E. D. Wilson returned Friday evening from Shaniko.

List your farms with D. W. Barnett, the Culver real estate man. He will sell them for you. a12-1f

A. C. Sanford arrived here from Shaniko on last Friday, and expects to spend some time looking after his implement business at this place.

The Deschutes Irrigation & Power Company wants rock-men, teamsters, slip-holders and ax men at Redmond. Wages $2.25 per day. Board $4.50 per week. 4a28

You have only to stop at Hotel Pont-dexter to be convinced that it is the most popular hostelry in Prineville. Courteous treatment, good accommodations, and popular prices.

Mrs. W. C. Moore and children and her niece, Miss Edith Bliss, have gone to their ranch on Agency Plains to remain several days. They will superintend the planting of some garden stuff while there.

SEEDS—All kinds,—Turkestan alfalfa, carrots, turnips, rutabagas, onion sets and seed, flower seeds, etc., you can buy these seeds cheaper than you can send away for them. McTaggart & Bye, Madras.

James C. Robinson and family arrived last Thursday evening from Ashwood and have taken up their permanent residence here. For the present they are occupying rooms over the store of J. W. and M. A. Robinson & Co.

Osborn & Wilson have turned over the management of the Hahn hotel to the owner and C. V. Wilson will hereafter devote his entire attention to his barber business in the new shop next to the White Elephant saloon.

Robert Armstrong and Jeff Healy, of Culver, were among the business visitors in town last Saturday. Mr. Armstrong informs the Pioneer that none of the grain in his neighborhood was frozen out, and that it is all making a splendid growth.

Fred Stoliker, who has been working on the North bank road at a point opposite Arlington, returned to his home near the Lyle & Brown gap, the first of the week. Mrs. Stoliker also returned with him. He expects to remain there some time, looking after matters on his ranch.

The contest case of James W. Hurt vs. Bennie Dimick, the testimony in which was to be taken before Max Lueddemann as referee on Monday, was settled "out of court" by the parties to the contest, the defendant, Dimick, relinquishing his claim and selling his improvements to the contestant.

F. R. Blair and his sisters, Misses Blair, were in town last Saturday from their home near Sage Brush spring. The young ladies have only recently arrived from Weston, in Umatilla, where they resided until about two months ago, when they had the misfortune to lose their home there through fire.

Will Change Location.

I desire to give notice that I will remove my store from its present location to Sage Brush Springs and will be set up and ready for business there within ten days. L. A. YOUNG. a5-a12

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office, The Dalles, Oregon. A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Mack Campbell, contestant, against homestead entry No. 11415, made August 29, 1902, for sw 14, sec 32, tp 29 s, r 14 e, w 10, by Hiram F. Shaw, contestee, in which it is alleged that Hiram F. Shaw has wholly abandoned said homestead for more than six months last past and has failed to cultivate and improve the same as required by law; that said alleged absence is not due to his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching such allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on May 28, 1906, before J. J. Smith, County Clerk, at his office in Prineville, Oregon, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on May 25, 1906, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in The Dalles, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed April 4, 1906, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

Timber Land, Act June 3, 1878

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Land Office at The Dalles, Oregon, February 15, 1906.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the states of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the public land states by act of August 4, 1902,

Peter P. Peterson, of Ashwood, county of Crook, state of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 265, for the purchase of the sec 14 sec 35, tp 11 s, r 16 e, w 10.

And will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver at the The Dalles, Oregon, on the 25th day of May, 1906.

He names as witnesses: Bennett A. Bageson, George Crockett, C. S. McGrick, of Ashwood, Oregon; C. J. Hanson, of Albert Lea, Minnesota.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 25th day of May, 1906.
