yesterday and made proof upon his land before Commissioner Osborn.
He made proof upon the homestead of Keenan, deceased, as one of the William Sun of Lamonia and Frank of Grizzly were his witnesses.
Pater of Berry's Lick, Kentucky, was in Madras last Monday evening, on a visit in this locality for some time. Pater married Miss Anna Phillips, who formerly resided in this locality and has a homestead five miles west of Madras. Mrs. Pater will join her husband here later.
Phillips sent two wagon loads of bacon to Silver Lake this week.
The bacon and lard were made from hogs which Phillips fattened here and he sold the price for it, sufficient to net him $1000.00 for his grain and work.
The bacon and lard were sold to merchants at Silver Lake. Lloyd Hunter was in Madras yesterday with the pork products, driving his horses.
Coulter, who has been working for one of the Oregon Trunk Line engineers in the Deschutes Canyon, returned to his home on Agency road Saturday. He was with Mr.
Covey, which finished up the survey of the mouth of the Deschutes. The Oregon Trunk Line surveyed a connection with the State Portage road, and the survey parties were then disbanded.
It is generally believed that actual construction work will begin in the Spring.

ELLIOTT-PHILLIPS WEDDINGS

Saturday evening, January 23, 1909, in the parlor of the Prineville Hotel, Miss Jessie Phillips and Mr. Milo Elliott were united in marriage. Rev. Dr. Dunsmore of the Prineville Presbyterian church performing the marriage ceremony. Miss Laura Phillips and Oliver Phillips, sister and brother of the bride, and Miss Clara Horney of this place, with a few intimate friends from Prineville, were present to witness the happy event.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Phillips of this place, and has a wide circle of friends throughout the community. The groom is a young rancher from Hay Canyon in Sherman county, where he is interested in a tract of wheat land. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott returned Sunday evening from Prineville, and expect to remain in Madras for some time.

Monday evening the young married couple were given a rousing charivari by a crowd of their friends, who were later invited in and served with light refreshments by the bride's mother.
