Stetzel who is interested in buying mill at Madras, came in here yesterday and brings news that during the past week he had rain storms in that country that will in many places be overcome.—The Dalles

Isam and S. E. Grey, returned across the mountains to their home during the early part of the week, having left the balance of the party at Blue River. Mr. Isam returned on account of late, and Mr. Isam drove across the mountains. He expects to return to Blue River in a few days, and will stay here for a month or more, and will leave in September with the party.

Chamer killed a large rattlesnake two miles south of town on Friday evening. The rattlesnake was on the road just in front of Jerry, and killed it. It had nine feet and a button. The Willow was at one time quite "populated" with these dangerous reptiles, but in recent years they have almost completely disappeared, and it is only semi-occasionally that we hear of one being killed.

C. Ashley and his sister, and their guest, Miss Ashley, of Boston, and J. E. and his family, left last morning for the "berry patch" at the Santiam, where they will spend a month camping. They will be accompanied by a deer and expect to make a comfortable stay. Deer and bears are plentiful in the locality, and the hunters intend to supply themselves with game before leaving.

intends to make an expedition a band in Madras as the busy harvest season is over. He would be glad to confer with the vicinity of Madras who are interested in becoming a part of the band. Instruments are available at about $15 on the loan, and some support can be had. The cost of the band need not exceed $10. A number of experienced musicians here who will assist and give a first-class band.

F. S. Gordon, in company with two other gentlemen, passed through Tygh Monday, on his way to Madras. Mr. Gordon is in the employ of the Oregon Trunk Line now building up the Deschutes—Tygh Valley Bee.

A fishing party composed of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hess, W. P. French and C. A. Riddle spent last Sunday on the Deschutes near the Warm Springs ferry. The river was too muddy for good fishing, and they only caught a small number of trout.

C. Smith, who recently filed on and took up his residence on the old homestead claim of Dick Williams, east of town, has been working for the O. R. & N. Company, in the construction department, for the past fifteen years. He was superintendent of construction on the Harriman road on the North Bank, known as the Wallula Pacific. Mr. Smith has great confidence in the future of this country, and he believes, too, that we will have a railroad to Madras within the next three years by way of the Deschutes river gorge.
