

Meetings at Madras.

Lytle was in town Monday evening on his way to Laidlaw, where he recently bought timber land and engaged in the sawmill business. The machinery for the sawmill is now at Laidlaw and will be hauled out to Laidlaw in a few days. On this trip in Mr. Lytle is accompanied by a party of four prospective settlers in this county. It is understood that they have bought land near Cline Falls, and will soon build a flouring mill and a planing mill, operating them by water power from the falls on the Deschutes.

L. Bloomfield, who has charge of drilling operations for the Madras Oil Co., suffered a severe stroke of paralysis Monday morning at the camp on the West slope of the mountain. A phone message from there Monday morning stated that Mr. Bloomfield was poisoned, and Dr. Snook was called to the camp. Upon his arrival he found that Mr. Bloomfield has suffered a paralytic stroke, this being the second attack he has had. Dr. Snook stated that when he left Monday evening the patient was getting along very well and could talk a little.

LOUCKS-FULCHAM WEDDING
The news has been received here of the marriage of Mr. Glenn Loucks and Mrs. Bessie Fulcham, which event occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Long, at Medford, Jan. 27, 1909. Both the bride and groom have many friends in this locality. Mr. and Mrs. Loucks left immediately after their wedding for Eugene, where Mr. Loucks is attending business college and where he and his bride will reside until Spring. They expect to return to Madras after leaving Eugene and will make their home here.

COULD-VIBBERT MARRIAGE
At the residence of the bride on Agency Plains, Monday January 25, 1909, Mr. George M. Gould and Mrs. Margaret Vibbert were united in marriage, Rev. H. L. Hell of Madras officiating. Only a few relatives and friends were present to witness the ceremony.

Mr. Gould is a rancher of this locality, having recently made final proof upon a homestead six miles north of town. Mrs. Gould also has a quarter section of land on the plains, where she and Mr. Gould will reside.
