

happenings at Madras.

John B. Brown of Haystack was in town yesterday.

W. E. Parrish of Haycreek was in town on Tuesday.

Joseph H. Stuart and wife were in town Monday from Youngs.

Mrs. R. Parrish of Haycreek visited Madras during the week.

Jim Garrett of Buzard Ridge was in Madras last Tuesday on his way to Paulina.

A. Zell of Prineville has been looking over his interests in this vicinity during the week.

Bert Clark of Blizzard Ridge was in town last Monday, buying supplies from local merchants.

G. Springer of Culver was in town last Monday, looking after business matters at the Grizzly Lake sawmill.

The front of the building occupied by the Madras Trading Company is receiving a new coat of paint, which greatly improves the appearance of it.

Miles W. Bennett left yesterday afternoon for Batavia, Iowa, where he will visit his family and spend the winter. He expects to return to Madras next spring.

Mrs. Ada DeGraw, who has been visiting in Hood River for some time, returned Tuesday evening to her home with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gillett of Madras.

C. E. McIntosh, a representative of the Dalles Marble & Granite Works, was in town the first of the week, delivering and setting up three tombstones in the Adams Cemetery.

Miss J. Overton and Miss Ruth Reid of Madras were in town yesterday. Miss Reid was on her way to Hood River, being summoned by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. F. O. Minor, of Bend.

E. F. Hasenyaeger of Long Island, Texas, is visiting at the home of John Miller on Agency Plains. He expects to visit in this section a short while longer, then to go to the Willamette Valley for the winter before returning to Kansas.

E. V. Wilson and family, who have been residing in Portland for the past year, returned to Madras yesterday afternoon and will make their home here.

Jack Osborn, who is a brother of Mrs. Osborn, went in to Shaniko to meet them.

Postmaster Davis has received a supply of money order blanks, and is now prepared to issue orders. He has been a very official this week, making out orders and related remittances as this was the opportunity to buy a money order to weeks.

Canada Montgomery of Grizzly was in town several days during the week, being with his granddaughters, Mrs. Jack Osborn and Mrs. Howard Turner.

Montgomery is one of the pioneer settlers of the county, having been a resident of Crook County for over thirty years.

Willis W. Brown was in town last Friday from the Vesicle & Brown cattle ranch near Heister. He says they are raising about three hundred steers for sale at the ranch now, and they have already turned off one bunch, which were to the Union Meat Company about a month ago.

It is reported that the Mount Hood people have bought the Laidlaw (Cooks County) townsite, and will immediately proceed to push their line through into Oregon. One thing is sure—no more being wasted on construction in this portion of the country, the mills all being kept busy Sunday as well as week days.—Gresham Herald.

Prof. A. S. McDonald, who has been spending several weeks on his home on Agency Plains, expects to return to the city in the next day or so, to resume duties in the public school at that place. His family is comfortably settled on the homestead, and will remain there during the winter. Mr. McDonald expects to return to the homestead next week.

During the first two weeks of the state fair, county clerks throughout the county were refusing to accept instruments of record, and business was piling up at that rate. Attorney General Crawford rendered an opinion that these offices should be open for the purpose of recording instruments, since which time the county clerk has been an official who has been allowed to enjoy a holiday.

Mr. Marnach, one of the progressive farmers of this district, is arranging to have a deep well drilled on his place west of Madras in the near future.

It has been hauling water from Madras to the ranch and household purposes, and it is of time incident to this method of hauling a water supply, handicaps him in farm work. The cost of the well would be saved in the additional work he can do at the ranch, besides the convenience of having a good supply of water at home.

J. H. Horney was a visitor at the county seat last week.

Ed Kutcher was in town last Saturday from his home near Haycreek.

Born, to the wife of J. E. Wilson, Thursday, November 21, a daughter.

Perne Bishop, who is attending school here, has gone to Wapinitia to spend the Thanksgiving holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bishop.

Fred Strasser and Henry Grob left last week for the Bend, where they have employment in one of the construction camps of the Deschutes Irrigation & Power Company.

C. B. Dinwiddie, county school superintendent, was in Madras last Saturday, arranging the program for the educational meeting to be held at this place on Saturday November 30.

D. H. Putnam, who has been spending the summer in Portland, returned to his homestead near here the last of the week. He was accompanied by a brother, who will also make his residence in this locality.

Bert Dombrowe is building a comfortable seven-room dwelling house on his ranch southwest of Madras. The house will be completed before the winter sets in, and will be a substantial improvement at Mr. Dombrowe's farm.

Fred Stolker and wife, who have been spending some time at their place near the Lyle & Brown gap, left the last of the week for North Yakima, Washington, where they expect to remain several months. Mr. Stolker has finished fall seeding at his place.

The Madras Milling Company is running its mill at this place full fifteen hours each day, and finds a ready market for all of its products as rapidly as they can be turned out. Much of it is being marketed in the communities south of here, and "Madras Flour" is acquiring an enviable reputation wherever it is known.
