 Charles Levin, a prominent stockman of Wasco county, was in town yesterday, on his way to the Cascades, where he is summering several bands of sheep.
 Mr. Levin, who resides in the Antelope neighborhood, has recently disposed of his entire interests in stock and land in that locality, and expects to return to his old home in Germany, for an extended vacation. He has applied himself very closely to business for a number of years past and feels that he is entitled to a long rest. His interests near Antelope were bought by Fred Durbin, who paid in the neighborhood of $20,000 for them.
 W. L. Marquardt, an attorney from Port Angeles, Washington, was in town on last Monday, representing the defendant in the contest case of Olive M.
 Blair vs. Bernard A. Marks, the testimony in which was taken before Max Luettmann, referee. The contest was based upon the alleged failure of the defendant to comply with the law as to residence upon and cultivation and improvement of the tract embraced in his entry, and the questions at issue are about the same as those in a number of cases heard at this place during the spring. The defendant gave notice of the filing of a number of depositions, which will be taken later at this place, so that the case will not come up for final decision for a number of months.
 Mrs. Louisa J. Douthit, of Cross Keys, was examined by Drs. Belknap and Edwards for insanity, last week, and upon their examination has been adjudged insane and committed to the asylum by the county court. Mrs. Douthit, who is quite well known to all of the older residents of the county, has been in failing health for several years past, and the loss of her mind followed closely upon the failure of her health. She was advanced in years and owing to this fact it was thought best to commit her to the insane asylum, where she could have the best of care and attention. Mesdames Irwin and Winslow, two lady attendants at the asylum, came up to take care of their patient, and they left Shaniko with Mrs. Douthit in charge on last Thursday morning.
