

Openings at Madras.

W. Palmeh of Grizzly was in town Monday.

Complete supply of strychnine kept on at the Madras Pharmacy. 44tf

W. Peck and wife were in town Monday from Opal Prairie.

Jackie Brock of Bend was in town Saturday evening on her way to Madras.

J. Hodder, representative of the McFall Company, was in town Monday.

G. Rodgers and family were in town Monday, while the former was engaged in business matters.

by Judge W. A. Bell, May 1907. C. Jenkins, of Madras, and Laura A. Cox, of Culver.

Recher, of Haycreek, was here Monday. Mr. Recher has business in the county court.—Review.

sale, 40,000 pounds of chopped and barley. For particulars apply to K. Locks, Madras, Or. 425 tf and L. Davis are the bustling agents at Madras. List your names with them. They will find you in 21 tf

Pure bred White Wyandott and Plymouth Rock eggs at $1 setting. U. C. Covey, Warm Springs, Oregon.

White Leghorn eggs for $1.00 per setting. Mrs. E. A. Leave orders with McTaggart at Madras, Oregon. m30 goods, plains, suitings, batistes, chasabrays, ginghams and calico, at prices that will surprise you. J. W. & M. A. Robinson & Co.

Ronald Eason of Hood River, formerly Miss Edna Gillett, is her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Adams, at their home four miles south of Madras.

and Sam Karopfer, stockman lower Trout Creek, were in town Tuesday. The former has the interests of the latter in all owned by them jointly, and they are closing up the transfers for this year.

Madras Townsite Company has sold parts lots on the market until at prevailing prices, and after the prices on all lots will be advanced 100 per cent, according to the parties desiring property in should buy now.

number of local fans accompanied Madras team to Lamonta, last Sunday witnessed the game of baseball between Madras and Lamonta boys game was an easy victory for the boys, the score being 11 to 5 in favor of Madras. A return game will soon be played at Madras.

Black, the famous bear hunter and was in town last Saturday evening on his way to the railroad. Mr. Black was the fortunate hunter who shot the bear in the Bend neighborhood last year, the bear being larger than any other bear in the country.

There was a game of baseball at Madras last Sunday, between the team from Madras and one from Antelope, the Madras team winning by a score of 20 to 2. The game was a great surprise, as the Antelope boys had been expected to win every game they played in this season.

Fisher of Fisherville was a visitor at Madras Monday. He says that the rain which he resided came in for its share of the fine rain which fell the week, and that it has done an amount of good to the growing grain was not yet suffering from the ground was getting dry, the rain was very timely. Similar rains come from all districts in this part of the county.

C. Mason has been notified of his appointment as Justice of the Peace for the precinct, to succeed John A. resigned. Mr. Isham was elected at the last regular election, but declined the office owing to his ill-health. Mason consented to accept the office and was recommended by a number of the voters for appointment. He has qualified for the office, and will doubtless discharge the duties thereof in the next few days.

Brothers, who are drilling the wells for the D. I. & P. Company and Redmond, have reached about 200 feet in the well which they are now drilling upon at the latter place. They have been drilling through "iron basalt," making barely one foot per day. This rock appears to be mineralized, and particles of it attracted by a magnet as readily as particles of steel. From this character, as well as from its hardness, the local name of "iron basalt."

Bob Osborn of Culver is in town today.

Dave Barnett was in town last Tuesday from Haystack.

Ora VanTassel returned Monday evening from the Matoles.

Rolando Parrish and wife of Haycreek were in town this morning.

Frye's Poisoned Wheat, the best on the market, at Madras Pharmacy. 44tf

Miss Lillie Read of Culver visited in town from Saturday until Monday.

A. Eagles was a visitor at the countyseat the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Max Lueddemann left last Sunday for a visit to her old home at Moscow, Idaho.

Mrs. J. Coe of O'Neil was in town yesterday, on her way to Portland and Seaside.

W. P. Myers, editor of the Laidlaw Chronicle, was in town on Sunday on his way to Antelope.

Sheriff Elkins was in this locality last Saturday, attending the sale of personal property belonging to Ed Holmes.

McTaggart & Bye have bought of Martin Pratt the lot just back of their store and fronting on Sixth street. The lot is 50 x 100 feet.

Notice our ad on the front page of this paper. Come in and look if you do not care to buy, we will be pleased to show you. The Peoples Big Store.

We are agents for the best gasoline engine on the market, the "International." Call and see our sample already installed. J. W. & M. A. Robinson & Co.

