 One of the stage horses belonging to the Bend-Madras-Shaniko stage company literally kicked himself to death yesterday, while in process of being shod in the Hamilton blacksmith shop. The horse was known as a particularly vicious brute and was tied up strongly, preparatory to shoeing him. He began to struggle and kick and kept it up until he burst a blood vessel and fell dead in the shop. It is said that the horse had such a bad reputation at Shaniko that none of the blacksmiths at that place would undertake to shoe him.
 Superintendent C. C. Covey of the Warm Springs Agency was in town last Tuesday accompanied by Mrs. Covey. They remained over for the evening to attend the musicale given by members of the German M. E. choir. Mr. Covey received a letter Monday evening from Commissioner of Indian Affairs Francis E. Leupp, in response to an invitation to visit the Warm Springs Agency, stating that he will probably be unable to do so, but that if he finds it possible he will arrive some time during the present month. The commissioner is now in Arizona, visiting various agencies.
 W. F. Nelson and L. I. Gregory, officials of the projected Oregon Trunk Line railroad up the Deschutes canyon, were in Madras last Thursday afternoon, on their return from a brief trip to the Bend country and at Prineville. At the former place they were given an opportunity to see the irrigated lands of that section and the large timber tracts which extend south from Bend. Mr. Nelson left here on Thursday's afternoon stage as he was in a hurry to return to Seattle. Mr. Gregory remained over until Saturday, spending the two intervening days on a fishing trip over to the hot springs on the Warm Springs reservation with Don P. Rea and Max Lueddemann.
