

happenings at Madras.

Will Barber was in town last Saturday from Culver.

O. E. Spinks was in town last Thursday from Culver.

Born to the wife of J. P. Banta Thursday April 9, 1908, a son.

Born to the wife of D. A. Cook Thursday, April 9, 1908, a son.

Born to the wife of W. H. Hannan on April 9, 1908, a daughter.

J. H. O'Kelley of Haycreek was in town the last of the week.

Harry Lantus of Prineville, was a visitor in Madras last Monday.

Mrs. R. Parrish and her son, Raleigh, were in town Saturday from Haycreek.

L. L. Nichols was in town the latter part of the week from his ranch near Culver.

Frank Forrest was in town the last of the week from his home on Crooked Creek.

Frank Osborn has moved his land office to the new stage office, near the hotel.

A. Y. Banta of Culver, was in Madras Thursday, as witness for Carl Schrieber in a land case.

Miss Della Z. Sweeting, matron at the camping Indian school, spent the end of the week in Madras.

Sam Hamilton, who has been spending several weeks in this locality, returned home at Ashwood last Sunday.

Mrs. M. E. Percival returned Saturday morning from her ranch near Youngs, where she has been spending the week.

Zell of Prineville, has been visiting on Agency Plains during the week, and looking after his interests in that section.

V. P. Myers, candidate for the republican nomination for prosecuting attorney, returned through Madras last Monday on way to Portland.

V. R. Cook, candidate for the democratic nomination for county school superintendent, was in town last Saturday, accompanied by Mrs. Cook.

Miss J. H. Horney, Mrs. G. W. Kidder and Mrs. L. A. Hunt attended the amatory contest of the high school at Ashwood last Friday evening.

Mr. J. F. Blanchard, candidate for republican nomination for county assessor, has been spending several days in vicinity during the week in the interest of his candidacy.

C. Rice of Haycreek, candidate for republican nomination for county commissioner, attended lodge in Madras last Saturday evening. Mr. Rice has no opposition for the office of commissioner.

Edward W. Turner was in town last Saturday from his ranch near Powell, accompanied by Mrs. Turner. They have been spending several days in Madras.

A. Foster, candidate for the democratic nomination for county assessor, was in Madras the first of the week. Foster's opponent for the democratic nomination is the present incumbent, T. M. Follette.

Springer, democratic candidate for senator from the 17th senatorial district, was in town last Saturday. Mr. Springer is a strong advocate of statehood, and will make that a prominent feature in his campaign.

F. King, candidate for the republican nomination for county treasurer, has been spending several days in this locality the latter part of the week. Mr. King has had a very satisfactory manner, and is a candidate for a second term.

Schreiber of Friend, in Wasco, was in town last Thursday, looking after his contest against the C. O. homestead near Culver. The contest was filed on the ground of abandonment and the defendant failed to put in appearance at the hearing at this place Thursday.

Person Brothers, stockmen of the Crook county today had a head of horses and ponies to be shipped by boat, where they expect to sell them throughout the valley.

There is a pony craze in that portion of the Oregon product—the Dalles.

Bonney of Tygh Valley, spent several days in this vicinity during the week. He says that the Great Southfork road has announced that it will be extended from Dufur to the Dalles, and the residents of the country are expecting the extension to be completed during the present year.

ing of the mail service to this section. Bonney says we have an incomparably better service than they have at Portland although only 30 miles from The Dalles.

Portland papers reach Tygh just a few hours later than they do Madras.

John B. Brown was in town Tuesday from Haystack.

G. L. Paxton was in town last Tuesday from Fisherville.

Mrs. John A. Peck was in town from Opal Prairie yesterday.

Joe Mendenhall was in town Tuesday from the Culver country.

Walter Parrish was in town Tuesday from his ranch near Haycreek.

Bert Loomis was in town Tuesday from his ranch on the north end of the plains.

Mordock McDonald, a rancher from the Blizzard Ridge country, was in town last Tuesday.

Mrs. J. C. Robinson went to Antelope Tuesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brogan.

A. Eagles arrived Sunday evening from Centralia, Wash., and will spend some time in this vicinity looking after his ranch.

J. Duff McAndie, a prominent stockman from the Antelope country, was in town yesterday on his way to the Warm-spring agency.

James W. Hurt went to Shaniko Tuesday to meet Mrs. Hurt, who is returning from a visit to the Willamette Valley. They arrived home this morning.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold Clark were in town last Monday from Lamonta. Dr. Clark is farming quite extensively in the Lamonta country, and he has recently also bought the O'Kelly ranch, an improved property of 240 acres, over at the head of Hay creek.

It is brought together for a long cruise at a moment's notice, but it has called the attention of the people of our own country to the fact that we have a Pacific coast as well as an Atlantic coast, and that it will be defended just as much as every inch of land around New York, and that our interests in the Pacific today are greater than in the Atlantic.

H. F. Jones of Redmond, candidate for the republican nomination for county assessor, was in town the first of the week.

Mr. Jones says that if he is elected assessor he is going to institute a number of reforms in county taxation, the first of which will be a more full, fair and equitable assessment of the property in the county, much of which he says has escaped taxation in the past.

The meeting of persons interested in forming a Grange at this place held in Sanford's hall on the 13th, was adjourned to Saturday evening next, when the organization will take place. All persons interested in the financial, social and moral advancement of the community are cordially invited to be present and become members of the organization.

F. E. Hilton of San Diego, California, was in Madras the latter part of the week, looking over this section with a view to engaging in business at this point. He was well pleased with the surrounding country, and with Madras as the principal business point of this section, and expects to return to this section some time in June.

