The recent teachers examinations by County Superintendent Dingle, the following teachers passed: Miss Ada Taylor, Charles W. E. Cook, Miss Cora Ferguson, Miss Orpha Pettit, Miss Maude Dobbs. Second grade—Miss Maude McLaughlin, Miss Galloway. Third grade—Miss Clapper, Miss Tillie Fisch, Miss Cummings, Miss Nora Mitchell. Primary certificate—Miss Emma Crook. Crook County Journal.

C. McAllister, representing Allen L. A. Baker who sells Schill's Beans, and John Ferguson who is a product of the American Tobacco Co., were in town last Monday, on their regular trip through Oregon. They drove out from Bend in a private conveyance, and report the roads drying and in very fair condition. The season of travel over the Columbia Southern has considerably improved the cross country trips of the traveling men who make the Oregon country.

The weekly reports regarding the date of the resumption of the Columbia Southern, vary so widely that it is a week or ten days before one of the story of the man who, meeting a rancher in the distance to the next town, "he was told. An hour later he met a second rancher inquiring the distance and he replied, "two miles." Half an hour later he met a third rancher inquiring the distance to the next town was told "It is about three miles." "Thank God!" he said, "I'm holding our own."

Anderson Lodge No. 196, I. O. O. F. of Madras, was instituted Saturday, February 16, by S. D. G. Lafollette, assisted by other members of Ochocho Lodge of Prineville. The officers of the new lodge are: John T. Disney, N. S. G. Pukerton, V. G. C. E. secretary; John McTaggart, B. C. Dove, warden; James A. G. A. Batalgia, O. G.; Fred S. S. G.; N. C. B. Kaas, L. M. VanTassel, R. S. V. G.; E. Doty, L. S. V. G. The lodge is off with twenty members. Twenty Odd Fellows from Prineville came down to help give their sister lodge a good send-off. They all spent a splendid time and are unanimous in their praise of Madras hospital.
