

Evenings at Madras.

Head of Culver, was in town last Tuesday, from the North end of the plains.

W. J. Cowherd and family expect to leave today for Hood River, where they will find employment during the Summer gathering fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Kane came down to Culver Wednesday to attend the Wright-Osborn nuptials, the groom being a brother of Mrs. O'Kane.

Mr. L. A. Hunt requests us to announce that the Madras district Sunday school convention will convene at Madras Wednesday, June 17, instead on the 19th, as announced in our last issue.

G. Springer, candidate for the state senate, returned the last of the week from an extensive campaigning trip throughout the 17th senatorial district, composed of Crook, Klamath and Lake counties. He spoke at a number of points in both Lake and Klamath counties, on the issues of the campaign, and expressed himself as very well pleased with the reception accorded him. Judging from the tone of the comment on his candidacy by the various Lake and Klamath county papers, Mr. Springer made a very favorable impression in those counties, which is gratifying to his many friends in his home county, who appreciate his worth as a man and citizen. Mrs. Springer accompanied her husband on the trip.

WRIGHT-OSBORN

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated Wednesday, May 27, 1908, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Osborn near Culver, when their daughter, Miss Eva Frances Osborn, was united in marriage to Mr. Earl Wright, a young business man of Bend, Justice O. G. Colver officiating. The ceremony was performed at noon, in the presence of a number of the relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom, and after the ceremony a delightful wedding dinner was served by Mrs. Osborn to the wedding party and their guests.

The bride, who is a native daughter of Crook county, has endeared herself to a wide circle of friends by her many charms of mind and person, and the groom was showered with congratulations upon his good fortune in winning so charming a helpmate. Mr. and Mrs. Wright left on the Wednesday afternoon stage for the railroad, on their way to Portland, where they will spend their honeymoon, and where later Mr. Wright expects to engage in business. Quite a number of their friends gathered to shower them with rice as the stage departed.

LAMONTA WINS FROM MADRAS

The Lamonta and Madras baseball teams crossed bats on the local diamond last Sunday afternoon for the first game of ball played in Madras this season. The Madras team had not been reorganized this year, but when the challenge came from Lamonta the members of the old team got together and prepared to introduce the boys from the town at the foot of old Grizzly to a real fine exhibition of the national game as it should be played. Lack of practice proved their undoing, however, the Lamonta team winning by a score of 13 to 5. The line up was as follows:

MADRAS		LAMONTA
Cook	C	McMeen
Jackson	P	Matson
C Diney	SS	C McKenzie
Tucker	1b	Wiltzie
G Diney	2b	Armstrong
F Zell	3b	E McKenzie
Galloway	Cf	Foster
Gard	Lf	C Moore
Wilson	Rf	Moore
