BEND FARMERS' MEETING

Session of Farmers' Institute to Be Opened There April 28.

There is to be a session of the Farmers' Institute at Bend on April 28, and a cordial invitation is extended to the farmers of this locality to attend the meeting and participate in the benefits of the discussion that will be had there, on various subjects of interest to all who are engaged in agricultural pursuits. Mr. A. M. Drake, of Bend, who was here last Saturday, stated that everything is being done to make the meeting a success, and in extending an invitation to the farmers of this locality to participate, he said that he hoped many might attend, and that some of them would favor the meeting with a paper upon one of the many topics of interest.

Those who are able to attend should avail themselves of the invitation. This interchange of ideas and discussion of methods and results is unquestionably of great advantage to all who participate. In a new country such as this is, it is of inestimable benefit, each farmer profiting by the experience of his neighbor and gathering much practical knowledge. The meeting at Bend will be held on the 28th, beginning at noon, and while the notice is too short to give many time to arrange to attend this meeting, an effort should be made here to secure for this place some participation in these farmers' institutes which are being held in western Crook county from time to time.
