Frank Rodman came out from Portland last Friday in his new Wayne touring car. He spent the day here, returning to Prineville on Saturday.

Frank Rodman was in town yesterday, leaving this morning for Portland. He will drive his auto through to The Dalles, taking the boat from there to Portland.

C. A. Riddle and family camped out Sunday night near the Cove on Crooked River, and spent Sunday angling for trout and gathering fruit at the Boegli ranch.

Michael Braun, who has been working at the Moody Warehouse at Shaniko, arrived yesterday morning to look after harvesting of the crop on his homestead in Agency Plains.

Dr. Amos Burris proved up on his homestead East of town last Saturday. He expects to go to Bend in a short time after some improvements he is making on his property near that place.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Pinkerton left yesterday afternoon for Umatilla County, where Mr. Pinkerton has business interest requiring his attention. They will visit relatives at Athena before returning.

Postmaster Fred Davis has received intelligence of the death of his mother, Mrs. Wallace Wilds, at her home in Shattuck, Pa., last Wednesday. Mrs. Wilds formerly lived in Oregon, and moved to Pittsburg after her marriage.

Thomas Alderdyce, a farmer from the Agency district, was in town last Monday. He was accompanied by his brother, John Alderdyce, who was returning home at Brooklyn, Michigan, after a two-weeks visit in this locality.

Proof was made here Monday on the homestead entry of Anton Birkenfeld, dated in July 1904, after residing for years on his homestead in 1113. Proof was made by the heirs, the Anton Birkenfeld of Mist, Oregon, living here in their interest.

Mr. Beiers and his son, Frank, Jr., of Bend, have been in town during the week, visiting the family of J. W. Brown. Mr. Beiers, Sr., is a brother of Livingston. While here he has been spending a good portion of his time over the surrounding territory.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stearns passed through Madras Sunday, enroute to their home at Portland after a month's visit at Mr. Stearns is one of the officials of Deschutes Irrigation & Power Co., and has been looking after the interests of the company at Bend, commencing business with pleasure during his stay in this locality.

A. A. Burris, wife and son Victor have been spending the week at Dr. Burris owns 40 acres of land adjoining the Dr. Coons place and he says that he and his wife will move onto the land in a few days and make their home there. Dr. Burris always had great faith in Bend and here very much. This was his first visit here and she is very much impressed with what will be her home.—Bulletin.

H. D. Wood was in town last Saturday from Crooked River.

Try our Imperial washing machine, it is the best. McTaggart & Bye.

Born, to the wife of Hugh Gardner, Thursday, September 12, 1907, a daughter.

J. C. Wilson, foreman of the Grizzly Lake sawmill, was in town the first of the week, making proof upon his homestead five miles south of this place. Mr. Wilson has moved his family to The Dalles, in order that his children may have the benefit of the schools at that place.

J. C. Robinson and wife, Miss Pearl Dean, Miss Effie Eades, Jack Church and W. S. Rice of Lamontia left the last of the week for Crane Prairie, where they will spend three weeks camping out. Fish and game abound in the upper Deschutes country, and Crane Prairie at this season of the year attracts many who want a delightful outing and good sport with gun and rod.

D. W. Adams and Mrs. L. M. Lamb had a narrow escape from serious injury in a runaway accident last Friday. They were driving down the road from the big plains when the horses became frightened and ran, overturning the buggy and throwing both occupants among the rocks that border the road. Both were considerably bruised and shaken up, but fortunately escaped without serious injury.

Fred Fisher has a young driving animal with which he expects to make the circuit of race meetings this year, and he confidently expects to make a good showing in the harness events. The mare has never been driven in a race and has had but little training, but Mr. Fisher says she shows enough speed to justify entering her, and he has already arranged to enter her at The Dalles, Redmond and Prineville fairs.

C. L. Lowther, who has a ranch near Trail Crossing, was in Bend Tuesday. Mr. Lowther says that grain on the dry land in his neighborhood is thrashing out a very good yield this year. Wheat runs from 16 to 40 bushels to the acre, and oats and barley 30 to 50 bushels. Mr. Lowther has great faith in the Campbell method of dry farming and he and several of his neighbors are giving it trial. He says that wherever the Campbell system has been given a fair test remarkable results have been obtained in his neighborhood.—Bulletin.

P. B. Davis, of Prineville, was in town several days this week, accompanied by a Mr. Oliver of Portland. They were gathering data and looking over this section with a view to making investments in the Madras country. Mr. Davis has been an insurance agent in this county for many years, and it was in his company, the Bankers' Life, that the late Homer Street held a policy for $4000 at the time he was blown into the Matoles River. The policy was paid, as Mr. Davis says there was no question of the death of Street, although under the circumstances it was difficult for the widow to make proof of death.

The remains of Rolando Parrish, who died at Portland on September 3, were laid at rest in Haycreek cemetery last Friday afternoon, impressive funeral services being conducted by Mt. Jefferson Lodge, I. O. O. F., of this place, of which lodge Mr. Parrish was one of the charter members. In addition to the Odd Fellows lodge, which attended in a body, a large number of friends of the deceased from this place attended the funeral exercises at the residence and later at the cemetery. Mr. Parrish was one of the oldest residents of this section of Crook County, and he was held in high esteem by all who knew him.
