

Meetings at Madras.

Robert Armstrong is in town today from the Lamonta country.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold Clark were in town from Lamonta yesterday.

Alex Houk and wife were in town yesterday from their home near Culver.

The result of the election on the Warm-spring reservation was Taft 14, Bryan 7, Debs 1. That is keeping up the average pretty well.

W. S. Williams, who went to Bend with a load of freight last week, returned Monday. He brought back from the desert a fine load of red Juniper wood.

Mrs. C. O. Lee of Albany arrived here last Thursday morning and has joined her husband at their new home South of this place. Mr. Lee was in town from the ranch the last of the week.

Theodore Hartnagel left yesterday for The Dalles. He drove through with a four horse load of bluestem wheat which he will dispose of in The Dalles, and will bring back a big load of fruit.

Mrs. J. C. Robinson left Saturday afternoon for Antelope, where she will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hogan. She also expects to go to Portland for a short visit before returning to Madras.

Professor Ashby, principal of the Prineville public school, was visiting in Madras last Saturday. The professor is already an enthusiastic admirer of Oregon's climate, and says there is a pleasing tract of country between Madras and Prineville.

Mrs. M. E. Percival and Nita Davis were given a birthday party and dinner by Mrs. M. E. Snook Tuesday afternoon. Little Camilla Percival, whose birthday was on November 4, was also a guest. They received several tokens of remembrance from their friends.

G. Springer of Culver was in town the last of the week, looking after business matters for the Grizzly Lake sawmill and scattering Bryan literature. He was carrying two grips, the smaller one of which he said represented his business, and the larger one his politics. The political grip was larger than the one devoted to business at the ratio of 16 to 1.

George Nelson, a brother of W. F. Nelson, promoter of the Oregon Trunk Line railroad up the Deschutes, was a visitor in town last Thursday. Mr. Nelson has been winding up a few tight of way matters for the Oregon Trunk Line. He says work on the location of the line up the river is progressing in a satisfactory manner, and the survey will soon be completed.

John Mayes lost a purse containing $50 in currency last Sunday evening, while driving along the road which runs through by the George Richardson place. When he discovered his loss next morning he immediately went back over the road but was unable to find the purse. Later in the day he came to town and was hooded the purse and his $50 by B. S. Larkin, who had found it while driving along the road, which he uses in going to and from his office. Mr. Larkin had left word at several places in town that he had found a purse which could be had by the owner upon identification of the purse and contents. Mr. Mayes is very lucky in having had his purse fall into honest hands.

Warren of Haycreek was in town on business.

W. Boyce was in town the first of the week from Haystack.

H. Osborn was visiting in town last Sunday.

Helfrich of Lamonta was a visitor here last Thursday.

C. Lucas, a hotel keeper from Bend, was in town Monday evening.

McGhee and daughter of Lamonta were in town last Thursday.

Webb of Prineville was in town and voted in this precinct.

Frank Elkins was a visitor in town Monday from the county seat.

McCorm was down from Culver last evening to attend the dance.

Vibbert was in town last Friday from the North end of Agency.

Brogan of Antelope was in town the last of the week. He came over after grain.

Sante Brogan of Antelope visited with J. C. Robinson in Madras the last of the week.

Lindsay came over from his home Haycreek Tuesday to participate in the election.

New pupils entered the Madras school Monday, increasing the attendance to over hundred.

W. Brown of Heister was in town Friday evening and attended a women's party.

Tiffany was over from the Agency yesterday, on his way to the county seat.

McKay, a large timber owner from Bend country, was in town Monday on his way to the railroad.

Church, who is working at Haycreek in town an election day. He went to cast his first vote.

Page, who spent last week here at Robert Rea, left last Thursday for his home in Portland.

Mary Pantow of Warm-springs was here yesterday. She came over to look on a timber claim over on the bank.

DeShazer, formerly Miss Armstrong, made final proof on her land before Commissioner Osborn the last of the week.

Nov. 8, services will be held at the View schoolhouse on Agency street at 11 a. m., followed by the sacrament of the Lord's supper.

A crowd of young people came to the Haycreek, Culver and Lamonta and the Halloween party at San Bull last Friday evening.

Farrell and wife were in town Monday. Mr. Farrell went to Culver yesterday on business connected with school district No. 68.

Mrs. Dickey were in Madras Saturday from Warm-spring. Mr. Dickey is in charge of the missionary work of the Warm-spring agency.

Kutcher came over Tuesday from his home near Haycreek to vote. This was named for Mr. Kutcher, who was one of the pioneer settlers in this section.

P. Schauble, who has been working on the Columbia river for a few years, returned to Madras last week, residing on his homestead South of town.

Family of J. T. Robinson have moved from Culver and are occupying the Isham dwelling house. Mr. Robinson is bookkeeper for J. C. & M. Robinson.

C. Ward of Antelope was in town making final proof upon his land near that place. He was accompanied by L. E. Ransdell and F. J. Smith as witnesses.

H. Arensmeyer, who is one of the teachers in the Prineville public school, was in Madras last Saturday. He came to make final proof on his homestead Southwest of this place.

McTaggart left Tuesday morning for Portland, where he will spend several weeks after business matters. He was accompanied to Portland by Mrs. McTaggart and the children.

Walter Skipworth, presiding elder of the Columbia river conference of the church, held quarterly conference in Madras Tuesday. Rev. Skipworth services in the Madras church Tuesday evening.

Robert Rea are re staking the townsite. The old stakes, put in the townsite was first laid out, have all disappeared and it was becoming difficult to locate some of the corners. The new townsite will be re staked and driven in flush with the ground at all corners.

RICE-EADS NUPTIALS

Married, Wednesday Nov. 4, 1908, at noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Effie I. Eads and Mr. Walter S. Rice, both of Lamonta; the Rev. G. R. Morehead officiating. The bride is the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Esson Eads, who reside North of Lamonta, and the groom is a prominent young business man at that place. A number of the intimate friends of the bride and groom were present to witness the solemnization of the happy event, and a sumptuous repast was served to the bridal party and their guests after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Rice will reside at the bride's homestead North of Lamonta.

DIZNEY-NISSON NUPTIALS

At the home of the bride's father, Mr. H. K. Nisson, Monday evening, Nov. 2, 1908, Mr. Charles M. Dizney and Miss Lena Nisson were united in marriage, Rev. I. D. Brown of this place performing the marriage ceremony. Relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends of the family were present to witness the happy event.

Both the bride and groom are well known in Madras and have many friends here whose good wishes they will have for a full measure of happiness in their new estate. Mr. and Mrs. Dizney will reside in Madras.
