A Prediction. "There'll be bread riots in this country yet," growled the cross boarder. "Do you think bread will ever be so scarce as to cause that?" queried the landlady.

"I referred to the quality," returned the boarder, permitting a slab to fall with ominous thud on the table.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Imparting More Information. Mrs. Chugwater—Josiah, I saw the phrase, "his royal ribs," in print the other day. Is there any meaning to it? Mr. Chugwater—Yes; it's an English title conferred on the manufacturer who is penmaker to the king or queen.

Too Much for Him. Huggins—Why did Peckem apply for a divorce? Muggins—He happened to be home one washday when it rained.

The Truth of It. Teacher—Johnny, can you define for us the difference between "caution" and "cowardice"? Johnny—Yessum. When you're scart to go out on a boat and stay home for fear it'll sink and the boat comes in all right, it's "caution." And if you're scart and stay home and the boat does sink, then it's "caution."

Balked. The favorite sons—large caliber guns—Decided to hold a convention; But an untoward fate, 'tis sad to relate, Upset this most worthy intention. There wasn't a hall would hold them all—A county roofed would have been too small—As space for the sure dissemination.—Philadelphia Ledger.

We Trust Doctors

If you are suffering from impure blood, thin blood, debility, nervousness, exhaustion, you should begin at once with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the Sarsaparilla you have known all your life. Your doctor knows it, too. Ask him about it.

You must look well after the condition of your liver and bowels. Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing headache, biliousness, nausea, dyspepsia, and thus preventing the Sarsaparilla from doing its best work. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. Act gently, all vegetable. The dose is only one pill at bedtime.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of HAIR VIGOR, AGUE CURE, CHERRY PECTORAL.

Making It Right. Once more poor woman is laughed at for her lack of banking knowledge. There is no denying it, however; she is funny when she gets tangled up in the paraphernalia of finance. The Denver Post tells this tale: The Denver National Bank, not long ago, received the following letter from a lady well known in social circles: "Gentlemen—Please stop payment on the check I wrote out to-day, as I accidentally burned it up. Yours, "MRS. BLANK."

Up-to-Date Philanthropy. "That millionaire is very selfish with his money, isn't he?" "No, indeed; he's an altruist with it." "How do you make that out?" "He believes wealth is a burden and he says he will not inflict his burdens on other people."—Baltimore American.

Fatal Symptom. The professional auctioneer, having just told the crowd the usual story to the effect that the watch he was trying to sell was a full jeweled timepiece, with chronometer balance and solid gold—filled—case, suddenly felt himself blushing at the aged and venerable lie. "Great snakes!" he said to himself. "That's the first time such a thing has happened to me in thirty-seven years! It means either softening of the brain or fatty degeneration of the heart!" Hastily stepping down from the little platform behind the counter, he went into the back room and announced to the silent partner that he had retired from the business for good and all.

Morning Hymn.
Awake, my soul, and with the sun
The daily star of duty run;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.

Wake and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who, all night long, unwearied sing
High praise to the Eternal King.

All praise to Thee, who safe hast kept
And hast refresh'd me whilst I slept!
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake.

Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below!
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host!
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
—Thomas Ken.

Evening Hymn.
Glory to Thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light;
Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings,
Beneath Thine own Almighty wings.

Forgive me, Lord, for Thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and Thee,
I ere I sleep, at peace may be.

Teach me to live, that I may tread
The grace as little as my bed;
To die, that this vile body may
Rise glorious at the awful day.

When in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts supply;
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below!
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host!
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
—Thomas Ken.

MILK TRAFFIC IN BOSTON.
Concentration of the Business Constantly Increases—More Shops.

This city receives 368,849 quarts of milk daily, but not all of it is being used here, says the Boston Transcript. The centralization of the milk traffic is constantly increasing. This is well illustrated by the rapidly lessening number of milkmen. At this time there are only 316 licensed dealers, a loss of twenty-eight over the preceding year. This naturally means more business for the remaining milkmen. The number of shops selling milk shows an increase of 117 over 1905; 3,746 shops are now engaged in the sale of milk in this city.

