principal of the Prineville public school for the past year, returned to his home this place last Sunday, the school at Prineville having ended last Friday.
L. Lovell and W. H. Hess went to Salem last Friday, to see the oil "prospects" which the Madras Oil Company expects to sink its first well. Mr.
Hess returned to his home at Shaniko Monday.
McCorkle brought over the news from Wamspring Tuesday, on his way to Prineville with the returns. Wamspring gave Sheriff Elkins a vote of 24, and Mr. Ellis carried the precinct by 15 to 3 for Robinson.
