

Arrivals at Madras.

Edna Armstrong was in town Tuesday from the Lamonta country.

Henry Reed and Miss Golda Cleek were from Culver last Saturday.

Howard W. Turner was in town last Saturday from his home near Powell.

C. V. Wilson and family left today for the River, where they expect to reside in the future.

George T. Rowan of Culver, has leased the Madras barber shop, and took possession Monday.

Miss Katie Brogan of Antelope, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Robinson, in town this week.

Mr. Fred McDowell of Culver, who has been visiting relatives in Madras for the past week, returned home Sunday.

A. J. Ringo and family left Tuesday morning for Mulino in Clackamas county. They expect to be gone three weeks or more.

E. E. Wilson, who is conducting a hardware shop at Prineville, came down the river of the week to spend a few days in Madras.

Russ Hood was in Madras during the week from Prineville, where he has employment. He returned to Prineville last Sunday.

Miss Gladys Sanford returned last Saturday from Portland, where she has been pursuing her musical studies for several months past.

C. Robinson and family, Mrs. J. W. Robinson, Mrs. Linna Wood and Miss Brogan spent last Sunday at the Springs agency.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Covey returned Sunday to their home at the Warm Springs agency, after a month's visit with relatives at Jamestown, Indiana.

Mr. Frank Osborn returned last Saturday from Grizzly, where she has been visiting her grandfather, Mr. Canada Montgomery, for a week or more.

E. W. Roberts, a rancher from the Madras country, was in town last Saturday on his way to The Dalles. Mr. Roberts is interested in the sawmill business near Madras.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Coe of Shaniko, were in town Monday, on their way home to Oniel. Mr. Coe is now connected with the Eastern Oregon bank at Shaniko.

L. A. Hunt of Culver, was in town the last of the week. Mr. Hunt is going into business in Madras, and expects to move here and make his residence here about the middle of September.

W. Reed of Portland, was in town Monday and filed upon a homestead in the Opal Prairie country. Mr. Reed expects to remain here, and will reside upon his homestead.

E. Llewellyn and family, accompanied by Miss Katherine Herring, left last Sunday for the mountains, where they expect to enjoy an outing for three weeks or more. They will camp most of the time in the neighborhood of Clear Lake.

Ten passengers left here on Tuesday morning's stage for Bend, where they were going to assist in fighting the forest fires raging near that place. A number of men have also been brought from Madras for the same purpose. The fires south of Bend cover a large area and the men are making great headway through the dry timber.

T. A. Hudson and his son of The Dalles, were in town last Sunday and Monday on their way home from Bend, where the former adjusted the insurance on the Lumster sawmill which recently was destroyed by fire. Mr. Hudson drove over considerable territory adjacent to Madras during his visit here, and stated that he was agreeably surprised at the crop prospects, which he says are better than in Sherman, Morrow or Gilliam counties.

J. T. Alexander of Portland, who owns a half section of land on Agency Plains, spent several days in this locality during the week. He has just returned from a survey through the wheat districts of Eastern Oregon, and says the Madras country looks very good to him, compared with other sections he has visited. He owned a half section in the Big Bend country, and also in Gilliam county, but has just sold his interests in both places.

Edward DeHaven was in town Tuesday from his home near the mouth of Trout Creek. Mr. DeHaven has lived in the past eight years on a tract of unimproved land, holding it by a squatter's right. He applied for a survey about six years ago, and in 1904 the land was surveyed. The following year the survey was inspected and doubtless approved as a new survey has been made, but although three years have elapsed since the time the plats of the land have never been filed so that the land could be Dave W. Barnett is bookkeeper at A. C. Sanford's this week.

B. S. Larkin has rented the Turner building on Main street, and moved his harness shop and stock of shoes and leather goods into it the first of the week.

W. F. Hammer returned to Albany yesterday, after spending a week in this locality looking after his business interests. He owns considerable land in the Haystack country. Mr. Hammer is now engaged in business at Albany.

L. A. Hunt and Robert Galloway have rented the blacksmith shop formerly conducted by A. W. Culp. They will put in some new machinery and fit the place up for a first class blacksmithing and repair shop, and expect to open for business by the middle of September.

Charles T. Pembroke was in town last Thursday on his way to Lamonta, where he is drilling a well on the Asa Misher place. Mr. Pembroke has a homestead on Agency Plains, having purchased the relinquishment of the quarter known as the Edie Fisher homestead.

John E. Reichen returned last week from Salem, where he recently graduated from Willamette University. He will spend the remainder of the Summer vacation at his home near this place, after which he will go to Tillamook, where he has a position as teacher of history in the high school.

Miles W. Bennett and family, who have been spending the past year at their old home at Batavia, Iowa, returned to Madras Tuesday. Mr. Bennett owns a quarter section of land Southwest of this place. He is looking for a house to rent in Madras, and expects to live in town this winter in order that his children may attend school.

A. W. Moses and wife, recently of Corvallis, were in Madras last Saturday, being enroute to Warm Springs agency, where Mr. Moses has accepted the position of agency clerk and his wife that of seamstress. Mr. Moses has been in Government Indian service since 1888, and has held positions from North Dakota to Arizona, his last station having been in Colorado.

Properties of the Canadian Pacific and Great Northern railways destroyed, the bridges and rolling stock burned so that it is impossible to enter or leave the burning area.

There is no possibility of estimating the loss of life and property which will result, for the flames are driven by half gale, making it impossible to put up a fight against their advance.

The conflagration in the greater which has ever reached Canada at Dr. T. A. Long and family left last Sunday for Medford, Oregon, where they expect to reside in the future. Dr. Long was among the first settlers on Agency Plains, and while residing upon his homestead practiced his profession in the community. Last year he made proof upon his homestead and moved down to Madras. He and his family have many friends in this locality, whose good wishes will follow them to their new home.

A Good Clubbing Offer
We have arranged for a clubbing rate with the publishers of Campbell's Scientific Farmer and are able to offer it to our subscribers for only 50 cents in addition to the subscription price of the Pioneer. This offer applies to both new subscriptions and renewals of old subscriptions. The Scientific Farmer is edited by Mr. H. W. Campbell, the originator of what is known as the "Campbell system" of dry farming. His magazine is filled with useful information for the farmer in sections where the rainfall is deficient or irregular, and every farmer in this section should be a subscriber. The regular subscription price is $1 per year.

Please do not ask for credit, but bring your cash and get more goods for the same money.—A. C. Sanford.

SCREEN DOORS.—A full stock on hand; prices are right. You need one or two, at once.—A. C. Sanford.

We are agents for THE ROYAL TAILORS OF CHICAGO

Your Candidate!
FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Cannot protect your interests as a citizen more fully than your interests as a Buyer of Clothes protected by Joseph Vehon, president of The Royal Tailors, when he says:

"I want to make you the swellest suit of clothes you ever wore. A suit that will fit you to a 'T.' You to be the sole judge of the suit both as to fit and to style. I will take the responsibility. I will give you a legal guarantee that your suit will ALWAYS hold its good fit and style. Not for a few days or months, but ALWAYS, from the day you first wear the suit until you cast it aside--worn out. Why don't other tailors give the guarantee I do? Because they do not know how to make clothes that will stand up under the guarantee."

We have taken orders here for more than 50 suits and we have never had the slightest complaint about the fit or style. Our customers are delighted with their suits. New Fall Samples comprising over 400 different kinds of material just received. Let us take your order for a suit for Fall or Winter.
