Henry Windom of Culver was in town last Saturday morning on his way to Corvallis to join his family. Mr. Windom is and his family are residing in Corvallis while two sons are attending the Agricultural College.

Arthur Page came down from Bend last Friday afternoon, and is spending several days in Madras with Robert Rea. Mr. Page was transitman in the Central Oregon surveying party which ran the line between this place and Bend.

Rev. G. R. Morehead will hold regular preaching services Sunday Nov. 7, morning and evening. Dr. Walton Skipworth will hold quarterly conference November 3 at 2 p. m.; preaching at 7:30, and will administer the sacrament of the Lord's supper.

Harry W. Cooke of Shaniko was a visitor in Madras last Friday. Mr. Cooke owns a ranch 10 miles South of Shaniko on the Prineville road. He says the Hartman interests have a right of way agent buying right of way along the Deschutes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Boyce of Culver were in town last Friday. While here they decided to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Livingston the 40 acre tract lying in the flat just North of the Green Hotel. With the completion of the railroad to Madras this tract will become valuable town property.

The Crook County Sunday School Convention will be held in Prineville November 13, 14 and 15. Rev. Charles A. Phipps, state Sunday school field secretary, will co-operate with the local workers in making this the most successful meeting ever held in the county. Every Sunday school worker and interested citizen of the county should plan to attend if possible, as the meeting will be a very interesting one.

Grand Master Ed Hostetter, of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., was in Madras last Thursday evening, paying an official visit to the local lodge. A special meeting of the lodge was called for the occasion and after the meeting, supper was served to the lodge and their guest. Mr. Hostetter is visiting all the lodges in his jurisdiction, including the lodges in the interior. He went from this place to Laidlaw, and then to Prineville, and expected to cross the mountains to Mitchell.

MICRO

ITCHING SCALP DANDRUFF AND FALLING HAIR

are but outward signs of the evil done in secret by myriads of dandruff germs sapping the life blood of the hair. Micro kills the parasite, soothes the itching scalp, gives lustre to the hair and stops it falling out. A single application gives relief and proves its worth. Save your hair before too late. Micro prevents baldness. It is a delightful dressing for the hair, free from grease and sticky oils. Ask your druggist for free booklet.
