 Cowherd and family, who have been spending the past six months at their home at River, returned to their home at Madras Monday.

Della Sweeting, who has been at Madras, Wash., for a few months, returned to Madras last Friday and is residing on her homestead South of town.

Nellie Farrell of Youngs was in town a few days last week taking a teaching examination. She will probably teach next session of school in the Youngs district.

arrived, at the pastor's study directly west of the court house yesterday afternoon by Rev. Dr. Dunsmore, Alonzo of Lamonta and Miss Nora Joslin of Agaveek. The happy couple left at 10 o'clock for their home at Lamonta.—Prineville Review.

Grevel has returned to his home at Agency Plains, after an absence of nearly a year. He spent a portion of the time at Ellensburg, Washington, and spent in Hood River. Mr. Grevel is glad to get back in Crook county.

O'Kelly and family have moved to the George Rodman South of Madras. Mr. O'Kelly has the Rodman ranch and will cultivate the coming year. He says that he has over 400 acres in grain the coming season.

A. Taylor has purchased from Harvey the latter's quarter section of the little plains, the consideration being $2000. The land is all in crop in a fine condition, and Mr. Taylor acquired a fine property. He owns land in the same vicinity.

Christmas exercises and a Christmas dinner will be given at the M. E. church on December 24, Christmas eve. Invitations to bring presents and take part in the Christmas festivities. An interesting program is being prepared and promised a pleasant and profitable evening.

W. Brown was in town Tuesday from Heister. Mr. Brown conveys the report of the sale of right of way to the Deschutes river ranch to the tract road for $2500. He has not secured any deal for right of way with the Oregon Trunk Line people.

Clerk Warren Brown came from Haystack last Saturday and the day visiting with friends in Madras. Mr. Brown came down from Prineville a week or so at his home from the duties of his office, but returned to the county seat Sunday, his vacation of only two days.

T. J. J. and family are occupying the A. S. Phillips dwelling just west of town. Mr. J. is a recent arrival from North Dakota. He was unemployed a house in town this winter, vacated the Phillips house which is on the border of town. He and his family will reside here permanently.

A party of railroad engineers under the direction of the Deschutes river, finishing the final location of the Oregon Trunk Line. All of the line above Sherars has been located and about 30 miles below Sherars was located by a party of men two years ago. At that point, near Robt Villa, the line is being finished up to the mouth of the river.

J. C. Moelring, pastor of the Methodist church, was in town Monday and selected a lot for the location of the new church building which the Methodist expect to build in the near future. The lot was donated to the church by the townsite company, which has presented lots to all churches who will build churches in Madras. The lot upon which the church will be built is located on the east side of the town, three streets East of Main street, and is an attractive lot. Work upon the new building will start in the near future.

Perry Read was a visitor in town Tuesday from Culver.

A. P. Bradbury, a veteran traveling man, was in town yesterday.

S. E. Grey went to Prineville Monday, having business in the county court.

Mrs. M. E. Percival came to Madras Wednesday from her homestead and spent Thanksgiving day with friends in town.

A calaboose is being built in Madras this week as a place of detention for "bad men" who occasionally visit the village. The new bastille is being made large enough and strong enough to hold quite a number of guests, although it is hoped that the establishment will never be taxed to its full capacity. It was built by a subscription raised among the business men of Madras, and will occupy one of the Townsite Company's lots back of the Green Hotel.

WIN TURKEYS FOR THANKSGIVING

Competition was keen between local marksmen Tuesday in the annual turkey shoot which G. L. Paxton gave at this place. Fourteen turkeys were shot for, a number of the matches being very close, and the contests excited considerable interest, a good sized crowd going out to the grounds to witness the shooting. Those who won turkeys were: Ivan Hale 6, H. N. North 4, McTaggart, Jones, Sanford and White, 1 each. After the shooting contests were over, half a dozen turkeys which were left were raffled off. Among those who won their Thanksgiving dinner in this manner were: Miles Bennett 2, Lynn, Volrath and White, 1 each.