About 123,250 quarts are subjected to commercial pasteurization daily, which means the heating of the milk to between 150 and 170 degrees Fahrenheit. The milk inspector does not approve this method unless it is regulated by labeling the product.

During the summer months one firm claims to supply the customers with milk twelve hours old and another concerns delivers milk to a portion of its patrons throughout the summer months of the same age, while the balance of its customers receive their milk when it is twenty-five hours old. Another firm in winter serves one-half of its family trade with milk twelve hours old, while the remaining retail customers are given milk twenty-four hours old. The greater portion of the milk delivered by contracting firms is from twenty-four to thirty-six hours old; a portion of the milk supply of one large firm is forty-eight hours old. Another large concern supplies milk to 10 per cent of its stores and restaurants which is from forty-eight to sixty hours old. Milk of forty-eight to sixty hours old, to be of good quality, must have been produced and kept under ideal conditions.

Look Neat When Traveling.
A woman looks chic and neat at the end of her journey because she wears a small hat which covers a well-groomed head, kept neat by a hair net. She wears a foulard frock, the waist and skirt of which have been fastened together firmly. She wears a stiff linen collar, with a taffeta bow of the same tone as her dress.

Just before arriving she changes her collar, puts on fresh gloves, and cleanses her face with cold cream. She fastens her veil neatly and looks as trim as if she were just starting on her journey.

She avoids a large hat, white gloves, jewelry and loosely arranged hair.

How to Strengthen a Puppy's Legs.
If a puppy is weak on its legs, the addition of limewater to its milk is of great benefit and tends to prevent rickets, says Home Chat. Chemical food which consists of the sirup of phosphates may be given at the same time.

Blaze On.
Blaze, sun! with all your fires
An' scorch us, soon an' late!
Ye poets, string your lyres—
Ye liars, dig your bait!

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

NO LIMIT TO ITS POWERS FOR EVIL

Contagious Blood Poison has brought more suffering, misery and humiliation into the world than all other diseases combined; there is hardly any limit to its powers for evil. It is the blackest and vilest of all disorders, wrecking the lives of those unfortunate enough to contract it and often being transmitted to innocent offspring, a blighting legacy of suffering and shame. So highly contagious is the trouble that innocent persons may contract it by using the same table ware, toilet articles or clothing of one in whose blood the treacherous virus has taken root. Not only is it a powerful poison but a very deceptive one. Only those who have learned by bitter experience know by the little sore or ulcer, which usually makes its appearance first, of the suffering which is to follow. It comes in the form of ulcerated mouth and throat, unsightly copper colored spots, swollen glands in the groin, falling hair, offensive sores and ulcers on the body, and in severe cases the finger nails drop off, the bones become diseased, the nervous system is shattered and the sufferer becomes an object of pity to his fellow man. Especially is the treacherous nature of Contagious Blood Poison, shown when the infected person endeavors to combat the poison with mercury and potash. These minerals will drive away all outward symptoms of the troubles for a while, and the victim is deceived into the belief that he is cured. When, however, the treatment is left off he finds that the poison has only been driven deeper into the blood and the disease reappears, and usually in worse form because these strong minerals have not only failed to remove the virus from the blood but have weakened the entire system because of their destructive action. S. S. S. is the only real and certain cure for Contagious Blood Poison. It is made of a combination of healing blood-purifying roots, herbs and barks, the best in Nature's great laboratory of forest and field. We offer a reward of $1,000 for proof that S. S. S. contains a particle of mineral in any form. S. S. S. goes down to the very bottom of the trouble and by cleansing the blood of every particle of the virus and adding rich, healthy qualities to this vital fluid, forever cures this powerful disorder. So thoroughly does S. S. S. cleanse the circulation that no signs of the disease are ever seen again, and offspring is protected.
