Hartnagel drove through to town last week with a load of blueberries, which he sold at one of the stores at that place for 88 cents per bushel. He returned last Sunday, bringing a load of fruit which he bought from the store. He brought back both blueberries and grapes, and they were as fine as any brought in here this season.

A social will be given at the schoolhouse Friday evening, Nov. 27. The program will begin at 7 o'clock and after the completion of the baskets will be sold to the children. Those who buy baskets from tickets for the dance at Culver will be given immediately. To others dance tickets will be given.

Thanksgiving service will be held in the schoolhouse. All the people of the town and community are requested to come and bring their dinner for a few hours together in old style. The luncheon will be in the lecture room. Services will begin at 11 o'clock, followed by dinner. A short program after dinner, and everybody.

Ridder had two small houses moved from his place South of town to the lots he recently bought in the Snook and Lockard tract. The houses were moved one at a time, on two wagons abreast, a long heavy pole across the frame of the house. The moving was very quick, and walking right along with the

ROUSH-HERRING

Friends of the contracting parties were pleasantly surprised Monday morning to learn of the marriage of Miss Katherine Herring and Mr. Chester E. Roush, which occurred at Prineville on Sunday evening. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. Dr. Dunsmore, pastor of the Prineville Presbyterian church, the happy event taking place at the Prineville Hotel in the presence of a few friends.

The bride and groom both reside in Madras, where they are extremely popular with a wide circle of friends. Mr. Roush has been a resident of Madras for four years, being engaged in general merchandising at this place for the past year, during which time he has built up a very prosperous business. The bride, whose home was formerly in Corvallis, Michigan, has resided in Madras for the past 15 months, having employment in Mr. Roush's store for the greater portion of that time, and the marriage Sunday evening was the happy culmination of a romance resulting from this association. The Pioneer joins a host of their friends in congratulations and good wishes.

Mr. Roush and his bride returned from Prineville Tuesday. They expect to make their home at Mrs. Roush's homestead near town.

WHITSETT-GROUT

Married Wednesday evening, November 11, 1908, at the home of the bride, Miss Esther May Grout and Herbert L. Whitsett, Rev. I. D. Brown performing the marriage rites, and a large number of the friends of the bride and groom being present to witness the happy event. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Grout, who reside in the Opal Prairie country, while the groom is a prosperous young rancher of that section. After the ceremony Wednesday evening a sumptuous wedding supper was served to the bridal party and their guests at the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. Whitsett will reside on Opal Prairie.

J. C. Robinson has bought a plat of ground 100x200 feet in size in the Snook and Lockard tract adjoining town. It is understood that Mr. Robinson expects to have a cottage built on the lots in the Spring, for use as a residence for himself and family.

HOHNFELD-HILL

Married at Tillamook, Friday, November 6, 1908, Mrs. Etha Hill of that place and Mr. Otto Hohlfeld of Madras. The bride and groom are both well known here, the groom being one of the progressive farmers in the Fisherville neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. Hohlfeld arrived home Wednesday night of last week and have taken up their residence at the groom's homestead.