The Madras Milling Company started up their flouring mill last Monday morning, after being idle for several months. Mr. Deitzel, secretary of the company, says they have enough wheat on hand to run them for some time, and for the present they are not buying any wheat. The mill will be kept in operation steadily now, until the season's grinding is finished.

Married, at Prineville, Sunday, April 12, 1908, Miss Emma Fleck and Mr. S. A. McLean, both of Madras, Rev. C. A. Housel officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. S. E. Fleck, and has resided in this vicinity for several years past. The groom, known to his friends here as "Scotty" McLean, is a young rancher, also of this locality. Mr. and Mrs. McLean will make their home near Madras.

A new manager has been chosen by the Deschutes Irrigation & Power Company in the person of Mr. Roscoe Howard of Tacoma, who took up his residence at Bend last week. Mr. Howard is a practical irrigation man, having been connected with the Sunnyside project in Washington, and his connection with the irrigation project south of this place will mean much for that enterprise. He says that work on the construction of the Powell Buttes canal and laterals will be pushed to completion at once.

FROM COUNTYSEAT EXCHANGES
CROOK COUNTY JOURNAL

Dave W. Barnett of Culver, visited in Prineville during the week.

Barney Cummings and Harry Corwin, young ranchers from the Culver district, were in town yesterday.

U. S. Commissioner Frank Osborn and F. M. Loveland were in town the first of the week attending to business matters.

Peter Marnach of Madras, was in Prineville yesterday on business. He brought up with him his fine Percheron stallion, Prince Corbet, which attracted favorable notice of all the horsemen who saw him.

CLASSIFIED LOCALS

FOR SALE—Seven fancy bred pigs, English Yorkshire crossed with Poland China, thoroughbred on both sides. Five boars and two sows. For prices and particulars see G. L. Paxton, six miles north of Madras on Shaniko road. m19-a9

OLIVER TYPEWRITERS.—We are agents and can give you good terms on a machine. J. C. & M. A. Robinson, Madras. tf

SPRING and SUMMER Goods. J. C. & M. A. Robinson will receive a full line within two weeks. Latest patterns and styles of ladies' dress goods. You are invited to call and inspect them.

STEAM ROLLING—Have your grain steam rolled or dry rolled. I have good new equipment, capacity 15 tons daily. Prices: Steam rolling, $2.50 per ton; dry rolling, $2.00 per ton. J. C. Waymire, Madras, Or. o24tf

REPAIRS FOR MCCORMICK line of machinery. Parties wanting them should leave orders with J. C. & M. A. Robinson so they can be ordered now and delay avoided.

A complete supply of legal blanks for sale including warranty and quit claim deeds, real, chattel and crop mortgages, etc. Justice court blanks and justice court work a specialty. Notary Public. —F. J. Brooks.

BAIN WAGONS for sale by J. C. & M. A. Robinson, Madras. See them for prices.

ONE 6 HORSE POWER and one 12-horse power gasoline engine for sale at a bargain. J. C. & M. A. Robinson, Madras. tf

CATTLE FOR SALE. 35 head of stock cattle; all young. Some good steers among them. A. V. Warren, Haycreek, Oregon.

FOR SALE—Brood sow and eight pigs; good stock hogs, Poland China and Berkshire; pigs about one month old, $6 per pair; will not be sold singly. W. F. Fields, Madras. 2t

SHOES SEE MY LINE

Heavy Work Shoes for Men
School Shoes for Children
QUALITY AND PRICES RIGHT

B. S. LARKIN
MADRAS, OREGON

ELK DRUG STORE

Carries a good line of fresh drugs and patents. Prescription work and family recipes made a specialty

T. A. LONG
Physician and Druggist
MADRAS, OREGON

BEND - SHANIKO LIVERY, STAGE & STABLE COMP'NY

J. H. WENANDY, PROPRIETOR

Daily Stages to Shaniko and Bend.
Livery Service in Connection. Stables at Madras, Shaniko and Bend

FOR PARTICULARS AND RATES SEE
FRANK OSBORN
Agent
Madras, Oregon

UNIVERSAL Stoves, Ranges, Heaters

Try One, You'll Find It The Best You Ever Bought At Any price

SOLD BY

McTaggart & Bye

Hardware, Groceries
Implements
MADRAS, OR

Edward C. Pease Co.

EVERYBODY'S STORE.

SHANIKO, ORE.
(INCORPORATED)

NEW STOCK OF Shoes

We have just received our new Spring stock of shoes and have all the latest shapes and best makes, combined with highest quality. We handle the largest stock in this territory, and can guarantee a perfect fit at reasonable prices

WIRE

A carload of wire has arrived and we are prepared to fill your orders for BARBED WIRE, STEEL FENCE, BALE WIRE, STAPLES and POULTRY NETTING. We will be pleased to quote prices on wire

Edward C. Pease Co., Inc. SHANIKO, OREGON

A. C. SANFORD

Successor to Sanford, Sill & Company

General Merchandise

Agent for Syracuse Chilled Plows, Schuttler and Moline Wagons and the "John Deere lines"

My prices are right and I will take wheat at Shaniko prices less the freight, on all goods I handle or carry

MADRAS, - OREGON

A. M. WILLIAMS & CO

DEALERS IN

Dry Goods, Clothing,
Furnishing Goods

BOOTS AND SHOES
HATS AND CAPS

THE DALLES

OREGON

List your property

WITH
OSBORN & WILSON
Madras, Oregon

We handle all kinds of real estate, and have a number of bargains to offer.

MADRAS MEAT MARKET

JAMES W. HURT, PROPRIETOR

FRESH AND CURED MEATS
Fish, Vegetables and Country Produce

MADRAS,

OREGON