Parlor-Car Diversion.

"Porter," said the fussy lady in the parlor car, "I wish you would open this window."

The lady in the seat directly across the car heard the request and drew a cloak about her.

"Porter, if that window is opened," she snapped, testily, "I shall freeze to death."

"And if the window is kept closed," returned the other passenger, "I shall surely suffocate."

The porter stood timidly between the two fires.

"Porter," remarked the commercial traveler, "your duty is very plain. Open the window and freeze one lady. Then close it and suffocate the other." —Puck.

Next Summer.

A million or two of people who have spent this summer at the seashore are strongly disposed to spend next summer in the back country or the mountains. If they persevere in this determination their places will be filled by persons who have spent this summer in the mountains and the back country and don't want to go back. It has been a very trying summer, muggy, foggy, 'skeetry, damp, moist, hot and miscellaneously plaintive, but it has been about as bad in one place as in another.—Harper's Weekly.

A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

How a Veteran Was Saved the Amputation of a Limb.

B. Frank Doremus, veteran, of Roosevelt Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., says: "I had been showing symptoms of kidney trouble from the time I was mustered out of the army, but in all my life I never suffered as in 1897. Headaches, dizziness and sleeplessness first, and then dropsy. I was weak and helpless, having run down from 180 to 125 pounds. I was having terrible pain in the kidneys and the secretions passed almost involuntarily. My left leg swelled until it was 34 inches around, and the doctor tapped it night and morning until I could no longer stand it, and then he advised amputation. I refused, and began using Doan's Kidney Pills. The swelling subsided gradually, the urine became natural and all my pains and aches disappeared. I have been well now for nine years since using Doan's Kidney Pills."

"Many a man," said Uncle Allen Sparks, "dates all his other reverses from the evening when his best girl turned him down."

Hope Deferred.

Dinguss—Shadbolt, I've borrowed a good many little sums from you, at one time and another. Do you know just how much I owe you?

Shadbolt (with alacrity)—Yes; it's exactly $95.

Dinguss—Then let me have $5, will you? That will make it an even hundred, and it will be easier for me to remember.

Realized It Herself.

The angry waves broke upon the stately vessel.

"Isn't the commotion terrible?" exclaimed the young man with the steamer cap and the camera.

"O, yes!" moaned the pale young woman in the steamer chair. "You feel it, too, do you?"

Would Suit Him Better.

The Judge—Mr. Twiggles, do you wish to poll the jury?

The lawyer (who had lost his case)—No, your honor; but it would afford me infinite satisfaction if I could club the jury.

We Trust Doctors

If you are suffering from impure blood, thin blood, debility, nervousness, exhaustion, you should begin at once with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the Sarsaparilla you have known all your life. Your doctor knows it, too. Ask him about it.

You must look well after the condition of your liver and bowels. Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing headache, biliousness, nausea, dyspepsia, and thus preventing the Sarsaparilla from doing its best work. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. Act gently, all vegetable. The dose is only one pill at bedtime.

WIT OF THE YOUNGSTERS.

Little Girl—I thought you said you wasn't coming to school to-day. Little Boy—Oh, that was before I had an interview with papa.

Teacher—Willie, you may spell "felt." Willie—F-e-l-t. Teacher—That's right. Now, Johnnie, what is felt? Johnnie—Mamma's slipper.

"Oh, mamma!" exclaimed little Fred, as he caught sight of a zebra at a menagerie, "come here quick and see the poor little convict pony!"

"Harry," said a mother to her incorrigible son and heir, "did you bring that mud into the house?" "No, ma'am," replied Harry. "It just stuck to my shoes and came in itself."

"My papa is a lawyer," said little Bel. "He knows everything your papa papa is a minister," rejoined little Mabel. "He knows everything your papa does and a whole lot about the hereafter."

Little Elsie—What's the meaning of the word "acclimated," Tommy? Small Tommy—Oh, it means to get used to anything. Like when a man and woman has been married so long they don't mind it any more!

"I'm glad I'm not a fish," remarked little Georgie as he watched the goldfish swimming around in the globe. "Why?" queried his mother. "'Cause it must be awful to have to be bathing all the time," was the reply.

