Arrangements have been made for a match game of baseball between the Madras and Prineville teams at this place on Sunday June 17. Financial arrangements have been made to meet the expenses of the visitors, and while the Madras team has never yet been together on the diamond an effort will be made to meet the Prineville players with a stiff game and to at least make them earn a victory should they win.

Fred Hunnel and Robert McCann returned Tuesday night from their work with the Oregon Eastern surveyors, who are now camped about 65 miles north of Klamath Falls. The surveyors expect to reach Klamath Falls in about six weeks. There is talk in camp that a new crew will be sent back over the Madras-Klamath survey to do cross-section work and that Chief Graham and his men will be sent to old Mexico. Both McCann and Hunnel returned to take up residence on homesteads near Bend.—Bend Bulletin.

R. H. Bayley of Laidlaw spent last Friday and Saturday at this place. He had the misfortune to have the team he was driving stampede after he had turned them over to the Hahn stable, and as a result one of the horses was quite badly used up. They had been led into the stable, although still harnessed, when they suddenly whirled and ran out of the barn, and once out stampeded out towards the Philips ranch. Both of them got into wire fences, and although not badly injured, were both considerably scratched up. One of them was unable to be driven back to Laidlaw, Mr. Hahn furnishing Mr. Bayley with one of his horses, to drive home with.
