Mrs. J. C. Robinson and her little daughter, Lillian, who have been in Portland for a month or more, returned home Saturday morning.

Mrs. W. M. Davey and her son Hugh, who have been visiting several weeks at the home of Mrs. A. J. Friday at Cross Creek, left Tuesday for their home at Madras, Idaho.

Among the Christmas festivities at Culver will be an entertainment with a can given by the Culver school children Monday evening December 24. A continuation to all.

Mrs. Edward Chaloupka and Miss Tiffany came over from the Warm Springs agency last Friday, and spent the remainder of the week visiting at the home of Mrs. Max Luettmann.

Mrs. H. J. Healey and her daughter, Clara, were in town Monday from their home near Culver. Miss Healey returned last Wednesday from Tacoma, where she visited for several months.

Mrs. and Mrs. Max Luettmann left Monday morning for Los Gatos, California, where they will visit the former's parents during the holidays. They will be several weeks in California, returning to Madras after the first of the year.

Leslie Duncan and his father from Silver Lake were in town the last of the week having "Madras Flour" for Silver Lake merchants. The product of the mill is having a big run in Lake Madras this year.

Arrangements are about completed for Christmas entertainment at the M. E. church Thursday evening, December 24. An appropriate and interesting program is being prepared and old and young are invited to a very enjoyable evening. The church is most cordially invited to attend and bring presents.

George Howard, manager of the Deschutes Lumber Co. at Bend, was in town Monday on his way home from Portland.

Howard says there is still much rail work in Portland, and the trend of it will start on the Harriman line up the Deschutes by the first of the year, but so far there has been no announcement from the head of the Harriman system.

Several ranchers from the Silver Lake country were in Madras the first of the week buying their supplies, having been attracted by the cheap prices at this place. One remarked that Madras was the best market for ranch supplies in Central Oregon, and he had tried them all. They bought quite a lot of goods, one outfit being about $250 worth from one ranch.

Several of the sportsmen of Prineville organized a gun club Tuesday night for the purpose of the sport of hunting. The Prineville club will give a prize shooting match about Christmas day to all the sportsmen of the county are invited. This gun club is also considering the proposition of importing Chinese quail and bob white quail with which to stock the country.

W. H. Lockard expects to begin this week on the construction of his cottage on the site he owns adjoining the townsite of South. He will build a very comfortable cottage on a modern and attractive plan. The house will contain eight rooms, including pantry and bath room. Lockard is building the cottage as an investment and expects to rent it. The cottage is all on the ground, and the cottage will be built and finished up at once.

W. H. Baldwin, of the First National Bank of Prineville, and Alex Mackintosh, a prominent stockman of Paulina, were in town Sunday. Mr. Baldwin came to Madras on business connected with the Huffman ranch, which he and Max Luettmann purchased some time ago, and Mr. Mackintosh drove on down to Paulina, as this was the latter's first visit to the sheep business near Paulina, and a member of the State Sheep Commission.