One day little Elmer's mamma caught him in the pantry helping himself to some cake and jam. "Why, Elmer," she exclaimed, "don't you know it is wrong to take things without asking for them?" "It isn't wrong, mamma," replied Elmer. "Our Sunday school teacher says the Lord helps those who help themselves."

MIXED THEIR MODELS UP.

Men Posed for Pictures of Women, Women for Those of Men.

It is an interesting fact that artists have used women as models from which to paint men and men as models from which to represent women, says the Strand Magazine.

One of the most striking instances is the well-known picture, "Napoleon on Board the Bellerophon." A woman friend of the painter was the model for the "Little Corporal."

Landseer's famous picture, "The Naughty Boy," was really painted from a little girl, little Lady Rachel Russell. As a matter of fact, the child's mother had taken her to have her portrait painted. When, however, she arrived at the studio she refused to pose in the way the artist suggested, and became so sulky and naughty that it was impossible to do anything with her.

At length her mother put her in the corner as a punishment. There she turned with such a sturdy, defiant look that she impressed Landseer, who sketched the recalcitrant little one as she stood.

A sense of chivalry toward the child caused him to change the sex of the subject, so he added the broken slate, the rumpled hair and the undone boots, while keeping the disheveled dress, and gave a title to the canvas which has removed it from any suggestion of portraiture.

Wilkie's "Blind Fiddler," which created a furor when it was exhibited at the Royal Academy, furnishes another instance, for the artist actually sat to himself for the figure of the old woman.

Wilkie used to say that one day Bannister, the actor, called and was shown in while he was sitting on a low seat, dressed as a woman, with a looking glass before him, performing the part of a model for himself. Wilkie was not a man to be in the least discomposed at being found in such a plight. Bannister gazed on him for a moment or so, and said:

"I need no introduction."

"Truly, no," said Wilkie. "I know you very well, but, you see, I can't move lest I spoil the folds of my petticoat. I am for the present an old woman."

On one occasion Guido painted the head of a Madonna, using his porter as a model.

"Home, Sweet Home."

Probably no one would have been more surprised than Sir Henry Bishop himself could he have foreseen that a single melody in one of his numerous operas would achieve such celebrity that at the present day it is still sung by leading prima donnas at fashionable concerts, jangled on street organs and loved by a vast public that knows nothing of music, properly so called, as the purest representation of the English spirit—"Home, Sweet Home." Clari, the Maid of Milan," the opera in which this favorite song occurred, has long been consigned to the limbo of forgotten musical works, but "Home, Sweet Home," survives with undiminished popularity and is likely to survive when many more pretentious compositions have followed "The Maid of Milan" into oblivion.—Cornell Magazine.

The Evil of a Good Name.

"Mammy," said Pickaninny Jim, "why didn't you name me George Washington?" "Sonny," was the answer, "I isn' gwine to name no mochillen George Washington. As soon as dey hyahs dat story 'bout not bein' able to tell a lie dey 'pears to git curious to find out whether it's so or not, an' dey stahts in sperimentin' as soon as dey kin talk."—Washington Star.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Mica Axle Grease

Makes the Load Lighter

An ounce of grease is sometimes the only difference between profit and loss on a day's teaming. You know you can't afford a dry axle — do you know as well that Mica Axle Grease is the only lubricant you can afford? Mica Axle Grease is the most economical lubricant, because it alone possesses high lubricating property, great adhesive power, and long-wearing quality. Hence, the longest profitable use of your outfit is to be had, only when the lubricant is Mica Axle Grease.

Mica Axle Grease contains powdered mica. This forms a smooth, hard surface on the axle, and reduces friction, while a specially prepared mineral grease forms an effective cushioning body between axle and box. Mica Axle Grease wears best and longest — one greasing does for a week's teaming. Mica Axle Grease saves horse power — consequently saves feed. Mica Axle Grease is the best lubricant in the world — use it and draw a double load. If your dealer does not keep Mica Axle Grease we will tell you one who does.
