C. M. Dixney left Tuesday for Pendleton, where he has a position.

George Stevens of Sisters, was visiting in Madras the first of the week.

C. C. Lamson and J. K. Mendenhall were in town yesterday from the Culver country.

W. W. Brown of Heister, attended the Fourth of July dance in Madras last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson went to Prineville last Friday evening to participate in the big celebration at the county seat on the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Akeyson attended the dance in Madras last Saturday evening. Mr. Akeyson, who has a position in Portland, is at home visiting his family for a few days.

S. D. Percival and family spent the Fourth picnicking on Crooked River at the Cove. They camped over night, returning next day. Quite a number of people from this locality spent the Fourth at the Cove.

The weather has been extremely hot during the past week, the thermometer registering between 95 and 100 degrees for three or four days. Last Tuesday was the warmest day, when the mercury got up to 98 degrees in the shade.

Manager Ross and F. M. Loveland are in town to attend a meeting of the Madras Oil & Gas Company. The well which the company is sinking is down about 150 feet, but drilling has been suspended for a few days to await the arrival of casing.

Charles Waterhouse has leased from J. C. Waymire the latter's pumping plant and chopping mill, and took possession of the outfit on July 1. His lease runs for one year. Mr. Waymire and family will probably go to Pullman, Washington, for a visit with relatives.

Julius A. Larsen is reported very ill on Agency plains with typhoid fever. He is being taken care of by some of his neighbors at the house on the Isaac Serier ranch, and Dr. Long is attending him. While his condition has been quite serious for several days, Dr. Long says that the typhoid is in a mild form, and that he is getting along as well as could be hoped for.

Mrs. John Hoffman has advertised an auction sale of farming implements and household goods at her home Wednesday July 15. There will also be some livestock and chickens disposed of at the sale. Col. W. H. Reynolds will auction the goods off. Mrs. Hoffman is disposing of her household effects and other personal property preparatory to going to Spokane to join her husband.

J. W. Ross, manager for the Madras Oil & Gas Co., was in town the last of the week from Lamonta, where the company is prospecting for oil. Mr. Ross says work is progressing smoothly, though slowly, the size of the hole they are drilling making the work necessarily slow. It was their intention to drill a 12 inch hole, but owing to the character of the formation the hole has widened out and it is nearer 20 inches. The hole was down about 150 feet the last of the week.

George H. Osborn and Robert Osborn were in town from Culver last Tuesday.

Charles Foote has accepted a position as salesman for J. C. & M. A. Robinson and went to work for them last Monday.

There was a goodly number of responses to the invitation to the "church raising" Tuesday and yesterday and the framework for the superstructure of the new Methodist church building was completed. The work on the new building will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

A. D. Anderson and Misses Susie Anderson, Ellie Taylor, Myrthena Taylor and Eva Loving drove over to Foley springs in the Blue mountains last Friday and spent two days there picnicking, returning home Sunday evening. They were joined at the springs by a small party of friends from Ashwood.