Wesley Livingston, son of J. W. Livingston of this place, arrived last Thursday from Vancouver, Wash., and will make his home in Madras in the future.

Read the ad of Madras Townsite Company in another column. Town lots will be on the market until June 1st at present prices, after which they will be advanced.

It is now time to think about ordering repairs for your McCormick headers, binders, mowers, rakes, etc. Call and get our prices. J. W. & M. A. Robinson & Co.

C. M. Redfield, chief engineer for the D. I. & P. Company at their irrigation project south of this place, was a passenger on Sunday's Westside stage. He was on his way to Portland.

Dan Adams has leased of A. S. Phillips, two acres of land adjoining the townsite on the east. The land lies on Willow Creek, and will be used by Mr. Adams for a slaughter pen.

B. C. Dove left last Saturday for La Grande, where he goes as a delegate from Mt. Jefferson Lodge of Madras, to the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, which meets at that place.

Misses Elizabeth and Bertha Conroy, sisters of Mrs. Tomkins, stopped off in Moro a few days, enroute to Vancouver, B. C., where they are to join their parents. Mr. Conroy is in business there.—Moro Observer.

A complete supply of legal blanks for sale including warranty and quit claim deeds, real, chattel and crop mortgages, etc. Justice court blanks and Justice court work a specialty. Notary Public—F. J. Brooks.

Homer J. Pontius, presiding elder of the Meonite Church, was in town yesterday. He conducted special services at the Opal Prairie church last Sunday, when the new church building at that place was dedicated.

Mrs. Helen C. Waymire, of Grizzly spent several days in Madras during the week, visiting at the home of her grandson, J. C. Waymire. She is returning to Wilcox, Washington, to reside, after spending a year in the Grizzly neighborhood.

W. H. Hess and M. W. Bennett caught a fine string of trout from the Deschutes last Sunday, the former catching one "Dolly Varden" which weighed about four and a half pounds. A number of them were from 12 to 18 inches long. Trout flies were used for bait.

Asa Clark, who has accepted a position with the Pioneer Telephone company, has been in town during the week, soliciting contracts for telephone service under the new company. It is proposed to establish a local phone at this place, and then to connect up the several farming communities of this locality with the Madras exchange. Mr. Clark has already secured a number of contracts and it is believed that this service will be established at once.

Morton Doty, a Portland traveling man, was in town the last of the week. Mr. Doty is the contestant in the contest filed against the Frank Lucas homestead on Agency Plains, and which matter is now pending, an appeal having been taken to the Secretary of the Interior. Mr. Doty won the contest in the land office at The Dalles, but on appeal, the decision was reversed by the General Land Office, and decided in favor of Lucas. Mr. Doty then appealed to the Secretary of the Interior, which is the court of last resort in cases of this kind.

The Edward C. Pease Co.
EVERYBODY'S STORE
SHANIKO, ORE.

We want a share of your trade for

1907

Our High Grade goods offered, service and Low Prices, Merit It.

CENTRAL OREGON'S
BIG DEPARTMENT STORE

Every cash purchaser can have a Grand Entertainer—a Talking Machine—in the home. We are giving them away. Get informed and save our Coupons.

Campbell Soil Culture Manual for 1907

REGULAR PRICE $2.50

AND PIONEER ONE YEAR, BOTH $3.00

We have made arrangements with Mr. Campbell by which subscribers to the PIONEER can secure the manual for $1.50. New subscribers, or old subscribers by paying up, can secure this valuable book on farming in the semi-arid West at this reduced price

PIONEER, - - - - -	1 50
1907 SOIL CULTURE MANUAL	2 50
Regular Price - - - - -	4 00

Our Price to You, $3.00 for Both

The 1907 Soil Culture Manual

Is a 320 page cloth bound book, very complete and up-to-date, and has about three times as many illustrations as the 1905 Manual, and in matter and general make-up is quite different, and treats many new and important subjects. It is compiled from careful and persistent experiments and observation in field work, covering over 20 years operation in eight different states, on a great variety of soil, and under widely different climatic conditions.

J. W. French, Pres. H. A. Moore, Vice-Pres. F. T. Hurlburt, Cashier

EASTERN OREGON BANKING COMPANY

FOREIGN EXCHANGE BOUGHT AND SOLD
DRAFTS ON ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD

Capital Stock, $25,000
Deposits, $250,000

SHANIKO, OREGON

Will Barber was in town from Culver yesterday.

