S. H. Pinkerton and wife returned Friday morning from a week's visit in Yamhill County. Mr. Pinkerton says the farmers of Yamhill are enjoying unprecedented prosperity, the combination of a bumper crop and high prices for grain having lined their pockets with money. Yamhill County's crop is estimated this year at about six million bushels.

Dispatch in the Portland Telegram for a Prineville date line of September states that the Crook County Fair will begin on October 17 and terminate on October 22. This is evidently a mistake, as we have been advised by a member of the board of directors that the fair will begin on Thursday, October 24, extend through the 25th, 26th, 28th and 29th, the fair to be closed on Sunday the 31st.

Tom Taylor has hauled down all of the wheat to Madras, and with the exception of 500 bushels of bluestem which he has hauled to the Madras Milling Co., all of it will be shipped to Shaniko by the tractor (hauling outfit). He has about 1000 bushels stored in the warehouse to be hauled. Mr. Taylor operates the only combined harvester in Crook County this year, and was very pleased with the results he obtained. He says that this is a good year for the operation of combined harvesters. He harvested about 7000 acres with his combined this season.
