, it was business that detained me last night. Mrs. Rownds—Yes? Rownds—Yes. You know I wouldn't deceive you. Mrs. Rownds—No, George, you wouldn't deceive me, no matter what you said.—Philadelphia Ledger.

"Is Tim Stimpers still paying attention to Mandy Tompkins?" asked the man who had been away from home for some time. "No," answered Farmer Corntossel; "they don't either of 'em pay any 'tention to the other. They're married."—Washington Star.

Miss Ascum—Do you really think it's possible to find out who your husband will be by consulting a fortune-teller? Miss Malinchanz—I don't know, but I recently found out who my husband wouldn't be by consulting one. Miss Ascum—Really? Who was the fortune-teller? Miss Malinchanz—Bradstreet.—Philadelphia Press.

Sound Familiar.
"If the sentiments contained in our popular songs were more loftily and poetically expressed, they would lose nothing of their effect." Take this home and try it on your piano.)

Toil; wearing toil, is the unhappy lot Of all our humble family save one— The hoary-headed man who calls me son,
My honored sire, he only labors not.
From dawn to dusk, in his accustomed spot,
Where glows the log the ruddy hearth upon,
Rest he, in silence ever, moved of none,
And burns tobacco noisomely, God wot!

Nevertheless the others idle not at all,
For o'er a steaming caldron, lo! there bends
The form of mother, molling all the day;
And sister, too—sweet Ann, so fair and tall—
To the same task her young assistance lends,
While only pater whiles his time away!

"I have come, sir," said the young man, as he entered the library, "to ask you to give me your daughter's hand."
"Why?" rejoined the surprised parent, "when I came through the hall about an hour ago it was in your possession."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J.