Henry Clay McAllister, a Portland traveling man, was in town on Tuesday.

Robert Armstrong and his son Ralph were in town this morning from Culver, buying supplies.

Mrs. L. M. Hahn and Miss Lulu Osborn left last Tuesday afternoon, the former for Talent, where she will visit with her parents, and the latter for Portland to visit Mrs. C. V. Wilson.

J. H. Wenandy, manager of the Westside stage company, spent several days in town during the week, arranging for the establishment of a stage station at Youngs, and looking after other business for the company.

M. VanTassel of Culver left last Friday for LaGrande, having been selected as a delegate from Mt. Jefferson Lodge, the local lodge of Odd Fellows, to the meeting of the Grand Lodge which has been in session at LaGrande during the past week.

D. W. Adams is going into the butcher business in Madras, and will open up the Farmers' Meat Market in the building next to the Madras pharmacy, Saturday morning. S. E. Grey will have charge of the shop for him. Mr. Adams' ad appears in another column.

Jack Summers is in Madras today, fixing up some "trouble" in the local telephone line. Mr. Summers has recently disposed of all his telephone interests in this county, but he retained an interest in the new company which owns them and he is also superintendent of maintenance for the new company.

VAN TASSEL & DAVIS

REAL ESTATE, LOCATING & INSURANCE

Office in the Post Office Building

MADRAS, OREGON

---

A. M. WILLIAMS & CO

DEALERS IN

Dry Goods, Clothing,
Furnishing Goods

BOOTS AND SHOES
HATS AND CAPS

THE DALLES, OREGON

Lots for Sale

Until June 1

Until June 1, 1907, all lots of the Madras Townsite Company will be for sale at prices from $50 upwards, according to location

---

PRICES WILL BE INCREASED

After that date prices on all lots will be increased from 50 to 100 per cent

There will be no deviation from this rule Parties desiring lots at present prices should buy now, as this offer absolutely closes May 31, 1907

---

MADRAS TOWNSITE CO.

DON P. REA, Secretary

MADRAS, OREGON

It is reported that H. L. Priday & Company of Cross Keys last week bought of J. B. Cartwright, all of the latter's land holdings heretofore used by him in connection with his sheep plant near that place, the purchase price being given as $27,000. The Cartwright ranch is just east of the Priday ranch on Trout Creek, one of the best alfalfa ranches in the county, and the two properties combined will give the new owners one of the finest properties in the county. The sale includes a section of land lying on Sage-Bush, just north of Agency Plains. It is reported that Mr. Cartwright will sell his sheep and retire from the stock business, with which he has been identified in this county for some years past.

FOR SALE.—Full blooded black Jersey bull, 2-year old. W. G. Killingbeck, Opal Prairie, Madras, Oregon.

BIDS WANTED.—For delivery in Madras of upwards of 500 peeled Juniper telephone poles twenty feet long and at least four and one-half inches in diameter at the top. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Address The Pioneer Telephone and Telegraph Co., Bend, Oregon.

Homer J. Pontius, presiding elder of the Meonite Church, was in town yesterday. He conducted special services at the Opal Prairie church last Sunday, when the new church building at that place was dedicated.

Mrs. Helen C. Waymire, of Grizzly spent several days in Madras during the week, visiting at the home of her grandson, J. C. Waymire. She is returning to Wilcox, Washington, to reside, after spending a year in the Grizzly neighborhood.

W. H. Hess and M. W. Bennett caught a fine string of trout from the Deschutes last Sunday, the former catching one "Dolly Varden" which weighed about four and a half pounds. A number of them were from 12 to 18 inches long. Trout flies were used for bait.

Asa Clark, who has accepted a position with the Pioneer Telephone company, has been in town during the week, soliciting contracts for telephone service under the new company. It is proposed to establish a local phone at this place, and then to connect up the several farming communities of this locality with the Madras exchange. Mr. Clark has already secured a number of contracts and it is believed that this service will be established at once.

Morton Doty, a Portland traveling man, was in town the last of the week. Mr. Doty is the contestant in the contest filed against the Frank Lucas homestead on Agency Plains, and which matter is now pending, an appeal having been taken to the Secretary of the Interior. Mr. Doty won the contest in the land office at The Dalles, but on appeal, the decision was reversed by the General Land Office, and decided in favor of Lucas. Mr. Doty then appealed to the Secretary of the Interior, which is the court of last resort in cases of this kind.