Dave Barnett was in town yesterday from his home near Culver.

John B. Brown was in town Tuesday from the Haystack neighborhood.

C. L. Gist and Dr. M. V. B. Turley of near Sisters were in town this morning.

Miss Marie Galloway left on Sunday for Haystack, where she is teaching school.

Go to the Grizzly L. Lumber Yard for your doors and windows at prices that make you smile.

Fred Strasser was in Portland the past two weeks, having been called as a witness before the federal grand jury.

You have only to stop at Hotel Poin-dexter to be convinced that it is the most popular hostelry in Prineville. Courteous treatment, good accommo-dations, and popular prices.

Ben Church left Sunday for Seattle, at which place he expects to join a party of friends who are going up to the mines in British Columbia. Ben expects to be gone several months.

Sherman J. Harrop returned on last Thursday from a two months' visit in the northwestern portion of Washington. He expects to remain here several months, but may return to Washington later on.

The Madras Union Sunday school will give a concert next Saturday evening at the schoolhouse, the proceeds to be used for purchasing new song books. The program promises to be very interesting.

Dr. A. E. King of Antelope came over to see Fred Fisher again on last Friday. Mr. Fisher's condition is very much im-proved, but he is still quite ill and it will be some time before will be able to get out.

SEEDS - All kinds, - Turkestan alfalfa, carrots, turnips, rutabagas, onion sets and seed, flower seeds, etc., you can buy these seeds cheaper than you can send away for them. McTaggart & Bye, Madras.

G. Springer, a prominent stockraiser and farmer from the Culver neighbor-hood, was a visitor in town yesterday. Mr. Springer has one of the finest ranches in this section of the county, and in addition to his farming interests he is devoting a considerable portion of his time to fine stock.

B. Dombrowe, who has a homestead four miles southwest of this place, is dig-ging a well upon his land and expects to sink to a depth of 150 feet if necessary, in his efforts to get water for ranch and household purposes. It is believed, how-ever, that water in abundance will be se-cured at a depth of from 100 to 125 feet.

U. S. Cowles and Geo. Mayes passed through town on last Thursday afternoon with two wagon-loads of fixtures and parts of the "still" which they will set up on the Deschutes near the Cowles saw-mill within the next two weeks. Mr. Cowles says that the still will be in opera-tion within the next 30 days.

William Boegli, formerly school super-intendent of this county, and who some time ago bought the Ferd McCallister ranch on Crooked river, was in town last Thursday. Mr. Boegli received a large consignment of fruit trees which had been shipped to him at this place. He is going into the fruit business on quite an extensive scale.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior.

U. S. Land Office, The Dalles, Oregon, February 9, 1906.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by

Samuel K. King, contestant, against homestead entry No. 13,143, made December 23, 1903, for east half northwest quarter, east half southwest quarter sec. 31, tp 11 s, r 13 e, w m, by Alonzo Brandt, contestee, in which it is alleged that said Alonzo Brandt has wholly abandoned said tract; that he has changed his residence therefrom for more than six months last past; that said tract is not settled upon, and cultivated by said party as required by law; that said alleged absence was not due to his employment in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States in time of war. Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching such allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on April 4, 1906, before J. J. Smith, County Clerk, at his office in Prineville, Oregon, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on April 11, 1906, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in The Dalles, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed February 1, 1906, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
